

CENTRE HALL REPORTER.

FRIDAY, OCT. 30th, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT: HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR, of Missouri.

NOTICE.—Many of our subscribers have failed to make advance payment for the REPORTER, and the attention of such is called to our Terms. We are printing the REPORTER for half a dollar less per year, than any county paper of its size in Pennsylvania, and furnish as much reading matter as other papers which cost $2.00 and $2.50 per year.

GEN. BUTLER'S REPORT ON THE EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.

It was our intention to furnish the readers of the Reporter, this week, with some extracts from the report of Gen. Butler, upon the above subject, but owing to delay in preparing the copy, we are obliged to omit it.

For a full history of this inhuman and murderous Grant policy, we must now content ourselves by referring the reader to the Tribune of August 7th, 1867, in which the great radical leader, Gen. Butler, publishes his report, and fastens the blame upon the radical candidate for president, General Grant.

Courage, Democrats, in every other state, outside of our own, our gains are heavy, and the prospects very fair for Seymour & Blair. We were defeated by only a small majority, in October, and that can be overcome in November, if you but do your whole duty, and work until the polls close, on the 3rd of November.

West Virginia wheels into the Democratic column by two thousand majority, and now calls to Pennsylvania to redeem herself on the 3rd of November.

Double Villainy.

We are told that the radicals in buying votes, paid for them in many instances in counterfeit money. Well, we never thought them too good to engage in double villainy—they will be guilty of buying votes, they will pay for them in counterfeit money, and then turn round and steal it back again from the poor dupe, if possible, and use it in corrupting another. Any one mean enough, to sell his vote, if he is cheated by counterfeit radical greenbacks.

Wendell Phillips recently spoke of General Grant, to a writer of the Independent as follows: "I do not say there may not be emergencies so severe as would compel me to vote for a man who sometimes got drunk; but I say that the people have the right to know of a public man whether he does drink or not, so that they may give their vote intelligently. What I charged about his drinking, was not the charge in public."

I am directed by the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, to offer to the county, giving in November the largest per centage of increase over its Democratic vote in October, a banner with appropriate devices, costing $500.

We are reliably informed that the chairman of the radical county committee, should have declared, they had spent $10,000 in Centre county, to make votes for radicalism at the October election. We have no doubt of it—and these enormous sums come from the pockets of the government thieves, who, under radical rule, robbed the public treasury of hundreds of millions, and now they use part of this plunder to corrupt the ballot, so that they may continue in their thieving operations.

We have evidence to prove and convince every man, that under the present radical rule, commencing in 1860, there was more fraud, rascality, robbery, plundering, and thieving by radical office holders, high and low than under 80 years of Democratic rule.

"Let Us Have Peace." The above is the motto of the Grant party just now. During the war, when Democrats asked for peace, and that the slaughter of brother by brother might be stayed, the radicals replied by mobbing and hanging, and to pray for peace then was to be a "cop perhead," a traitor and rebel sympathizer.

"Let us have peace" says Grant and the radicals now. Well, this means to say that the four years of bloodshed did not yet bring us peace, notwithstanding the radicals have had unlimited power, for the last 7 years. Is this not strange? Why do they not give us peace? The war ended three years ago, and with all their power, their battle cry, accuses them of their inability to govern.

Should there ever be a tax on names, the Bellefonte radical organ will have a long tax to pay—it now bears a cognomen six yards in length, and evidently thinks there is "something in a name." Our neighbor now reminds us of the baptismal of a young sprig of royalty, blessed with Charles Herbert William Francis Schmickeltritz Constantinepolche Dudlesacks-pfeife.

In 1866 Clymer had 290,096 votes, for governor; in 1868 Boyle received 321,393, for Auditor General. This makes an increase of the Democratic vote in Pennsylvania, of 31,297 in two years. Democrats, this is encouraging enough, and had it not been for radical fraud and colonization, the recent election would have given us a handsome majority.

Democrats of Centre, a few votes in each district, in our favor, will throw Pennsylvania for Seymour. It is of the greatest importance to have out every voter. See to it that not a single vote is lost. The contest is for constitutional liberty against radical despotism. A continuation of radical rule will completely ruin the country. The radicals have already half robbed us of our liberties, make one more determined effort to save the country.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The following conversation, between two radicals was overheard by a Democrat on Monday evening last. It is rather complimentary to Bill Brown:

FIRST RAD—"Say, who is going to speak at our meeting at the Fort to-night?"

SECOND RAD—"Oh, d—n it, they have sent Bill Brown over."

FIRST RAD—"Well, Brown's a d—n onery cuss, that's a fact, but still he can dig into the copperheads pretty well."

Eighty years of Democratic rule in the United States, and no taxation and no stamps to pester the people, but all prosperity.

Radicals Assassinating Doubtful Members of their Own Party—More Arms for the Negroes. St. Louis, October 24.—The Democrat's special from Little Rock, Arkansas, says the Hon. James Hinds, member of Congress from the Second District, was assassinated to day, while traveling through Monroe. The Hon. Joseph R. Brooks, who was with Mr. Hinds, was wounded, but it is supposed not fatally.

The republican has a special from Little Rock Arkansas, which says: The report of the assassination of Congressman Hinds and the wounding of Mr. Brooks is distrusted. The dispatch further says that the Radical party defeated both Hinds and Brooks out of the nomination of Congress. Both were discontenanced, and were making a canvass among the negroes against the Radical Central Committee, Rice & Co., and were capable of doing the Radical party great injury.

The Radical charge the killing on the Democrats, but the endeavor to fix it on them will prove fruitless, as the Democrats had everything to hope for from the desertion of Hinds and Brooks, which would eventually be disastrous to Radicalism. It was the interest of the Democracy to preserve their lives, and it was the interest of Rice & Co., to put them put of the way. If they were killed the Democrats would suffer, while the Radicals would gain.

On the 20th instant a party of fifty negroes attacked Dardanel, firing into the houses of the whites, who rallied and drove them out. A peace meeting was held by the whites the next day.

The Times of this morning says there are 10,000 stand of small arms now in St. Louis, which were purchased for the Governor of Arkansas, and other Southern Governors, but so far it has been impossible to ship them on any regular boat, or to charter a steamer specially to take them.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts says of the negro governments established in the South, called by this run-and Congress, re-constructed governments:

"I do not believe this system of reconstruction can ever stand. It is entirely contrary to the whole theory of our Constitution. From top to bottom it is wrong. It is placing by force one class not fitted to rule. That is the whole fact of the matter. It cannot stand. It is clear to me and to every unprejudiced mind. The country can not and never will be reconstructed on that principle."

Congressional Gain. We have gained four Democratic Congressmen in Ohio, one in Indiana, and three in Pennsylvania. If the Radical House will permit these new Democratic members to take their seats it will make a difference of sixteen in the vote of that body.

A Sister's Devotion.

A California paper tells this story: "A convicted murderer, sentenced to death at Austin, Nevada, was last week furnished by his sister with materials for writing, three files, four fine saws, and poison with which to commit suicide in case his efforts to escape failed. They were concealed in the back of the frame of a large photograph of his sister, which she brought to him and had the jailer deliver it to him in her presence. With the saws he had nearly cut off his iron with his attempts were discovered and the tools found, though the poison was yet effectually concealed. The sister promised other assistance, which she was to render in person, as others were afraid, and a plan whereby, under pretence of giving another prisoner into his charge, the jailer was to be induced to open his door, when he was to be overpowered by the pretended guard and the murderer spirited away. The sister was indicted for aiding to rescue a prisoner."

Grasshoppers in Texas—Startling Sight.

The plague of grasshoppers is again sweeping over a large area of Texas. Up to last advices it had not reached Dallas, none having been nearer than Mansfield, Tarrant county, according to the Dallas Herald. That paper, however, has heard from them at several places on the frontier.

At the Sulphur Springs on the Brazos, in the county of Hood, they appeared in clouds on Monday, the 21st ult., and ate up every kind of vegetation. When they first appeared it was thought by the campers around the Springs to be a cloud, and preparations were made for rain; they made a noise in their flight very similar to a storm of wind and rain. When they came nearer, however, they began to descend and cover the earth in every direction, consuming all garden stuffs and other green vegetation they could find.

The following extract of a letter from John H. Cochran, esp., dated at Belknap, on the 10th of last month, describes the first appearance of the pest.

An express car on the Hudson River Railroad was recently robbed of $125,000, the messenger being gagged and tied. It now turns out that the messenger was a party to the robbery, and has since received $10,000 of the stolen money.

The recent disastrous explosion at Metz was caused by a work-woman, in a moment of passion, throwing a pair of scissors among the fulminating powder used in the manufacture of cartridges. Forty-five persons were killed, besides twenty-eight badly wounded.

A physician in Concord, N. H., has a wonderful cane. It is so arranged as to combine a walking stick, a thirty-inch telescope, and a nice opera glass, and all perfectly secure from dust. It is easily and readily adjusted for either use and was patented on the 28th of last July.

Richard Walkley, who, for murdering his father in Springfield, Mass., seventeen years ago, was sentenced to be hanged, and whose sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life, died a few days ago at Charleston, after a sickness of several months, nearly 69 years old.

A shrewd fellow in Texas pretended to have found a box of diamonds on the shore, and allowed others to share the prize at $150 a "grab." Several took the opportunity of enriching themselves, until it was found that the diamonds could be really cut with a knife.

A man made money at a New England fair, by letting people raise him up by the ears at twenty-five cents premium for success and ten cents find for failure.

A lady in Baltimore has sent the Secretary of the Treasury two cents, telling him that the compound interest on it in a thousand years will pay the national debt, and save the country from the crime of repudiation.

Burglars on Friday night made a raid on the office of Alexander & Son, Beaver street, New York, but failed to open the safe, which contained fifty thousand dollars.

The Destruction by the earthquake—No Estimation of the Loss—Gold Coin Shipments—Another Earthquake Shock.

San Francisco, October 23.—Details of the destruction of property in the interior of the State by the earthquake of October 21 have been received here. Alameda County suffered the most, the damage to property extending in all directions. Back of San Leandro there were numerous fissures in the earth, from some of which came clouds of dust and from others volumes of water. San Leandro creek, dry for months, is now rapidly running from places hot water and steam gushed forth. The villages of San Leandro and Hayward are almost in ruins. The brick buildings are all down or uninhabitable, and numerous wooden structures are much damaged.

San Francisco, October 23.—215 A. M.—Another severe shock of earthquake has occurred here, and has sent the people shrieking with terror into the streets. It is impossible to tell at present whether any more damage has been sustained by the shattered buildings or any lives lost. The streets are thronged with people in their night-clothes, fearful of what may come next. The atmosphere is thick, and the weather warm and sultry.

The Prairie du Chien Union contains a notice of the death, by consumption, of Judson Hard. About a week before he died he was ordered by his physician to quit work, and he did his last typesetting on a notice of his own death.

Isaac Armour was thrown from his wagon, near Ottawa, Illinois, on Tuesday, and his feet catching in the "hounds" he was dragged with his back on the ground three miles. When the horses were stopped he was dead.

A man in New Jersey has recovered a verdict of $500 against another, because a child of the former was drowned in a tub in which the latter had placed at his door.
