COACH MANUFACTORY.

HARDMAN PHILLIPS,

AT HIS manufacturing establishment at Yeagertown, on the Lewistown and Bellefonte Turnpike, has now on hand a fine stock of Carriages, Buggies, Sulkies and Spring Wagons, which he now offers for sale as superior in quality and styles to any manufactured in the country. They are made of the very best seasoned stock by first class practical workmen, and finished in a style that challenges comparison with any work out of or in the Eastern cities and can be sold at lower prices than those manufactured in large towns and cities, amidst high rents and ruinous prices of living. Being master of his own situation, anxious to excel in his artistical profession and free from any annoyances in his business, he has time and ability to devote his entire attention to his profession and his customers, rendering satisfaction alike to all patrons, operatives, his country, and himself.

Call and examine his stock and learn his prices, and you cannot fail to be satisfied

CENTRE HALL REPORTER.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 13th 1869.

An Extraordinary Operation.

The Chicago Tribune of Friday says: Probably the most astounding surgical operation ever performed on the American continent has recently been made in this city by Dr. G. D. Beebe. The circumstances, as we gather them from the husband of the patient, are briefly these: Mrs. J. B. Childs, residing at Lee Centre, Illinois, came to this city on a visit, and was stopping on Sangamon street. While there she became aware that an old rupture, from which she had suffered from time to time for several years, was likely to give her trouble, and summoned medical aid. The physician first called regarded it as "wind colic," but his treatment not relieving the suffering of the unfortunate woman, he was dismissed and Dr. Lz. Dodge was summoned, who, recognizing the true state of the case, requested that a surgeon be immediately called, and Dr. Beebe was accordingly sent for. A careful examination of the case revealed the fact that the intestines involved in the rupture had already mortified, and to allow this to remain would inevitably destroy the woman's life. He therefore decided to remove so much of the intestines as had undergone decomposition, and by securing the extremities of the sound intestine, to restore at length the natural passages, and thus preserve the unfortunate lady's life. Assisted by Drs. L. Dodge, J. S. Mitchell and G. D. Beebe, this dangerous and difficult operation was accordingly performed, and four feet six inches of the intestines were removed from the patient's body, and may now be seen, preserved in alcohol, in Dr. Beebe's office. The operation completed, the abdomen was carefully stitched up, the patient enjoined to preserve perfect quiet and to abstain from solid food. Thirteen days have now elapsed, and, astounding as it may seem, the good lady has well nigh recovered, being now allowed the freedom of her room and a generous diet, which is heartily relished. What will not the surgeons do?

POLITICAL.

It is fashionable for Radicals to call the Democratic party—dead. The World takes notice of this and shows the strength of what is thus pronounced lifeless by publishing its votes. It polled in Votes.

1856	1,803,029
1860	2,213,927
1864 (exclusive of South)	1,811,754
1868	2,706,364

—which makes Governor Seymour's vote nearly a million more than President Buchannn's and 483,596 more than "Old Abe's." At the election o 1868 it was only defeated by about 300,000, counting all the negro votes given in the Southern States for the Radicals. Had the 700, 000 disfranchised white voters cast their ballots, the Democrats would have had some two or three hundred thousand majority.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Sunday Mercury says that while Asa Packer gave him money to erect a new college for young men, John W. Geary entered in to a conspiracy with the heirs of Stephen Girard to bring suits against the city of Philadelphia for the recovery of the fund which now supports five hundred orphas in Girard College, and it is supposed that Geary will institute another suit, (several of them having already failed) in case of his re-election, in which he expects to be assisted by the legislature. Pennsylvanians, mark the contrast?—Reading Eagle.

Judge Packer's Letter of Acceptance.

To the Hon. C. R. Buckalew, Lewis C. Cassidy and R. E. Monaghan, Esqs., Committee:—GENTLEMAN:—At the first convenient moment I reply to your communication informing me of my nomination by the democratic state convention of the 14th inst, for the office of Governor of Pennsylvania. I desire to make due acknowledgement for this high evidence of esteem and friendship of my fellow-citizens, and to say that I accept the nomination tendered me, having at the solicitation of my friends, though with unfeigned reluctance, been induced to permit the use of my name for the nomination. My acceptance becomes a matter of course, if not duty, but I announce it with a deep sense of the responsibility assumed. My reliance in accepting the position of candidate and in agreeing to perform the executive service for the people, is not alone upon my own strength and good intentions, but merely upon popular indulgence and generous support, and upon that superintending Providence which can bless the labors of public men. If I shall be placed by the votes of the people in the gubernatorial chair, I shall endeavor to meet the expectations of my friends and all who have at heart the true interests of our great Commonwealth. To this end I shall labor to secure those objects in which we feel a common interest and concern, among which are the preservation of the State credit, the reduction of the expenses of the State government to their lowest practicable point, thereby lessening the burdens and taxation of the people; the encouragement of a liberal system of improvement for intercourse and trade, in order that production may be increased, labor more amply rewarded and general prosperity secured, the just execution of the laws, involving a cautious and sparing use of power in the pardon of offenders, so that good faith shall be kept among the people and crime suppressed; promotion of the education of our youth by a general system of organized schools and by special institutions of learning, so that knowledge and virtue shall become more and more solid foundations of our free political system; and lastly, the restoration of purity and character to our government by the putting down or preventing of special and corrupt legislation and of all improper uses or management of public funds. To these general objects, however, should be added a careful attention by the government to the interests of labor. Having earned my bread by the labor of my hands during the many, and I may add, happiest years of my life, and owing whatever I possess, under the providence of God, to patient and honest toil, I can never be unmindful of the interests of those with whom my entire life has been associated. Inasmuch as my pursuits and training have not qualified me for speech making, or for solicitation of votes, it will not be expected that I understand the performance of active duties in the canvass about to to begin. But my life, conduct and character are before my fellow-citizens for their examination, and they will afford them better means of judging of my fitness as a candidate for popular support than anything I could now say. I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, yours.
