CENTRE HALL REPORTER.
FRIDAY, OCT 30th, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT:
HORATIO SEYMOUR,
of New York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:
GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,
of Missouri.

Next Tuesday, 3.
Nov., is the presidential election.

Democrats, one more determined effort for your country. Come to the polls, let not a single democratic vote be lacking, a full vote insures success. Turn out!

Work! work! WORK!!!
Let nothing be undone.
Let us reduce the already reduced majority.
Let us do all in our power!
We have everything to encourage and nothing to discourage us.
Duty commands us to work.
Let us work!

ONE IN A HUNDRED.
The official returns show that the total vote at the late election in this State, was 653,000, and that the radical majority for Auditor General is 9,677 and for Surveyor General, 9179.
Thus, it will be seen that the Democrats polled 49 1/2 per cent. of the whole vote of the State, whilst the Radicals polled 50 1/2 per cent. A change, therefore, of ONE VOTE IN EVERY HUN-DRED from the Radical to the Democratic side, will give the Democrats 50 1/2 per cent. of the vote and leave the Radicals 49 1/2 of it, which will give the Democrats a majority of 4,353 in the State. The result of the Presidential election, the fate of the Republic, seems, therefore, to hang upon this possible change of ONE VOTE IN A HUNDRED. DEMOCRATS, CON-SERVATIVES, WILL YOU NOT
REDOUBLE YOUR EFFORTS AND ACCOMPLISH THIS INSIG-NIFICANT CHANGE?

GOVERNOR SEYMOUR'S APPOINT-MENTS.
Buffalo, October 22.—Governor Seymour, accompanied by S. E. Church Francis Kernan and A. Schell, will leave at 11:20 A. M. to-morrow, and will speak in Cleveland in the evening, at Chicago on Saturday evening, at Indianapolis on Monday evening, at Columbus, Ohio, on Tuesday evening, and at Philadelphia on Friday evening.

Outrageous Insult Offered to Irishmen by a Radical Senator.
Selma, October 21.—Willard Warner, United States Senator from Alabama, is canvassing this part of the State for the Grant ticket. He stated here, that "the Irish stunk louder and stunk worse than any set of niggers that he ever was in company with, and were not as fit for the franchise as the nigger." It was said in the presence of a number of United States officers.
The undersigned called on General Warner for an explanation of this charge upon the Irish, and he attempted to apologize for it, but stated that "he was riding in a railroad car in Ohio, not long since and they were drinking and smoking and they stunk as bad as niggers."
Signed P. E. Veyhan.

On Monday evening last an unknown German called at a hotel in Foster's Meadow, N. Y., became interested in a game of cards, lost $10, and hanged himself in the swamp in the rear of the hotel during the night.

ALABAMA.

Fruits of the Radical Victories—Negroes Encouraged to Rob, Murder and Ravish.

Mobile, October 22.—A white woman, sixty years of age, was assaulted and ravished by three negroes in the outskirts of the city yesterday, in broad day light. Her life is in serious danger from the injuries inflicted.
A market man was assaulted by negroes yesterday a short distance from the city, and was mortally wounded by a musket shot while insensible, and was that stripped naked, even his shoes being taken away.

ANOTHER NATIONAL CONVEN-TION.

A circular dated Baltimore, calls for a convention of the colored people of the United States to assemble on the 13th of January next, in Washington city. The circular thus explains the object of the convention:
"The partial or total exclusion of colored citizens from the elective franchise and other citizens rights in so many States of the Union especially demands and ought to receive, the continued consideration of every colored man, and of the Congress of the nation. Surely, the fourteenth amendment of the United States Constitution, recently adopted, does not justify such exclusion. Surely, citizenship, as declared by that amendment, carries with it the right of citizens; and the evident duty of a liberty-loving and a loyal Congress is to see that a republican form of government is guaranteed to every State. That it is not guaranteed while any State is permitted to withhold from citizens, on account of color merely, the rights of citizens.
Whatever subjects you may deem of sufficient importance to bring before the national convention, brethren, this exclusion is the all-absorbing question of the present, and must call forth our earnest action, by petition, by personal appeal, by protest, and by what votes we have, unless justice be done. The right secured of voting, irrespective of color, will necessarily restore to us other rights of which we are now deprived."

Presidential election, Tuesday, Nov.
3. Democrats, poll your whole vote!

A Man Hangs Himself in a Lofty Tree.
About a week ago, a man named Levi Pitts Gregory, who lived near Dixon Springs committed suicide under the most extraordinary circumstances.
It appears that the deceased during the war, received a fright from which he never entirely recovered, and has at various periods exhibited slight aberrations of his intellect, which were noticed by his friends, and some months since his reason was entirely de-truded. His insanity or mania was, that a plan to hang himself had been concocted by his enemies and that they were constantly pursuing him for that purpose.

WEST VIRGINIA.
Democratic Victory—The State Carried by Three Thousand Majority—Wheeling Carried by Three Hundred Majority.

Wheeling, West Virginia, October 23.—The returns of the election in this State to-day, for Governor and members of Congress, are meager and come in slowly.
Wood County and Parkersburg have gone Democratic, and give a Democratic majority of 200 over the vote of 1866.
The returns thus far received show Democratic gains in Ohio County and Wheeling City, where the vote is very close.

The Radicals concede Wheeling by 100 majority, but the Democrats claim it by 300.
Returns from Centre Township show a Radical gain.

Later.
Wheeling, October 22.—West Virginia is Democratic. Returns show large Democratic gains. The Democratic majority is estimated at three thousand. Tell your people "to go and do likewise." Rejoice with us over our deliverance.

Under radical rule the debt is increasing at the rate of 12 MILLION per month. Vote for a change and to save you from ruin.

Heading a Railroad—Illegal Legislation Annulled.
The Legal Intelligencer of last week contains the report of a very important case. A Mrs. Caldwell sued the railroad Company (what company is not mentioned) for personal injuries received by a train being thrown from the track in September, 1866!

On the 30th of January, 1868, slow time this, it was tried, and a verdict for the lady amounting to $11,000 damages.

The R. R. Co., of course, entered and argued a motion for a new trial 18th of March, and the learned Solan of the Court granted it (here comes the first schedule again)—unless the plaintiff would agree to a judgment to be entered for $7,500.

The plaintiff no doubt with the terror of forty miles of locomotives and running stock on her track assented to the compromise $7,500 11th April 1868 but (here the machine is pulled out a foot or two more, on the 4th of April 1868, An Act of Assembly is perused which after a long preamble, confines the verdict of juries for damages in personal injuries to $3,000! and relying on this Act of Assembly they take a rule on the plaintiff to have the compromise verdict of $7,500 to the Harrisburg standard. The Supreme Court, however have decided that "the act of April 4th 1868, limiting the amount of damages in actions against common carriers is unconstitutional."

The company, by thus flying from their own confessional allowed their over cunning to get the better of them where a little, slow, plodding reflection, and keeping away from a jury, might have spared them for along period, another quiet little pet of an act of steam legislation. It proves the truth of a good old Spanish proverb, that there are more foxes' skins at the hatters than asses. "The race is not always to the swift."

During the day and towards evening, a great many small green flies or what are popularly termed midges, had been caught in the web; of these we counted one hundred and twenty all dead and fast prisoners in the spider's net. Soon after dark, provided with a lantern, we went to examine whether the spider was suffering, from indigestion or in any other way from his previous meals; instead, however, of being thus affected, he was employed in rolling up together the various little green midges, which he then took to his retreat and tea. This process he repeated, carrying up the lots in little detachments, until the web was eaten, for the web and its contents were bundled up together. A slight rest of about an hour was followed by the most industrious web-makers process, and before daybreak another web was ready to be used in the same way.
Taking the relative size of the spider and of the creature it ate, and applying this to a man, it would be somewhat as follows: At daybreak a small alligator was eaten; at seven a. m. a lamb, at 9 a. m. a young camelopard; at 1 o'clock a sheep, and during the night one hundred and twenty larks.
This, we believe, would be a very fair allowance for a man during twenty four hours; and could we find one gifted with such an appetite and digestion, we can hardly comprehend how he might spin five miles of web with out killing himself, provided he possessed the necessary machinery.

What a Spider Eats per Dime.

In order to test what a spider could do in the way of eating, we arose about day-break in the morning to supply his fine web with a fly. At first however, the spider did not come from its retreat, so we peeped among the leaves, and there discovered that an earwig had been caught and was now fastened on. The spider left the earwig, rolled up the fly, and at once returned to his "first course." This was at half past five a. m. in September. At seven a. m. the earwig had been demolished and the spider, after resting awhile, and probably enjoying a nap, came down for the fly, which he had finished at nine a. m. A little after nine [we supplied him with additional long legs, which he ate by noon.
At one o'clock a blowfly was greedily seized, and then immediately, with an appetite apparently no worse for his previous indulgence, he commenced on the blowfly.

The Court of appeals of New York, in the case of Green against Shumway has made a very important decision, viz.: that the test oath cannot under the constitution of the United States be required by legislation as a condition of the right of suffrage, and that the Legislature of the State of New York has no power to establish by law any qualification whatever for electors in this State.

A comparison between the births in London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna shows that the women of Vienna bear more, and those of Paris less children than the women of the other cities.
More legitimate children are born in London than in Vienna, Berlin and Paris; so far as illegitimate births are concerned, London stands lowest and Vienna highest on the list. The number of marriages is greatest in Berlin and smallest in Vienna. Of still-born children, Paris has more and Vienna less than any of the other cities. The population is densest in Paris; London is the lowest in this respect. Finally the people of London eat more meat than those of Paris, Vienna and Berlin.

was revolving at the rate of one hundred and fifty times a minute, in the them from his body. He clung to the shaft until the engine was stopped, and escaped unhurt.

Three Children Burned to Death.
Boston, October 21.—Three children of Byron Goodell, residing in Peabody, Massachusetts, and all under six years of age, were burned to death yesterday.
They were playing in a small outbuilding stored with hay, and probably fired it with matches.

A carpet bagger in Georgia recently advised his colored friends: "I tell you not to consider or treat any man, white or black, who is a Democrat, as a gentleman, and if any of the white livered scoundrels come whining around you on election day, with suggestions or advice as to how you should vote, knock their teeth down their throats."

Below will be found what is deemed a proper text from which to preach the funeral sermon of Ben. Butler: From Jeremiah iii., 19: "And the basins, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away."
