Letter From Illinois

Amboy Ill., March 29th 1869. Friend Kurtz: I have been getting your paper since it started. I could not get along without the Reporter; it seems good to get hold of a paper from one's old home, after an absence of lifteen years, and read the names of old friends, and get the sound Democratic doctrine preached by an old acquaintance. I must say Fred that I have repented; were I a bond-holder I could side with the republican party. but as I am and the business I am in I must say it is wrong. I will give you a little history of how it works with us. I am in the farming implement business, and do a credit business two years credit. Now instead of paying the notes when they be one due, they put their money in Bonds to save paying taxes and business will have to wait for this money until they see fit to pay it. Money has never been so Pose in this State since I tame het there has been a great many failures in furmers are begining to plow for their spring grains. Our markets are dully bushel, Corn for 45 cents dos Cats for 40 cents do. We look for better prices when navigation opens. Well I must give you a little history of our city, we have from three to four thou sand inhabitants, the Illinois Central Railroad shops are located here, they are also beginning a rolling mill and a large round house. We obtained a charter this winter for a railroad from here to Chicago; the work will commence in about a month that will give us a railroad direct to Chicago, a distance of about 90 miles, so we expect to have our little city improve very fast : we want some Eastern man to come here and put up a good hotel as we have but one and a small one at that. A man with about eight or ten thousand dol. ars capital could make a fortune here without doubt : should you find out a man send him to Amboy if the hotel business will suit him.

J. B. M. The Immoralities of Radicalism.

From time immemorial it has been the custom of the enemies of Democraracy to charge upon them all the crimes in the calender of sin, claiming for thems lives all that was great and

So long have they taught this the trine that countless numbers have been made to believe in its truth, while in all honesty, the reverse is true. Instead of the opponents of the rights of men being the exclusive proprietors of all that is intelligent and virtuous, they are the promulgators of vice, and the patrons and fosterers of every species of outrage, wrong and political corruption. This is a strong assertion, but true as strong. Radicalism rules the roast in our State Legislature, witnes: its opposition to right and established law, and its reckless, unblushing corruption and disregard of the wants and wishes of the people If our State Legislature is a nest of pestilent corruption it is a cypher when placed beside the national pandemonium at Washington. And what of Congress, and those who control affairs at the Capitol of the nation? Language fails in our attempt to limn out their atrocities upon the constitutional rights and liberties of the people. What is there in the calender of political sin they have not done?

Echo answers, what? They have trampled upon the constitution; once looked upon as the magna charta of American liberty, in

Horrible Murder and Suicide.

Philadelphia, March 30 .- A horrible murder was committed here vesterday under peculiar circumstances. Early vesterday morning a man threw himself into the Delaware and drowned. Subsequently a handkercheif was found in the water bearing the name of Blackstone, of the firm of Hurston & Blackstone picture frame makers, 912 Market Wreet. The body was sent to his house in the extreme northwestern part of the city. Arriving there the parties found another party of police in possession, and that Blackstone's wife and two small children were dead, chopped to pieces with an axe. It appears that previous to committing the act, vesterday, Blackstone wrote a letter to his wife's father in Connecticut, saving that he had killed his wife and children and would kill himself. Parties in Connecticut this 2 p. m.; then telegraphed to the police authorities here, who went to the house and found the dead bodies as before stated, and investigating the case when the dead body of the father was brought in. On Blackstone's body was found paper stating that he had been robbed and was a ruined man, and giving this as the reason for the deed. The wife appears to have been killed while lighting the fire in a stove, on Monday morning, as the neighbors heard a noise about that time. The children were killed up stairs; and carried down stairs and laid at the feet of the mother. Blackstone was probably in-
