officials, in high and low places, in Congress, in our state legislatures, and in other offices, has become so great, that even many republicans, who all along winked at the gross excuses committed by their party, are now getting alarmed and are now getting and opened for inspection at the alarmed, and are raising their voices against the highhanded and bold robberies that are committed. Many republicans see the country is fast drif ting to the verge of ruin and bankruptey, if these things are not stopped. Radical office holders are becoming more daring and reckless every day, until we now have a government which is known all over the civilized world as the most corrupt of all govern-

The corruption among the radical

But, those members of the radical party, who see this growing evil, and who no longer keep it in the dark, what remedy do they propose? Alas, none, but they go on in blind adhesion to the party, which is guilty of it all. Whilst they seem to have candor enough to admit that their party is running riot with the public funds, they yet lack the honesty to leave the rotten craft upon which they are sailing, and to come over to the good old democratic ship, which, in days of vore, gave us an economical administration, and under which such gigantic frauds and robberies as we are now accustomed to,

The people may well feel alarmed, when, with heavy taxation, they see no decrease of the debt, the expenses And dwell in memory of Lang-Syne. of the government increased from year to year, offices multiplied by the thousand, and the public treasury depleted by licensed radical thieves and corrup

Things did not go on thus when democracy held sway. Then there was no national debt, no national taxation, no swarms of idle office holders to eat out the substance of the people, as we now find it to be, too sadly, the case. Honest republicans, you who know this alarming state of affairs what will you do to remedy this evil with which your party has cursed you and the country for the last eight

That intense hator of the British aristocrats, the Hon. Zach. Chandler, of Michigan, is about to astonish the enemies of the United States in England by a demonstration of the simplicity of a true American republican. He is now in New York making preparations for a visit to Europe. The Detroit Free Press has the following account of the style in which the Hon. Zachariah means to present himself among the proud noblemen of the efiete countries of the old world:

His wife and daughter each take with them a colored female servant, and he takes two black male servants. These servants are to be fitted out while in New York with a very showery livery The coats of the men servants are to be a levender color, with white buttons, upon which is the Michigan coat of arms, except that the stags recollect whether it was a frame or a supportet the letter C. which is of red enamel, with gold edge. The female servants wear large bolt buckles bearing the same design as that upon the buttons. The hats of the men are black, with a wide purple band, and a large silver cockade, in the centre of which is one of the buttons aforesaid.

The advocates of the new Empire will be delighted with the start thus made by the Michigan republican. Under the new regime he will, in consideration of his high position in the party, have the rank of Marshal of the Empire with the proud title of Grand Duke of Michigan. It is impossible to imagine the feelings of envy which will fill the hearts of the British aristocrats when the noble Chandler, party; and in South Carolina the ar- attended by this gorgeous retinue, makes his appearance among the tash-Charleston City Council are extending | ianables of London Mail. The recent robbries of large amounts of Government Coupon Bonds, make it all important that the public should understand the only secure way of holding Government Securities is by having them registered properly, since, in case of loss, theft or destruction, the investor is still safe, as the Government will continue to pay the interest and will issue a new bond at the proper time. With regard to the Coupon Bond, it is however entirely different, as it is a total loss to the owner in case it is stolen, lost or destroyed, it being regarded by the Government the same as a Bank Note.

Some parties have the impression that Registered Bonds are more troublesome, and the interest more difficult to collect-this is an error; the interest on Registered Bonds can be made payable at any of the principal without regard to the locality of the owner, and the Bonds can be transfered the same as Coupon Bonds, by signing in blank before any Notary or Alder-
