"ANTICIPATIONS"

And is the time approaching, By prophets long foretold, When all shall dwell together, One Shepherd and one fold? Shall every idol perish To moles and bats be thrown, And every prayer be offered To God in Christ alone?

Shall Jew and Gentile, meeting From many a distant shore, Around one alter kneeling. One common Lord adore? Shall all that now divides us Remove and pass away, Like shadows of the morning Before the blaze of day?

Shall all that now unites us More sweet and lasting prove, A closer bond of union, In a blest land of love? Shall war be learned no longer, Shall strife and tumult cease, All earth His blessed Kingdom, The Lord and Prince of Peace?

O, long expected dawning, Come with thy cheering ray! When shall the morning brighten, The shadows flee away? O. sweet anticipation!

It cheers the watchers on, To pray, and hope, and labor, Till the dark night be gone.

For the Reporter. FARM TALK.

Farmers, let us begin to talk about our own business; we do too little of that and too much of the other, I believe that even we Centre county farmers, could instruct each other; and if the Reporter will let us crowd in sometimes, I don't see why we should not try the game. Don't be afraid, you see I ain't," and that is encouraging; we'll just put on paper what we would say to our neighbor, sitting in our own kitchen, then send it-not the kitchen, but the manuscript-to Fred, he has got plenty of dots, and all kinds of them, and sure enough he'll just put them where they will look best; no doubt for an extra subscriber, a bushel of apples or something of that kind, he would make the spelling all right too, if it should happen to be mixed.

Now if you see this in the paper, you may conclude that he is willing to print this anyhow, and I may as well go on a little further and say what I Furnishing Hardware, Iron, Steel, Nails.

My neighbors all raise corn, I do sizes, Picture Frames, Wheelbarrows too; I raised several kinds, which I Felloes, and Hubs, Plows, Cultivators, Corr got from my neighbors and each one said his kind was the host and at his said his kind was the best, and at husking I thought so too; but, as I used to figure in other things, I thought I might figure in the corn too. I raised four kinds—white, mulatto, big yelsaid his kind was the best, and at huslow, and a cross between mulatto and western Dent, which I shall call yel-

All is equally dry, and a hundred A Yeagertown, on the Lewistown and Bellefonte Turnpike, has now on hand a fine stock of Carriages, Buggies, Sulkies and Spring Wagons, which he now offers pounds on the cob, of each, carefully weighed, then shelled, produced as folfor sale as superior in quality and styles to any manufactured in the country. They are made of the very best seasoned stock by first class practical workmen, and finished in a style that challenges comparison with any work out of or in the Eastern cities

White, 871 lbs. grain, 121 lbs cob. Mulatto. Big yellow 724 " " Yel. Dent, 814 " "

While the yield in bushels was apparently the same, yet the weighing shows a different result, hence I would conclude that the white is the best, because it yields the largest per cent. of grain and I have quite a preference for the grain-cob are well enough as long as the kernel are on. As the yellow Dent comes next, it goes to show that mixing even with the Mulatto, don't get ahead of white.

But I also came to another conclusion: that if corn yields 80 ver cent of grain, it don't matter whether we shell or not for market, if either kind is taken, it will just hold out; if more than 80 per cent, we gain by shelling; if less, we loose. Measuring with the leather line warranted to give satisfaction, at BURNSIDE & THOMAS. basket is a poor way of measuring. Now farmers, if I am wrong, right me, by writing to the right paper. And, kind Reporter, I am much obliged for 1000 the space, it does look better this way than if it were left blank.
