For the Reporter. In your paper of last week, I notice an article stating the length of a corn-stalk. I had the pleasure of going with Nathaniel Boop to measure a corn-stalk, which measured 12 feet 7 inches. We challenge the count.

Rev. Farney we understand received a call from the Aaronsburg Church charge, at which place he preached a trial sermon last Sabbath.

On Friday last, the wife of John C. Wagner, of the Leep, was bitten in the thumb by a snake, supposed a Copperhead, while in the woods picking huckleberries. The consequences, we are glad to learn, have not yet proven very serious.

By a letter to the Reporter, it will be seen that there will be no Court held for the week of 5th Monday in August.

The camp-meeting, above Centre Hall, on last Sunday, was very large in attendance; we hereby witnessed to many people, buggies and horses at a similar gathering in this county before. There was good order throughout the day; one fellow got knocked down, a short distance from the grounds, on account of a bottle of whisky which one accused the other of stealing. On the evening previous, Saturday, we are informed; there were some drunken characters prowling around. Such should always be dealt with according to law.

The laying of the corner-stone for a new Lutheran church at Boolsburg, took place last Sabbath, and was attended by a large concourse of people. The ministers participating in the ceremonies were Revs. Hackenberg, Zettlemoyer and Groh.

The new church is to be a very fine one.

On last Monday we witnessed the working of Messrs. Morris & Royce's patent hay-loader. We think the machine is a merit, and that it is constructed upon a principle that will succeed, and the hay-loader in course of a few years be found as indispensable as the mower or the rake.

Vendu.—Vendu of personal property of Mich. Stover, dec'd, in Pettit Tp., Aug. 21st. Jac. Condo's sale, Woodward, 25th August.

The democratic meeting, at Churchville, on Thursday evening of last week, was well attended, and addressed by Messrs. Fortney and Kreps.

On last Saturday afternoon a horse of Jacob Hosterman, esq., took fright in Aaronsburg, and ran off, tearing his top-buggy to pieces.

Masons are at work putting up the foundation for a new Lutheran church at Pleasant Gap. The corner-stone, we understand, will be laid a few Sabbaths hence.
