

THE EMPTY CRADLE.—There is a whole volume of poetry in the following little sketch, which appeared in a late number of the Weekly, an excellent literary journal edited by a lady:

We met John on the stairs. He was carrying an old cradle, to be stowed away among what he termed "plunder" in the lumber room. One rocker was gone, and the wicker work of the sides broken; it was an old willow affair, but yet we could not refrain from casting a sad look into its empty depths. "Gone!" we said dreamily, "all gone!" What golden heads were once pillowed here, heads on which the curls grew moist in slumber, and cheeks and lips flushed to the hue of rose leaves. When sleep broke, the silken fringed lids opened heavily from the slumberous eyes; smiles fitted like sunbeams over the face; the white fist was thrust into the mouth, and when mamma lifted the muslin and peeped to see if baby was sleeping, cooing and crowing was heard. The little feet began to kick, out of pure delight, and kicked until both of the tiny red shoes were landed at the foot of the cradle. Where are those hands now? Some that were embrowned by vigorous manhood are sleeping on battle fields, some are bleached with time and cares, and they have grown sore and weary on the rough paths of life. Perhaps some little one, once tenderly rocked here, is sleeping in the coffin. Over it grows heartseases, and vigorous box and white candy-tuft, and the stary jessamine. The bluebird flutters its bright wings through the willow boughs, and the cool wind whispers to the green leaves and grass blades on the grave. What of? Perhaps of its immortality. Sleep on, little dreamless one. "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

HYDROPHOBIA REMEDY.—The following is said to be a cure for the bite of a mad dog: "Mix one pound of common salt in a quart of water, then bathe and squeeze the wound with the same one hour, then bind a little more salt on the wound for twelve hours." Prussic acid is also a sure cure—to be administered to the dog before he gets mad.

OUR RAILROADS.—The track has been laid from Phillipsburg almost to the Blue Ball. The cars can run to that point this week. The engineers are at work on the road to Morrisdale. A gang of thirty hands are actively at work on the extension of the road from Osceola to Madera. At the rate the work is progressing the three roads will be entirely completed within the next six months.—Clearfield Journal.

In a recent thunder storm in England a soldier was struck by lightning and made blind, and a woman who had been stone blind for eight years was as suddenly restored to sight.

Charles G. Atkins, one of the State fish commissioners, is experimenting with shad breeding at Augustus, Me., and has hatched and let loose in the river 49,000 from the 100,000 eggs with which he started.

On Thursday of last week, a man named Thomas, a farmer residing in Centre township, Greene county, came to his death under the following circumstances: On the day mentioned Thomas was in the act of cruelly beating his youngest child, when the mother interfered to save the little one. Upon this Thomas seized his wife by the throat and choked her. All this time a little son of the pair had been quietly looking on, but upon the instant that his mother was attacked, he drew from his pocket a pen-knife, with which he stabbed his father several times, cutting the intestines, inflicting of course, fatal injuries. The lad had not been arrested at last accounts, the neighbors generally regarding the act as justifiable. The age of young Thomas is only thirteen.

Wheat Harvest.—Midnight—The wheat harvest in the British Isles is nearly over and according to the estimates which can now be formed the yield will be double that of last year, and exceed one-third of the annual average.

The fish are dying in great numbers in Rock river, Wisconsin. The Water-torn Republican says that at one time the dead carcasses became so numerous on the banks of the river that it was necessary for parties to turn out and bury them, fearing that the stench might create sickness. This devastation among the finny tribes is attributed to the extreme heat of the past few weeks. The red horse and sucker species seem to be the principal sufferers.

CHICAGO, July 31.—During the storm last evening three persons in different parts of the city were killed by lightning.

There is to be a picnic of fat men at Utica, New York, next month. No person will be allowed to participate in the festivities who weighs under two hundred and fifty pounds.

Brigham Young frequently goes to church with from thirty-five to fifty wives. Nice lot for a family pew.

Pennsylvania will send five Catholic Bishops to the General Council at Rome next year.

The Bureau niggers in the South draw their rations regular and feed them to their hogs. Keeper up, taxpayers!

Great Democratic ratification meetings, notwithstanding the heat, are the order of the day—or rather the evening—from Maine to Kansas.

The difference between Seymour and Grant, that the former represents Democrats, and the latter represents the Demijohns.

Another gun-head tried the other day to grind some blasting powder in a coffee mill. The mill was ruined and a funeral came off next day.

Brownlow speaks of the late President Lincoln as "our martyr in heaven." Well, then, between him and Brownlow there will be a great gulf.

General Butler said in a speech two or three days ago that President Johnson was more guilty than Judas Iscariot. It is very natural that Ben should have a kind feeling for Judas, for the latter, like himself, was a dealer in silver and carried the bag.

The Pittsburg Post says: We have the names of eighty men who have never hitherto voted the Democratic ticket, who intend doing so this year. We have never known as many changes in favor of the Democracy in our experience in political life. The operating causes for this, cannot be traced to mass meetings or personal impetuosity. They come to it by a calm survey of the situation, and judge wisely when they determine to reject the teachings of men who seem to have no other principles than the possession of loaves and fishes.

The whole South is infested with bands of negro highwaymen. Good farms in Virginia are selling for about $30 an acre.

VALUABLE FARM AT PRIVATE SALE!
