BABY'S GRAVE AND BABY'S HOME.

Oh do not draw the curtains tihght, The moon shines down so cold and Trhough all the long and dreary night On baby's grave.

---0---

The night winds wildly shrick and And giant trees with creak and groan. Wave their bare arms, whence leaves have flown O'er baby's grave.

And like a pall comes settling down The snow on yellew leaves and brown, That withered lie o'er all the ground

'Round baby's grave. 'Round baby's grave.

The lone night bird with song of woe,
And winter winds with requiem low
Will dirges chant, as sad they go, Past baby's grave.

Her little bed is damp and cold, And long and dreamless slumber holds Deep rest within its silens folds, In baby's grave.

Sweet songs of lullaby are sung, And fond love words together strung CENTRE HALL In vain, from hearts with anguish By baby's grave.

Then do not draw the curtains tight But let the light stream clear and bright, Out in the dark and silent night, To baby's grave.

We were not wont in days of old; To shut her out in dark and cold, The dearest lamb of all the fold In baby's home.

Be still my heart, a light does stream Through blinding teare I see its beams, Uu all the way it gleams, To baby's home.

And down that glorious path I hear A voice, so tender, gentle, clear, An echo from the heavenly spheres Of baby's home.

For ages down the track of time, Have sounded forth these words sub-Which now so calm this heart of mine,

From baby's home. Listen, my soul; let grief be dumb; and warranted of good workmanship, as i Jesus says, 'Suffer them to come;" The Shepherd called his little one

To baby's home. So now let fall the curtains low, I, only, grope in dark below, Point me, dear Lord the way to go Toward baby's home. A. C. S.

To Make Cows Give Mik.

A writer who says his cow gives all milk that is wanted in a family of eight persons, and from which was made two hundred and sixty pounds of butter this year, gives the following as his treatment. He says: "If you desire venience. You will find, if you have not tried this daily practice, that your cow will give twenty-five percent, more milk immediately, under the effects of it, and she will soon become so a tached to the diet as to refuse to drink clear water, unless verythirsty; but this mess she will drink almost any time, and 'ask for more.' The amount of this drink necessary is an ordinry wa- RUSSEL'S HOTEL ter pail full each time, morning, noon, and night. Execution of Four Negro Mur derers.

Princess Anne, M l. March 5 .- Four negroes (Wm. Nelson, Wm. Wells Frank Rounds and Gool Bailey) were hung here to-day for the murder of B. F. Johnson and Henry Cannon, captain and mate of an oyster sloop, in Murch, 1838. Euch prisoner confessed his guilt. Rounds and Wells died instantly; Bailey in a few seconds. Wilson's neck did not break. He groaned and struggled horribly; got the rope off of his hands and legs, caught hold of the shrouge of Rounds and then of his own rope, drawing himself up, and got on the scaffold again. The jailor ascended, tightened the noose again, pushed the wretched man off a second time, jerking the rope violently as he fell. The victim continued to struggle for five minutes, some of the crowd yelling, "That's right; you ought to suffer." The execution occupied forty five minuets. Towards the last four or five thousand spectators were pres-
