

CENTRE HALL REPORTER. FRIDAY, NOV. 6th, 1868.

THE RESULT.

The election for President is over, and has resulted strongly in favor of General Grant, and a defeat of the Democratic party and its noble and great standard bearer, Horatio Seymour.

We did all in our power to prevent such a result, and are gratified to know that this side of the county, to which our labors were principally confined, and in which the Reporter has a heavy circulation, has come up to the work so nobly, and increased its Democratic majority, when almost every other locality shows radical gains—this is an evidence of the importance and good results of circulating Democratic newspapers.

The Democracy are defeated, but not disgraced; of our gallant standard bearer, Horatio Seymour, we can ever feel proud, and our principles are as enduring as the heavens, and again do we stand ready to battle for the triumph of our creed.

The radicals have carried the election and four years longer must we submit to their rule. Should Gen. Grant prove true to his oath to support the Constitution and the best interests of our country, and lead a deaf ear to the bold and bad leaders of radicalism, we shall praise him and have no regrets for his election. That he may serve for the good and welfare of our country, is our fond wish.

HOW RADICALS MAKE VOTES.

We stated in the Reporter, week before last, that the radicals of Centre county, had called in to their aid fraud to reduce the democratic majority. That hundreds of voters were colonized, is undeniable; that others were bought is also true, and others, again, voted the radical ticket several times. We have it from reliable authority, that a radical was arrested, at Bellefonte, last week, for voting three times—at Bellefonte and two other districts. By frauds of this nature, the radicals carried the October election.

THE HOWARD WORKS SHUT UP.

RADICAL RULE AND GOOD TIMES.

The Howard Iron Works, in this county, were closed up last week by the Sheriff; a large force of hands are out of employ, and a hard winter staring them in the face, with no income to provide for them food and clothing. The Howard Works have emphatically died of radical rule, and oft repeated radical promises of "good times."

Why do great abolition monopolies break up in the very height of abolition power? Why don't radicalism make good its "good times" promises, and give us an evidence of their promised good government? The Howard Company breaks up under abolition rule—farmers are cheated, mechanics are cheated, and laborers are cheated; don't even now get depreciated radical money for what the Company owes them. Under democratic rule, the Howard Company flourished; the farmer got his pay in gold; the mechanic got his pay in gold, and the laborer got his pay in gold.

"Good times," were promised the people, if only we keep radicalism in power. Sheriff's sales, and constable's sales are now on every day thing, and radicalism, after seven years promising and in the full height of power, and still their promises, "we will give you good times," and fools and dupes enough to put faith in these promises, and keep voting the radical ticket.

The "good times" promise has been kept to the contractor, speculator, and office-holder, who, under radical rule, has had a "good time" robbing the country.

"Good times," is a fine promise for the bond-holder, who bought his bond with greenbacks, and is having a "good time" drawing his principal and interest in gold.

An advertisement appeared in a German newspaper, in New York for fifty men at six dollars per week, and no less than five hundred men appeared at the place appointed, the next morning. The circumstance develops a great scarcity of work.

This is what we are coming to, under abolition rule. A fine prospect for the laborer and for the country. These are evidences of the radical "good times."

London, November 1.—It is reported that slight shocks of earthquake have been felt at Leamington, in Warwick county.

PENNS VALLEY O. K.

The gallant Democracy of Pennsylvania, have again performed their duty nobly. We not only held our own on this side, but have increased our majority 10 over that in October—then it was 959, now we boast of 969 Miles township did nobly. The honest Democratic farmers greet us with a gun of 13 size October.

All honor to the brave Democrats of our fertile valleys—they never falter, they never will fall. Penns and Brushvalles are an eyecore to the rads of the other side, and many and deep are the curses they heap upon our devoted heads, but we still keep true to constitutional principles in spite of their scoffs.

A Poor House.

The Bellefonte radical organ of last week, has an article favoring the erection of a Poor House for Centre county. This seems strange from a radical organ, which proclaimed but a few days ago, that a radical victory would be a blessing, especially for the poor; if there were any truth in these radical promises, a poor-house would not be needed. The fact is, the prospect of people becoming poor is stronger now under radical victory and rule than ever before, and this radical organ sees it already. But yesterday that sheet cried, "give us victory and good times will follow," it got a victory and now follows "give us a poor-house." Give the radicals power in Centre county, and a costly poor house will be the next item of expense. Let radicalism rule a while longer, and the whole country will be one vast poor-house, in charge of the bondholder.

"He Came to Blackguard."

The rads had an appointment for a meeting at Millheim, a few evenings before the election. Among the "talkers" was Boyd Hutchison, who, as we are reliably informed, mounted the stand, and commenced in the following impudent strain, "I have not come to Penn township to make a speech, but only to blackguard the democrats." Now if this is Mr. Hutchison's style, we were mistaken in our estimate of his sense of propriety and decency, in both of which branches he may need improvement, otherwise a repetition of such insults to a respectable community as that of Millheim, may give him cause to regret that his early training has been so sadly neglected. We doubt whether the men of Millheim would honor such subjects with their attention, but can't say that some of the little boys of that town might not take offence at such insults, and give fellows who merely go there to blackguard his people, a thrashing. We would rather such reports were unfounded, and had hoped that political blackguardism was waning away and that election campaigns would be conducted, free from anything personal and offensive, and that public speakers would make it an aim to reason and discuss questions as becomes men. If Boyd Hutchison can't do that, the radical party had better keep him at Bellefonte.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature will stand as follows: Republicans.....18 Democrats.....362 Democrats.....15 Democrats.....28

Rep maj. 3 Rep maj. 24

Republican majority on joint ballot 27

A letter from the city of Mexico, says that in the village of Tayahuac, situated among the lava fields in the valley of Mexico, some workmen digging below one of the large lava fields, discovered not only well preserved buildings, but even dried up human bodies, which made them believe that a city had been buried there similar to Herculaneum and Pompeii. A scientific commission is going thither to examine the spot.

Three of the most expert counterfeiter in the country, Hector Auger, George St. Michael, and Isaac Mentenau, have been arrested at Lawrence, Massachusetts, and taken to Boston for examination.

The smoke from the recent volcanic eruption in the Sandwich Islands was seen one thousand miles from the Islands, and at half that distance was so dense that officers of ships were prevented from making astronomical observations.

The Radicals have raised a terrible howl over the murder of Mr. Martin, a member of the South Carolina Legislature. It was declared to be another "rebel outrage." But it now appears that he was killed for his money by a couple of "black men and breathen."

A young woman in the South, during the war, wrote to Jeff. Davis saying: "I want you to let James Clancy of Co. 1th, 5th S. C. regiment, come home and get married. James is willin', I is willin' my mammy, she is willin'."

Wisconsin 15,000 radical majority. Iowa shows large radical gains. Kansas gives about 12,000 radical majority. Vermont returns indicate 30,000 radical majority. Pennsylvania radical by 15,000.

An Omaha dispatch says the Indians displaced a rail on the Union Pacific Railroad, near Sidney, on Saturday, by which a freight train was thrown from the track and the fireman killed. The whole train being wrecked, trains going west were obliged to return in consequence of the appearance of a large body of Indians.

Troops from Forts McPherson and Russell have been sent to protect the railroad men. All was quiet at the last account.

Five desperadoes were hung near Gilmore on Friday by a vigilance committee.

Seven cases of suicide occurred in Paris on the 10th and 11th of October—six by hanging, one by cutting the throat. The victims were "a lady of property," a girl of eighteen; a young man, married only a few months, and living most happily with his wife, a widow, who could not pay her quarter's rent; a man aged forty two, cause unknown; and a boy of eleven years of age who was locked up in his bedroom by his mother for "being naughty."

A white woman left her husband and several children in North Stonington, last week, and eloped with a black man. Considerable sympathy is felt for the negro.

The Election.

Below we give a table of returns, embracing the result of the election held on the 3rd inst., so far as received together with the official county and state returns of the October election and the official majorities, by States, for President in 1864. This we do for the convenience of the readers of the Reporter in making comparisons.

Centre County Election Returns for President—1868.

Table with columns: Districts, Seymour, Grant, Gains. Lists various districts and their respective gains for Seymour and Grant.

The indications are that the democratic majority in Centre has been reduced from 75 to 100 since October—Seymour's majority we estimate at 25 in the county.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The following are the reported majorities so far as received.

Table with columns: Adams, Berks, Bucks, Cambria, Carbon, Centre, Clarion, Clearfield, Clinton, Columbia, Cumberland, Elk, Fayette, Fulton, Green, Jefferson, Juniata, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Northumberland, Pike, Philadelphia, Schuylkill, Sullivan, Washington, Wayne, Westmoreland, Wyoming, York.

RETURNS FROM THE STATES.

New York city, Seymour 60,104 majority.

The state of New York has elected a democratic governor, but is supposed to have gone for Grant on the presidency.

Maryland almost unanimously for Seymour, and the Democrats elect all the congressmen.

New Jersey is said to have gone for Grant, but the Democrats elect their governor.

Boston gives 4000 radical majority, and Butler is re-elected. Massachusetts gives Grant about 75,000 majority.

North Carolina is close and supposed to have gone for Grant. Ohio is claimed by the radicals by 35,000 majority.

Delaware goes almost unanimously for the Democrats. West Virginia supposed 8000 radical majority.

Alabama supposed to have gone for Seymour. Rhode Island estimated 5000 radical majority.

Louisiana gives democratic majorities in all counties heard from. South Carolina is likely to have gone for Grant.

Hilinois 10,000 radical majority. Maine claimed radical by 30,000 majority. Indiana claimed radical by 10,000 majority. California returns indicate the state for the radicals. Nothing heard yet from Nevada or Oregon.

A Useful Table showing the Majorities in States which Voted for President in 1864.

The following table of the majorities in the States which voted for President in 1864, will be of interest when the returns are coming in from all the States. We add the electoral vote of each State:

Table with columns: REPUBLICAN MAJORITIES 1864, Majorities, Electors. Lists states like California, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin.

Centre County Election Return.

OCTOBER 13th, 1868.—OFFICIAL.

Table with columns: Aud. Gen., Congress, Judge, M. E. R. Lists candidates and their respective counts for various districts.

Majorities: Boyle 677; Mackey 454; Mayor 892.

Official Majorities.

We give below the official majorities for Auditor General:

HARRIS (R.)

Table with columns: Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Blair, Bradford, Butler, Cameron, Chester, Crawford, Dauphin, Delaware, Erie, Forest, Franklin, Huntingdon, Indiana, Lancaster, Lawrence, Lebanon, McKean, Mercer, Millin, Perry, Potter, Snyder, Somerset, Susquehanna, Tioga, Union, Venango, Warren.

Foster Vs. Covode.

The official return for the XXIIth Congressional district shows the election of Henry D. Foster over John Covode, by a majority of 41 votes. In spite of this return, however, it is said, Gov.

Geary will refuse to proclaim the election of Gen. Foster. Time will show whether this report is true.

But Gov. Geary needs not give himself any trouble on this score. If he choose to disregard the return, and to follow the precedent set by Gov. Curtin, in the Kooztz and Coffroth case, in the 39th Congress, Gen Foster will still get the seat, on the prima facie case, and Mr. Covode will be compelled to contest, if he desires to oust him.

In the Kooztz and Coffroth case, the boards of return judges, in a number of the counties, divided, and each faction sent a representative to the meeting of the return judges for the district. Separate meetings were held by these district return judges; in each of these meetings some of the counties of the district were represented by the regularly elected district return judges; and each county in the district was represented, in both meetings. One of these meetings, or boards, certified the election of Kooztz, the other that of Coffroth. Gov. Curtin refused to proclaim the election of either Kooztz or Coffroth. The case went before Congress, and the Committee on elections information just received states that a guerrilla chief of the revolutionary war has with him four thousand whites and six thousand negroes. The artillery sent from this city has stuck in the mud. Heavy rains have fallen in the Eastern Department. The revolutionists have full sway in a large section of the country. The Captain General is hurrying forward fresh troops in all haste.

One of the Spanish mail steamships has just been chartered to carry troops to the scene of action.

ANOTHER ENOCH ARDEN.

A Hu-band Returns After Twenty-five Years Absence—Finds His Wife Married, Claims and Receives Her at the Age of Sixty eight.

The New Albany Commercial tells us a very interesting and romantic story. In 1845 John Elliott, Jr. left his home and his wife, who had by him eleven children in Putnam County, Indiana, suddenly and in a passion at some slight misunderstanding that had occurred between them. He gave his family no intimation of his departure previous to leaving, and they never heard of him again until the last of twenty-five years.

The wife believed her husband dead and after two years waiting she gave him up as lost. Her father, and a respectable citizen of that county named Ballou, and his residing apparently enough with him near Cleveland, Ohio, since, until the week. It was not until the first findings of her supposed deceased husband were presented to her, that she learned the truth.

It was in this wise that the letter reached: A letter came to her from the hand of a person who was a stranger. This letter set forth that if she could visit a little town several miles distant from Cleveland she would meet an old and very dear friend, and urged her not to omit making the visit at a certain time. The letter impressed her strangely, and she concluded to visit the town named at the designated time, and did so.

What was her surprise on entering the house where the meeting was appointed, to meet her first husband? Twenty-six years had passed, and time had left its impress upon the man, yet she recognized him at once, and threw herself into his arms, for notwithstanding she was now sixty-eight years of age, the sight of her first choice warmed the loving pulses of her heart and broke open the fountain of her affections that had been so long sealed up. She threw her arms about his neck, kissed his wrinkled cheek, and wept like a girl, the tears of joy.

The husband's heart was also melted into tenderness, and he embraced her aged but long deserted wife with all the fervor of a young and ardent lover. The past was talked over, the sudden disappearance, long absence and continued silence of the husband explained, and then and there it was agreed that they would spend the remainder of their lives together.

Mr. Elliott accounts for his absence by a visit to California, where he secured a fortune, thence came to Lincoln County, in this State and bought a fine farm, upon which he has been residing since 1859.

Mr. Ballou was very loath to give up his wife, but finally compromised, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott passed through the city yesterday, taking the Crab Orchard train for their home to Lincoln County.

How to Serve a Fickle Minded Lady.

A few days since a young gentleman and lady appeared at the parsonage of an eminent clergyman of this city for the purpose of having their respective destinies united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Everything being ready the clergyman aforesaid was about to proceed with the ceremony when the young lady discovered that she was minus the kid gloves so necessary on such occasions; whereupon she requested her affianced to hasten to a store and procure the indispensable kids, telling him to "be in a hurry or she might change her mind." The clergyman, witnesses and intended bride waited sometime for the return of the youth with the gloves; but he didn't come. They waited longer, and still he failed to put in an appearance. The matter at last becoming really serious and alarming, the clergyman took his hat and proceeded, post haste, in search of the truant lover, whom he found, after a diligent search and many inquiries, quietly seated on the veranda of the Park House, with his feet elevated on the back of a chair, and very deliberately puffing a cigar. On being asked to explain his singular conduct he confessedly remarked that he "was waiting to see if she was going to change her mind." They were married, however, at last, after two hours delay.—Ottawa, (Ill.) Republican.

Foster Vs. Covode.

The official return for the XXIIth Congressional district shows the election of Henry D. Foster over John Covode, by a majority of 41 votes. In spite of this return, however, it is said, Gov.

The fashion in New York this season is said to be, to have no groomsmen at the weddings.

HAVANA.

Progress of the Insurrection—Black Crooles in the Ranks of the Insurgents.

Havana, October 23.—Bayamo, Holguin, Jibara, Hastunas, Yara and Jiguanilla in the Eastern Department, are in insurrection against the Government. The government has sent four battalions of infantry, one squadron of cavalry, and a field battery to these points. The revolutionists have divided into small bands with a view to carry on a guerrilla war until their forces are strong enough to cope with the Spanish troops, with a fair prospect of success. A considerable band is stationed in the neighborhood of Santiago de Cuba, and another near Pinar del Principe. The revolutionists have burned several plantations, taking the negroes with them as auxiliaries. In several skirmishes with the Spanish troops the Crooles, both whites and blacks, have fought bravely, causing a heavy loss to the Spaniards. The Cubans all over the Island are enthusiastic, but in want of arms. Several Cubans have been arrested in Havana on suspicion. They are confined in Morra Castle. In the parish of Jesus Maria forty negroes were arrested last night for having arms in their possession.

October 24, 9 A. M.—Trustworthy information just received states that a guerrilla chief of the revolutionary war has with him four thousand whites and six thousand negroes. The artillery sent from this city has stuck in the mud. Heavy rains have fallen in the Eastern Department. The revolutionists have full sway in a large section of the country. The Captain General is hurrying forward fresh troops in all haste.

The negroes appeared in great numbers when the polls opened and took entire possession. This continued some time and every white man who came to vote was clubbed away. Finally a fight commenced, the negroes driving back the whites, and then commenced to vote. In a few minutes the negroes rallied and attacked the whites, when a negro deliberately drew a pistol and shot a policeman in the stomach, inflicting a mortal wound. The firing then became general in the crowd and the police came up to preserve order. The negroes fought them desperately, but finally the police used their pistols when the negroes broke and ran. Five blacks were killed and several mortally wounded.
