The great rise in real estate values in Chicago may be accounted for, suggests the Louisville Courier Journal, upon the theory that a rush is being made to invest in something that a pickpocket cannot deprive the owner of while he is glancing over his newspaper.

Recent Deaths

RECENT DEATHS.

A very sad death took place at the home of Rev. Ruch, when Mrs. Ruch's mother, Mrs. Abel Johnson, who had been visiting there for the past few weeks, was taken suddenly ill Tuesday evening and on the following morning passed into the great beyond. She was aged 64 years and death was due to heart trouble. Services were held at the house of Thursday morning after which the remains were taken to Lewisburg for interment.

FEMININE NEWS NOTES.

Paris opened its election campaign in which women took a prominent part.
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel left London to be present at the wedding of their son and Miss Marjorie Gould.
The Queen of Spain has her own physician, who receives $4000 a year, an allowance for rent, and five dollars for each visit.
After Joseph Mansfield was held for murder in New York City, Mrs. Henry Jacobs, widow of the victim, horse-whipped him in court.
James P. Gilroy, a well-known advertising man of New York City, was sued for a separation by his wife, formerly Nina Huntley, an actress.

Mrs. M. E. Read celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of her service as passenger agent at Ardmore station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Two young men caused excitement at Mrs. Belmont's suffrage meeting in the Bronx, N. Y., demanding why the ballot did not better the conditions of women in States where they vote.
Meats of all kinds advanced again in price and from 600 to 800 small shops in New York City closed. Police reserves checked the attempted rioting around butcher shops at many points.
Mrs. Ann E. Bell, aged sixty-two, and George Tucker, aged seventy-one, were married in the Church of the Ascension, Brooklyn, a granddaughter of the bride serving as maid of honor.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

Miller Huggins is showing his 1907 form about second base for Roger Bresnahan's Cardinals.
First baseman Jake Daubert, the Memphis recruit, is now assured of retention by the Brooklyn Club.
Tom Jones, the veteran first sacker with Detroit, is not worrying over the opposition furnished by Lister and Ness.
McGraw has not found much to enthuse over in his young players. It looks like the same team that played at the Polo Grounds last year.
The Giants had hard work defeating the Norfolk (Va.) nine by 3 to 0 owing to the fine pitching of Lloyd, formerly a twirler in the Bronx.
President Noyes, of Washington, went to Norfolk and induced the hold-out pitcher, Bob Groom, to sign. All Washington players are now in the fold.
Manager Jennings has decided to retain three recruit infielders, namely, first baseman Lister, second baseman Simmons and third baseman Lathers.

Gus Schmelz, the old-time manager, now a prosperous business man of Springfield, O., is of opinion that the Cincinnati Reds will win the pennant this year.
Few ball players have stuck to one city like Theodore Breitenstein has to New Orleans. The old fellow seems to have drunk of the fount of perennial youth in the Crescent City.
President Stanley Robinson, of St. Louis, says that "double-headers do not cheapen the sport," and he says if he had his way he would positively stage a double bill every Sunday.
Hans Wagner and John Miller are inseparable companions. This pair of star Pittsburgh infielders is rarely seen around the hotel lobbies. They spend their time playing seven-up in their room.

Coming King of Finance.

"I've got a boy in my employ who will be a king of finance some day," said a man who has a factory uptown. "A few weeks ago he sold a pair of homing pigeons to a man in Brooklyn. Two days afterward the pigeons appeared at his window. Another Brooklynite bought them and again the birds came back. The boy has just made a third sale. I am wondering if I had not better get rid of him before he tries to sell me my own factory."—New York Sun.

That is far from being a home, defines the Chicago Tribune, where you cannot see the family for the furniture.

THE OLDEN TIME INDIAN PUDDING

Indian meal (yellow granulated) 1 cupful, molasses 1-2 cup, milk 1 3-4 quarts, cinnamon and salt, 1-4 teaspoonful each; small lump of butter; scald 1 quart of the milk, mix meal, molasses, salt and cinnamon together and add slowly by spoonfuls to the hot milk and cook until well thickened, then turn into deep pudding pot where butter has been placed; when ready for the oven, add remaining cold milk; after baking about 3-4 of an hour cover with tin pan or plate. I usually put mine to bake early in the afternoon and let it remain until the following morning. When I slip a knife around the edges and turn it out into a shallow dish it is just about firm enough to keep its shape, and after reheating is very nice to serve at dinner, especially easy for Sunday. If this is properly baked it equals the old-fashioned brick oven variety.—Mrs. Jeannette Proctor in the Boston Post.

Show Character.

Henry Ward Beecher said: "The plainest row of books that cloth or paper ever covered is more significant of refinement than the most elaborately carved sideboard."

The Automobile Industry.

The value of automobiles entering the world's markets in 1909 exceeded $50,000,000, against $9,000,000 in 1902.

Leaves $10,000,000 Estate.

Washington—Thomas F. Walsh, the Colorado mining man, who died here several days ago, left his entire fortune, share and share alike, to his widow, Mrs. Carrie D. Walsh, and his daughter, Mrs. Evelyn B. McLean. One hundred thousand dollars was bequeathed by Mr. Walsh to charity, to be distributed by Mrs. Walsh. The will does not disclose the value of the estate left by Mr. Walsh, but it is estimated to be in excess of $10,000,000.

Big Contract for Mills.

Contracts amounting to about $5,000,000 have been awarded for the erection of 22 mills at Gary, Ind., by the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company. The company will build two plate mills, four jobbing mills and 16 sheet mills. It is planned to enlarge the Gary plant until the company will eventually have 140 mills at that place, at an expenditure of millions of dollars, making the plant the largest in the world. Employment will be given to thousands of men when the mills were placed in operation.
