Coroner:
Dr. J. T. Laurimore, Bellefonte.

The Daily Independent, is the title of a spicy little daily published at Lock Haven, by A. B. Henderson, esq., formerly of Bellefonte. It comes to us marked with an X; of course we'll X, Boyd.

Long may it waive!—how long will it waive?

The Bellefonte Republican says we are to be presented with a half barrel of kraut. Should the kraut be made of such cabbage-heads as Brown and Hutchinson, it would be a bad article, both in taste and flavor, and no lover of that dish would touch it with a half mile pole.

We have it from a reliable source, that Jas. P. Coburn, said that he would get democratic votes by making some of the "Dutch Copperheads" believe that he was a Democrat. This is a gross insult to the intelligent, and honest German farmers of our valley, and they should mark Coburn for this impudence.

Bill Brown says Woodring already has charge of the jail and won't let radicals visit it. We know of a time when Brown had no difficulty in getting into jail, but the trouble was in his getting out.

If the Bellefonte Republican would not have its editorials upon the democratic ticket in such longwinded style, we would copy them in the Reporter, to show how silly they are.

The radicals find the characters of our candidates so unassailable that they indulge in empty ridicule, and thus make fools of themselves.

Brown is bound to have the "court house ring"—his stereotype phrase—always uppermost in the democratic party of this county. Before the nominations he had the "ring" to consist of Meek, Lipton, Gepheart, the Shugerts, &c. Neither of the three first mentioned having been renominated, Brown now says the court house ring consists of Meyer and the other nominees, Fred Kurtz, &c.

Queer fellow, this Brown. He will have a big "ring" of democratic thunder in his ears, in October.

Will Go Crazy.

Bill Brown and Boyd Hutchinson will go crazy if their heavy editorials on the democratic county ticket don't cause a fight in the democratic ranks. Won't some democrats get up a sham fight in front of the Republican office, to keep these fellows from going to the insane asylum. Brown has worn out the string about the heavy county taxes, upon which he fiddled so long, now he is fiddling away upon the imaginary "court-house clique," and it seems to pain him awfully that the democrats have set aside so many good men, and filled the county ticket with bad ones.

Poor Brown, some one get up a democratic fight for him, for pity's sake.

Where Is He?

Centre county used to be full of rads who shed tears of sympathy as large as walnuts for the poor soldier, but, alas, where is one who has sympathy for the one armed Woodring, who lost his limb, fighting for the Union, while his radical competitor, Jerry Butts, remained at home?

Where is the rad sympathy for Israel Grenoble, who lost a leg in the service of his country? Show your sympathy by voting for the gallant Gronoble, for Recorder. Where is the consistent rad?

Lieut. S. S. Wolf served honorably in the Union ranks, and where is the rad who will be consistent and vote for him for Treasurer, in lieu of Rash Cadwalader who kept at home while Wolf was fighting?

Centre County Rads Giving It Up.

The rads of our county feel that it is all up with them in this county—their ticket is so weak, that they have made propositions to trade off, shove off, sell off, hist off, swap off, dicker off, or any other way they can get off, some of their candidates, and save any one of them from Assembly down to Coroner.

Their first game was to trade off with democrats against John Moran, our gallant nominee for Prothonotary, and elect Barr; but democrats couldn't see it. They then attempted to get out a Democrat as an independent candidate for Sheriff, promising to withdraw Jerry Butts, and a short time ago Jim Coburn and Bob Duncan called upon Samuel J. Herring, esq., and attempted to pursuade him to run as an independent Democratic candidate for Register, and they would withdraw their candidate, Wm. Curtin, and give him (Herring) the whole radical vote. Herring, like an honorable man, refused to be the tool of radical schemers, and told them he would consider over the matter for a week—meaning that that week should be as long as some philosophers put the length of one of the days of creation—ten thousand years,

Democrats, be active and vigilant. Our whole ticket is safe by being true men, and the radicals know it, and they try to get out independent candidates, hoping thus to get a crumb at least.

Bombast.

The Bellefonte National, special organ of Coburn and the anti-Brown-Hutchinson wing of the Centre county radicals, speaks of Coburn as follows:

"He is well educated; has had large experience in business, in and out of his profession, and is of such ability as will reflect honor upon the county should he be called by the people to represent them in the next legislature. By profession a lawyer, he has had much to do with the business of the community in which he resides. His private business affairs have heretofore prevented his residence at the county seat where he would have engaged in the more active duties of his profession, and yet we doubt whether any lawyer in the county has exerted more influence for good in the community than has Mr. Coburn."

This bombast will bring a smile upon every lip as it is read, and shows that the new managers of that "organ" are not yet posted upon Centre county candidates, or else they would have known that Coburn never was engaged in any business and that his private business never prevented him from going to the county or any other seat, and that as a lawyer he is a nonentity instead of "having exerted more good than any other lawyer." Judge Linn ought to know for he once said "Coburn is a queer lawyer," from the manner in which he "did up" the proceedings in the case of a man arrested in Brushvalley, some years ago, for passing counterfeit money.

The Railroad.

The prospects for our railroad are fairer now than ever before, and we hope the spirit will keep up long enough until the requisite amount is subscribed to grade the road. So far as we have intelligence, the right of way will be freely granted by our people. Gregg township proposes to raise $50,000, which will grade the road through that township. The citizens there propose to raise this amount by an assessment upon the improved land within Gregg township—the assessment for this purpose has already been made. Potter, and other townships, we believe will pursue the same course. Samuel H. Stover, we are told, is ready to take the contract for grading the road through Harris township, at $1500. Go ahead, Sam, we will hold your hat. Our friend Sam has railroad spirit enough in him to pull a train of cars himself, and if all others are as zealous for the road as he, we will soon hear the whistle of the iron horse. The subscription books were printed at the Reporter office, last week, and are now destributed along the line.

In California the Democracy achieved a grand victory, last week, which is another triumph against the negro suffrage amendment.

Now, Democrats of Centre, elect J. G. Meyer, and help repeal the ratification of the XVth, negro suffrage, amendment in Pennsylvania. Coburn is flat-footed for negro suffrage.

Subscribe for the Reporter.

The Bellefonte National made its appearance again last week, under its new proprietor, Mr. C. B. Gould, of Cameron county. Wien Forney, esq., will do up its editorial articles at Harrisburg. The National is dressed in a new suit, and its "make up" is an improvement upon what it formerly was.

The National advocates Samboism, and promises to be decent as a journal, which we cannot understand how it will be possible while advocating the heresies of Radicalism. May it flourish pecuniarily.

FELIX GRUNDY'S LETTER FROM AARONSBURG.

Aaronsburg, Sept. 7th, '69.

Dear Reporter—As my last reached you too late for last week's paper, you may omit it, as it related chiefly to the railroad, upon which your readers were sufficiently enlightened last week. Politics are brightening up here, and getting fairer every day for the democratic ticket. The rads here feel it all up with their ticket, and the votes that Coburn thought of getting among honest German democrats, he can now put in his eye. He finds that the "copperheads and rebels," as he used to call them, cannot be soft souped into his support. If all the heavy oaths that Coburn has heaped upon Democrats, were put in one string, they would reach from this place to Millheim, Jim, as you know, being one of the most ready swearers now living, and if he were taxed upon that faculty, the national debt could be paid off in two years.

He would ask Democrats to vote for him, yet is too bigoted to vote for a Democrat for the smallest township office. He never reads a Democratic paper, unless for some special thing he wished to see—the North American paper is his bible, and it is a matter of doubt yet whether he really knows there are other papers printed besides. He is a pattern of a man indeed, and what a modle representative he would make!

Democrats of Haines and Penn, who was a more bitter persecutor among us, during the war, than Jim. Coburn? He it was that sided with the rabble that sighed to hang every Democrat, and mob members of our party—he wished for it—that others would do it—he not having the courage! Oh! how loud he talked loyalty, day and night, and with nothing, no business, no children to excuse him for staying at home, he skulked and talked, and let his neighbors go, while he thought his hide to good to be exposed to rebel bullets. Democrats, republicans, is not this true? And now, for these deeds of valor, the noble paper colonel, asks Democrats to vote for him, that he may go to the legislature and help fasten the negro suffrage amendment upon the people of this country. Some think Democrats may vote for Coburn because he is a clever fellow—he's clever when it costs nothing,—but mind you, some of us voted for Cook Duncan, because he really was a "clever fellow," and how soon did we rue it! and how much more bitter a radical is Coburn? No, Mr. Editor, the Democracy of the lower end are mindful of all these things, and they will show a good record. During the latter part of last week, I had a good opportunity of seeing Democrats through here, and I find that there is no defection worth mentioning. The ticket will poll the entire vote, Coburn may be thankful if he holds his own. We are determined upon the election of J. G. Meyer, and all the rest of the candidates upon our ticket. Do ye your duty.

FELIX GRUNDY.

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION.

Democratic Victory Overwhelming—Radicals Nowhere in the Legislature—Wyoming Imitates the Golden State—Democratic Delegate Elected to Congress.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—We have gained an everwhelming democratic victory in California. Three-fourths of the legislature is democratic.

Wyoming O. K!

CHEYENNE, Sept. 3.—The election yesterday passed off quietly. The entire county democratic ticket is elected. Hon. S. F. Nuckolls, democrat, elected to Congress.

The World says "now that he terrible war horse Geary is once more on the war-path, it is well enough to revive his old story which he told, with great success, in his first fight for the Governorship of Pennsylvania, about frightening Stonewall Jackson to death According to Geary, that soldier lay dying in his tent, and suddenly summoned General Longstreet, whom he thus addressed:

"General Longstreet, did you observe that tall imposing form to-day, seated on a black horse, in the thickest of the fight, as we did battle?" Quoth General Longstreet: "I did, indeed, my dear General." "That man so valient was General Geary," exclaimed Stonewall. "Mark me, beware of him! Avoid him! * * Longstreet, beware of Geary!" * * With this dying injunction to his comrade the hero of Shenandoah departed.

This dying injunction of Stonewall Jackson, as reported by Geary, is now repeated to the voters of Pennsylvania: "Beware of Geary!"

FROM CHICAGO.

Failure of an Insurance Company—Another Tunnel—Platform of the National Temperance Convention.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—The Farmers and Merchants Insurance Company of Quincy, Illinois, has failed with more liabilities than assets.

The board of public works of this city have decided to prepare a plan for another tunnel under the lake, to be sixty feet beneath the surface, running under the main and both branches of the river and under the whole city, from the water works of the north side to about Twenty-second street on the west. The work will occupy three years to complete it and cost one and a half million of dollars.

The National Temperance Convention to-day reported a platform as follows:

First. That we acknowledge the pure patriotism and profound statesmanship of those patriots who laid the broad and deep foundations of this government, securing at once the rights of the States severally and their inseparable union by the Federal Constitution. We would not merely garnish sepulchures of our republican fathers, but we do hereby renew our solemn pledges of fealty to the imperishable principles of civil and religious liberty embodied in the declaration of American independence and our Federal Constitution.

Second. That the traffic in intoxicating beverages is a dishonor to Christian civilization, inimical to the best interests of society, a political wrong of unequalled enormity, subversive of the ordinary objects of government, not cabable of being regulated or restrained by any system of license whatever, but imperatively demanding for its suppression effective legal prohibition, both by State and national legislatures.

Third. That in view of this and inasmuch as the existing political parties either oppose or ignore this great and paramount question and absolutely refused to do anything toward the suppression of the rum traffic, which is robbing the nation of its brightest intellects, destroying its very foundations, we are driven by an imperative sense of duty to sever our connection with these political parties and to organize ourselves into a national anti-dram shop party, having for its primary object the entire suppression of the traffic in intoxicating drinks.

Fourth. That while we adopt the name of anti-dram shop party as expressive of our primary object, and while we denounce all repudiation of the public debt and pledge fidelity to the principles of the Declaration of Independence and the Federal Constitution, we deem it inexpedient to give prominence to other political issues.

Fifth. That a central executive committee of one from each State and Territory and District of Columbia be appointed by the chair, whose duty it shall be to take such action as in their judgement will best promote the interests of the country.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—The quarterly meeting of the Centre Co. Agricultural Society, was held at the court-house, on Monday evening Aug. 23d, the President, Col. Rishel, presiding. The Secretary, William Hamilton, reported that the Executive Committee had decided to hold the annual Fair on the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th of October, and that the necessary arrangements therefor be made. Ex-Gov. Bigler of Clearfield had been invited, and the invitation excepted, to deliver the annual address. On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to attend the annual meeting of the Agricultural College, to be held on Monday, September 7th, Richard Conly, of Benner, H. N. McAllister, of Bellefonte, and Hon. Wm. Allison of Howard.

The following gentlemen were appointed to procure conveyances to take delegates to the College on Wednesday, to attend said meeting: William Shortlidge, Joseph M. Wilson, Roland Curtin, Samuel Gilliland, John T. Johnson, John Seibert and Frank L. Wilson.

Mr. Blanchard reported that arrangements had been made for reduced rates on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, and that the Company would issue excursion tickets, good during the Fair, from the 5th to the 9th of October, inclusive, and also that the same arrangements had been made with the Tyrone and Clearfield R. R. Co.

Mr. McAllister gave an interesting account of experiments in the various branches of farming at the Agricultural College farm, which was listened to with much pleasure. An interesting discussion was had on the raising of wheat, and the kind best adapted to this region, by E. C. Humes, Christian Dale, Mr. McAllister, R. B. Meek, Samuel Van Trics and John S. Foster, after which the meeting adjourned.

The Herald's Panama letter of August 25th, says: Frank Ward, a son in-law of Wm. B. Astor, of New York, jumped overboard from the steamer Sacramento, near San Jose, and was drowned.

FROM THE COAL REGIONS.

Coal Breaker on Fire—Over Two Hundred People in the Mine—Fears for Their Safety.

PLYMOUTH, Sept. 6.—A fire broke out this morning in a flue in the bottom of Steuben shaft, owned by the Deleware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, in this place, and in a short time the whole breaker and outbuildings were in flames, and the hoisting apparatus, the only avenue of escape for miners, destroyed. All efforts to stay the flames were in vain, and the whole structure fell, partly filling up the shaft. Over two hundred men are in the shaft and have no communication with the outside, with no air as the only way for getting air into the shaft was throug theh main opening, and that was filled with burning timbers and the debris. It is feared that the whole number have been suffocated by the smoke or perished for want of air. The fire departments of Scranton, Wilkesbarre and Kingston are on hand and are playing streams down the shaft for the purpose of quenching the fire there, so that the rubbish can be cleared out and the condition of the men ascertained. It will probably take till to-morrow morning before any tidings can be received from them. The scene at the shaft is heartrending. The families of of miners are congregated there in great numbers. Miners from all parts of the county are there at work, and merchants, and in fact the whole population of the town, have turned out to assist. The loss by the fire will amount $100,000, partly covered by insurance.

All the physicians in the vicinity have been summoned to attend when the condition of the men is ascertained. The affair has cast a gloom upon the whole community, and business is almost entirely suspended. The miners only resumed work to-day, after a suspension of about three months. Among the men in the mines is Mr. Hughes, superintendent.

The fact of the long and severe strike just ended adds greatly to the destruction which will follow this calamity. The widows and orphans will number not less than six hundred.

The crowd at Avoudale has become so great as to interfere with the relief operation, and the free passenger trains are necessarily suspended.

Scranton, Sept. 7.—11 a. m.—The late intelligence from the awful fire in the Avondale mine works up to this hour this morning holds out but very slight hopes for the safety of the two hundred or more men who have been shut up in the earth since yesterday morning. The escape of gas and choke damp precludes the possibility of any further attempt at exploration being made. Until the steam fan which is now being set up is finished, nothing can be done to aid those in the mine or ascertain if any one is living. It is feared that no one dare express it) that not a human being is now alive within the horrible pit.

Two colored men are on the stump for Dent in Mississippi.

They do big things up in Williamsport. Their city debt is over six hundred thousand dollars.

Hope For Working Men.

"Having earned my bread by the labor of my hands during many, and I may add the happiest years of my life, and owing whatever I possess (under the Providence of God) to patient and honest toil, I can never be unmindful of the interests of those with whom my entire life has been associated."—Asa Packer.

A newspaper published in Concord, N. H., reports that a large body of black ants were seen a few days ago in the highway between London and that city, formed in two lines, extending entirely across the road. A severe battle was fought by them, which lasted nearly an hour, after which both sides were occupied in burying their dead.

IN NUMBERS there is safety, it was upon this principle that the formula of Judson's Mountain Herb Pills was prepared. It was not the result of one man's knowledge. Dr. Judson intending to spend a fortune in advertising his pills consulted the most intelligent and learned physicians of the age and the result was the production of a simple but efficaceous medicine the Judson's Mountain Herb Pills. These pills cure Billiousness, Dispepsia Liver Complaint, Indigestion, Female Irregularities, &c.
