

CENTRE HALL REPORTER

CENTRE HALL PA., September 24, 1890

FOR GOVERNOR: HON. ASA PACKER, of Carbon. FOR SUPREME JUDGE: HON. CYRUS L. PERSHING, of Cambria County.

FELIX GRUNDY'S LETTER FROM AARONSBURG. Aaronsburg, Aug. 24th, '89. Democratic County Ticket.

Assembly: Jacob G. Meyer, of Haines. Prothonotary: John Moran, Bellefonte. Register: John H. Morrison, Worth. Recorder: Israel Grenoble, Haines. Sheriff: Lieut. Daniel Woodring, Bellefonte. Treasurer: Lieut. S. S. Wolf, Miles. Commissioner: Joseph McCloskey, Curtin. Auditor: D. H. Yeager, Snowshoe. Coroner: Dr. J. T. Laurimore, Bellefonte.

Felix Grundy's letter was received too late for this week's paper. The radicals held their ratification meeting on Wednesday evening, of August court, in obedience to the order of "John T. Johnson, chairman of the committee," furnishing them a rich treat from H. Bucher Swope.

The amalgamation fandangos was opened by Capt. A. B. Hutchinson, as President, who was seized with a flux of words, and let fly at the white man, in Pennsylvania. Having spewed out his fatuous excrement on excrement on white folks, popped down, and smiling as if it was his first appearance in a harem found in the parlors of a city; he rant and abused men who would not touch this polluted recreant civility or morally, with a pair of tongues. But what did John T. Johnson mean by inviting fellow Swope people to go and hear this fellow Swope? Has Mr. Johnson forgotten that he was editor of the Democratic Whig in 1857? If he has, we will reprint for his memory—and we are indebted to a Whig neighbor, for a Democratic Whig, of September 30, 1857, where every one will find John T. Johnson's published opinion and description of H. Bucher Swope, given in an editorial in his own paper and in the following style:

H. BUCHER SWOPE.

There is a blackguard politician residing in the town of Clearfield known by the name of H. Bucher Swope. (A more appropriate name would be Bugger Soap), who publishes a letter in the Philadelphia Daily News, in which he asserts that all the papers in this State which supported Fremont were bought and paid for by Gov. Ford, of Ohio, and gives a list of about a dozen, and the price he says they received. The Whigs are not included in the list, published, but as he asserts that all the papers which supported Fremont were bought, it might be supposed that we are on his "reserved list." Were it not that the character of this profligate is well known in this section we would take the trouble to show that we never received a dollar from Gov. Ford, or any other man to induce us to support Fremont.

As to the papers named in the list published we have every reason to believe that the charge against them is entirely unfounded. The Altoona Tribune is set down as having been bought for $425—a neutral paper, that did not then, nor has it since, taken any part in politics; whatever. This alone makes it clear to our mind that the whole thing is a base fabrication. Indeed, the source from whence the charges emanate is sufficient to convince the public that they are false. This Swope is the last man that ought to make assertions of this kind. We have not forgotten a little circumstance that occurred at a U. S. Senatorial election a few years ago, when a certain person was informed that he "could make a good thing out of it," if he would do so and so. Of course nobody was bribed then; and of course nobody made "anything out of it," why did that person, after warmly supporting Curtin until within a few days of the election, turn so suddenly in favor of Cameron? Your testimony before the Legislative Investigating Committee, Mr. Swope, did not make things very clear in your favor. You did not altogether satisfy the public that you did not "make a good thing out of it."

When we first saw these charges against our brother editors by this base slanderer, it was our intention not to give them any notice, knowing that source from whence they came, but then they were persons in the State who do not think there may be some foundation for the charges, and for this reason we have condescended to take this much notice of him. We caution the public to beware of him, and treat him as only a base falsifier should be treated. He richly deserves what he got on the streets of Huntingdon a few years ago, viz: a good cowhiding, administered by Col. Wharton.

Will John T. Johnson, as chairman of the Co. Committee, give the people of Centre county the reason for advertising this "blackguard politician, residing in the town of Clearfield" "who richly deserves what he got on the streets of Huntingdon, a few years ago, viz: a good cow-hiding administered by Col. Wharton," to address the radicals at their ratification meeting? Was it to let the people look at him and see the identical "blackguard politician residing in the town of Clearfield," who was deservedly cowhided by Col. Wharton? If so, why did he not put it in his bill and charge for the sight? These are the characters the radicals employ to convert the white men of Centre county to vote the negro equality ticket.

Will they do it? Very Latest News. Meek speaks of Fred Kurtz as the "little dutch villain who defeated his nomination." When knaves fall out, etc.—Bellefonte Republican.

That's fine, very fine, and terribly sharp. Come Brown, let's have a plate of apple dumplings. After the October election, Brown will find that the people have had a bad fall out with the thieves of the radical party.

The Bellefonte Republican calls us "ass" and "nosering." Who cares whether Brown calls any one what he himself is. We'd just as soon be called "nosering," as beg for, and except a position in the Freedman's Bureau to wash diapers for negro babies. Fersteh sel, Brown?

The Bellefonte Republican, and kindred prints, are terribly excited about Asa Packer not being born in Pennsylvania, and in the next breath call on every body to vote for their nominee for Judge of the Supreme Court, H. Williams, an adventurer from "down east," who, on his journey, was stopped at Pittsburg, got to playing lawyer, radical republican, and went for repudiating the bonds given by the city of Pittsburg, to pay for railroads extended to that city. Huzaa for the yankee lawyer, radical candidate for Supreme Judge, and repudiator of honest debts. Why Swope is less objectionable.

Will some of our critical Democratic friends, perhaps J. G. himself, tell us something concerning the Haines twp. "oil" company, in which some $20,000 in stock was subscribed in Haines and Penn townships? Perhaps the me. fa. sol. laing candidate on the Democratic ticket from that section, who was one of the originators, can furnish us with his record in that transaction. James P. Coburn opposed the fraud.—Bellefonte Republican.

We can answer the base insinuation of the Republican, by saying, that not a single member of the aforesaid oil company harbors any such idea against J. G. Meyer, and the Republican is willfully doing him injustice. There is not a spark of truth about it so far as Mr. Meyer is concerned. We might with as much truth accuse Coburn with being concerned in the Baker silver mining swindle, in which he has a large interest, and say that J. G. Meyer "was opposed to that fraud." Is Brown answered?

Now then, try the oil question upon the radical candidate for Co. Commissioner, Lewis Hess, and see where the real oil swindlers are. As a reference we give you Potter twp. radical.

What Mr. Coburn did say "when Magee asked for his support, was that his hands were tied and he could not support him. Coburn, however, agreed to remain at home in case the remaining School Directors did, and not go to Bellefonte and oppose Magee's nomination.—Bellefonte Republican.

So, then, the Republican's statement makes it all the worse for the gallant paper-Colonel Coburn, who is so stiff a radical that he not only could not vote for Magee for a non-political office "because Magee was a Democrat," but even tried the trick of pairing himself off with five different Democratic directors, and thus insure Magee's defeat "because he was a Democrat." Why Brown hits Coburn in this ugly side dig we cannot contrive, unless it is because Coburn is allied with the "monied" wing of the radical party in this county, which is bent on crushing out the Brown and Hutchinson faction. Stick to the ticket Brown, stick to the "dieckens."

Geary has pardoned the negro, Cain Norris, who was convicted a few weeks ago of outraging three white girls near Chambersburg last spring.

Rote and His Revolver.

Rote, whom the negro suffrage party of this county wrote down as its candidate for Recorder against the maimed soldier, Grenoble, is the identical chap who, a few years ago, when returning from a political meeting at Bellefonte, jumped out of his wagon at Pleasant Gap, drew a revolver from his pocket, and threatened to shoot a daughter of Mr. John Sweeney, because her father had placed a Woodward banner in his yard; and Miss Maggie Sweeney, the lady referred to, refused to take it down, as this drunken blackguard and cowardly wretch ordered. An individual who would threaten to shoot a woman, because her father was a democrat, would be an honor to the county if elected! wouldn't he? hal! Watchman

If the radicals of this county wanted to give Barr, their candidate for Prothonotary, who was unlucky enough to lose an arm, somewhere down South an office, why didn't they give him the Bellefonte Post office, which they gave to John T. Johnson, a stay-at-home loyalist, or one of the assistant assessors, or collectorships, or one of the other positions, that they could have given him, in the county, but which were bestowed on men who stayed at home to bowl "copperhead" at the white men of the county because they wouldn't worship Sambo or support a war for the destruction of our government and the degradation of our race.—Watchman.

In 1860, under Democratic rule, the number of officers and persons, employed in and about the House of Representatives at Harrisburg and their salaries, was as follows: One Clerk $1,000 One assistant clerk 800 One resident clerk $1,000 4 transcribing clerks (each $650) 2,620 One extra do 450 Five sergeants-at-arms ($450) 2,250 Two doorkeepers ($450) 900 Five messengers ($450) 2,250 One postmaster 700 Two extra messengers ($450) 900 Ten pages ($110) 1,100 Fourteen pasters and folders (350) 5,000 One marshal of rotunda 350 One fireman 350 One man in basement 350 Total officers, fifty three $21,750

In 1868, under radical rule, the House expenses and officers and employees, are thus stated in the official record: One clerk $2,000 One assistant clerk 1,400 One resident clerk (J. A. Small) 1,900 Six transcribing clerks 6,500 One assistant resident clerk (W. Cooper) 1,000 One do. W. P. Small 800 Six sergeant-at-arms 6,300 Ten doorkeepers 4,500 Eight messengers 8,400 Two postmasters (principal and assistant) 2,000 Thirty eight pasters and folders 30,500 One marshal of the rotunda 300 One ass't marshal of rotunda 800 One engineer 1,000 One fireman 900 One assistant fireman 750 One superintendent of closets 800 One assistant do. 750 Thirteen pages 2,880 Ninety-eight officers $81,269

These are the figures to show the extravagance of the republican party, as compared with democratic economy, and figures won't lie, you know. The number of members of the Legislature has not increased since 1860, and no valid reason can be given for the increase of useless officials. Let the taxpayers of the State remember that there will be no reform until there is a change in the complexion of the Legislature, or an honest man in the gubernatorial Chair. Geary is the willing tool of the "robbers" and "pinchers." His re-election would be the greatest calamity that could befall Pennsylvania. The corruption which has developed such hideous proportions under his fostering care would continue to increase. It would take more than sixty thousand dollars to pay for extra pasters and folders and other useless officials about the State Capitol. Let the taxpayers of Pennsylvania place Asa Packer in the gubernatorial Chair and there will be a speedy change for the better.—[Lancaster Intelligencer.]

Presidential Dancing.

The Radical papers announced that when President Grant commenced his summer tour and arrived at Long Branch, his first attempt at dancing was exceedingly awkward but by the time he arrived at Cape May, he was tolerably proficient. Now that he has been at Saratoga Springs, they announce it as a delightful piece of information that he is able to go through the mazes of the most difficult cotillon with the best of them. What a spectacle! The President of the United States galloping over the country—reviewing troops on Sunday, and at night dancing in the bounds of questionable pleasure, while the public affairs at Washington City are left in the hands of subordinates for adjustment! Nero fiddled while Rome was burning and we doubt whether his conduct was more censurable than Grant's, who dances while the people are ground down almost to powder with taxation.

Regulations for the navigation of the Suez canal state the canal has been opened to vessels of all nationalities with a draught of less than seven and a half meters.

WHERE HAS IT GONE?

When the democrats went out of power in 1860, the State debt was $37,840,125 72. Now it is $33,286,966, 13; or only about four and a half millions of dollars less than in 1860. During the last eight years twenty-eight millions of dollars have flowed into the State Treasury, which, under the Sinking Fund act passed by the Democratic legislature of 1858, ought to have been applied to the payment of the State debt. Besides this sum, which ought to have gone into the Sinking Fund, seventeen millions of dollars have been gathered into the Treasury, making the revenues of the State, during the last eight years, upwards of forty-five millions of dollars! With this immense amount of treasure, radical management of the State finances has succeeded in paying off but the trifling sum of four and a half millions of dollars of the State debt! What has been done with the remaining forty millions!—Post.

Says the Cambria Freeman of the 24th inst: "A prominent member of radical party in Blair county and an equally prominent member of the same party in Huntingdon county, were in this place last week, and avowed themselves as strong and decided friends of the election of Judge Packer. There will be quite a large and respectable army of this kind of recruits when the second Tuesday of October arrives.

The Imprisoned Nun at Cracow.

The case of the imprisoned nun at Cracow, which led to the recent riots there forms the subject of an article in the Vienna Presse, from which we learn that the name of the prisoner is Barbara Whyrk, and that the statement that she had been confined for twenty-one years is correct. The civil authorities were informed of the fact by an anonymous letter in a woman's hand-writing, and the bishop of the diocese was communicated with. A judge visited the convent and found in a cell, seven paces long by six paces wide, an entirely naked, half insane woman, who, at the unaccustomed view of light, the outer world, and human beings, folded her hands and pitifully implored: "I am hungry, have pity on me, give me meat, and I shall be obedient."

This hole, for it could hardly be called a chamber, besides containing all kinds of dirt and filth, and a dish with rotten potatoes, was deficient of the slightest decent accommodation. There was nothing—no stove, no bed, no table, no chair—it was neither warmed by a fire nor by the rays of the sun. The judge instantly ordered the nun to be properly clothed, and went himself for Bishop Galocki. The bishop was deeply moved, and turning to the assembly of monks, he vehemently reproached them for their inhumanity. "Is this," he said, "what you call love of your neighbor? Purities, not women, that you are, is it thus that you purpose to enter the kingdom of heaven? The nuns ventured to excuse their conduct, but the bishop would not hear them. "Thence, you wretches!" he exclaimed; "away, out of my sight, you who would disgrace religion!" The father confessor, Plianthevier, an old priest, who was present, dared to observe that the ecclesiastical authorities were aware of this scandal, whereupon the bishop spat, denied his assertion, and at once suspended the father confessor and the superiors, who descended from an old honorable Polish noble family. The bishop ordered Nun Barbara Whyrk to be brought in to a clean cell, and there to be blessed and nursed, which the lady superior obeyed very reluctantly. When the unhappy nun was led away, she asked whether she would be brought back to her grave, and when asked why she had been imprisoned, she answered: "I have broken the vow of chastity, but," pointing with a wild gesture, and in great excitement to the sisters, "they are not angels." The lady superior declared that Barbara Whyrk was kept in close confinement since 1848, by order of the physician, because of her unsound mind. But this physician, died in 1848 and the present physician Dr. Babrzynski, who has been practicing in the convent for the last seven years, has never seen Barbara Whyrk. On account of the importance of the case, the Attorney General has taken the matter in hand. The exasperation of the people knows no bounds. It is stated that the bishop intends to dissolve this convent.

Murders and Outrages by the Negroes—Conservative Negro Killed by Radicals.

Nashville, August 27.—A respectable lady near Addersville, Georgia, was outraged and murdered by a negro last Tuesday. The fend made his escape. During the last two weeks the Southern papers give details of no less than nine similar outrages on white females by negroes; the victims in two cases being less than eight years old. Four of the ravishers were caught and lynched.

In Marshall county, Alabama, a negro who had made himself offensive by voting the conservative ticket was shot and killed on Tuesday last by a lot of radicals of his own color. His only offense is said to have been his politics.

Attempt to Prevent the Miners from Working—Volunteers Enrolling to Protect Them—Great Excitement.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 30.—One thousand to fifteen hundred men from the coal fields to the north and south of this city arrived here to-day by rail and wagons. Their avowed purpose is to prevent the coal miners of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad company from continuing at work. They are now holding their second meeting, but have taken no forcible action so far. Meetings of citizens have been held at the call of the mayor to protect the miners and volunteers are fast enrolling. A meeting of the select council is called for this evening. There is much excitement.

IN NUMBERS there is safety, it was upon this principle that the formula of Judson's Mountain Herb Pills was prepared. It was not the result of one man's knowledge.
