VALUABLE BOOKS. Good Books are an indispensable necessity in every family, not only for the benefit of grown persons, but also for the proper training of the rising generation. Mr. H. Dasher, of Centre Hall, is now selling the following valuable works:

Large Illustrated Family Bibles; Our Departed Friends, or Glory of the Immortal Life.

Smith's Bible Dictionary. War Between the States by A. H.

These works are worth their weight in gold, and should be found in every upon the citizens of this vicinity, when change the color of their hair with safety.

A FINE BOOK.-Mr. H. Dasher, last week laid upon our table a handsomely bound copy of, "Our Departed Friends, Or Glory of the Immortal Life." The edging is of gold, but the contents of the work are far more valuable than the most precious metal. Mr. D. is the agent for this excellent

We would advise farmers, and owners of country property generally, to look to their interest when they insure against loss or damage by fire. Patronize a company which insures only the farmer's class of property. Such is the Farmer's Mutual Insurance Co., of Danville, Pa. They insure no town or village property whatever, and no stores or steam property in town or tis country. We see no necessity in farmers being heavily taxed to pay for the burning of village property, stores, benefits of the profits.

&c., when they can avoid it by patron
The Dividends are paid annually, after de., when they can avoid it by patronizing a company which insures only country property. By a strict adherence to their plan of Insurance, they until they reach the sum of the annual prehave accumulated a Capital of over $500,000. They have operated over nine years, and paid all losses by making but one assessment, said assessment being but $2,00 to the $1,000 actual Insurance. They insure at a less cost than any other company in the State. Address their agent, C. R. Gearhart, at Bellefonte, Pa.
