

National Democratic Platform.

1st. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

2d. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

3d. Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and when the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4th. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including the government bonds, and other public securities.

5th. One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6th. Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system, and discontinuance of inquisitorial assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the state militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7th. Reform of abuses in the administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of, the executive and judicial departments of the government; the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8th. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms, we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career.

After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as it is in power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has nullified the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus—that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures, arrests, and military trials, and secret star chamber inquiries for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American Capitol into a battle; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunals, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because it would not concede his high office to the support of the false and treasonable charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have expended any thing known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debilitated people. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet. Under its reported assaults the pillars of the government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, who will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States throw off all submission to the British crown the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power, which can find no support in the Constitution, and it sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unmitigated despotism be established in place of a Federal Republic of independent States.

and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so-called) of Congress, as such, are usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void.

Alabama. MONTGOMERY, August 8.—The House this morning rejected the Senate bill by 43 to 32, authorizing the Legislature to cast the electoral vote of the State, but in the afternoon reconsidered their action and passed the bill by 48 to 18. The Speaker and others protested against it.

Chicago, August 11.—The Marshal of Huttonville, Crawford County, Illinois, on last Friday, accompanied by a posse, attempted to arrest a gang of four robbers. The robbers fired upon them, killing one of the posse, whereupon the Marshal and his men rushed upon the scoundrels and killed all of them.

A fire in Lisbon, footed up a loss of 100,000 pounds.

The town of Laporte, Cal., was destroyed by fire on the 10th inst. Loss $500,000.

Gant kissed a baby at Council Bluffs. The baby has been sick ever since.

The minister who boasted of preaching without notes don't wish to be understood as referring to greenbacks.

An Illinois paper says there is a man in Olney so dirty that the assessors put him down as real estate.

Anna Dickerson declared that Grant's whiskey record is not half as infamous as his Indian baby record in California. O, "gen Anna," what a tongue you have! You shouldn't blow family matters on the "great captain with his whiskers." Perhaps, though, this is one of the ways Grant has of "spreading civilization" beyond the Rocky Mountains.

That was a triumphant appeal of an Irishman who was a lover of antiquity, who in arguing the superiority of old architecture over the new, said: "Where will you find any modern building that lasted so long as the ancient?"
