DEATHS.—On 12th, at Aronsburg, of consumption, Reuben Roop, aged about 33 years.

The following effusion, said to be the result of a "poetical agony" by a Georgian soldier, who sent a young lady a "bokay," while in camp near her home, is eminently satisfactory, so far as it goes, to prove that "none but the brave deserve the fair," and we hope had the desired effect. Here it is: "Accept this bokay from a feller Who oft has heard the kannons beller; Has listened to the fifes a tooten, And helped to do deep of shooten. He has seen the war clouds dark arise Like fifty buzzars when they flies, Who is bigger than his dad, And wants to marry mighty bad."

Forty thousand young men came of age in Pennsylvania this year.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED, whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose existence require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Do you sometimes get sick, milky, or floaky, or is itropy on setting? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing, or dyspnea? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, or moping, tired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Do you ever hear such men complain of being melancholy, or nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become discouraged; they are always energetic and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or other manner about them. You are always melancholy, or nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become discouraged; they are always energetic and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or other manner about them. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become discouraged; they are always energetic and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or other manner about them.

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, or nervousness, or palpitation of the heart.
