POLITICAL.

We find that the radicals are at tempting to make votes in Pennsvalley for their candidate for Assembly, Mr. Coburn, by making people believe that Coburn's election will aid in securing the construction of our rail-road. We just tell voters here plainly that al such talk is humbug, to defeat the democratic a hominee, Mr. Meyer Neither the election of Coburn nor of Meyer, will have anything to do with hastening on the railroad. And if it had. Mr. Meyer is just as good, and a better railroad man in the real sense, than Coburn, purel scal ) hid

There is no legislation needed to give us a railroad through Pennsvalley. The right of way was granted years ago, and the charter is still alive, and that is all that is needed. All that is now wanted, is, that money be subscribed by the people along the route; and we make the declaration here, that will do more, according to his means, than Jas. P. Coburn. But as the railroad matter will be quietly used among unsuspecting voters, we boil the whole matter down to this-To build the railroad, the people must subscribe stock, and to elect Coburn, something must be gotten up to humbug voters.
