From Missouri.

Col. J. H. Stover, formerly of this county, writes us from Missouri, under date of Versailles, Aug. 16, 1899.

We have had an exceedingly bountiful harvest here. No trouble raising crops here provided proper attention is paid to farming winter wheat drilled and sowed early, runs from 35 to 45 bushels to the acre. Many fields of oats average 60 bushels to the acre. We have just run enough now to bring out our corn which was backward.

"Good Health."—The September number of Good Health is on our table. And its title indicates, it is a journal devoted to physical and mental culture. The contents are valuable to the general reader as well as to medical practitioners. It is not the medium for the puffing of patent medicines, but it abounds in good instructions concerning the rules of health. Published monthly by Alexander Moore, No. 21 Franklin street, Boston, for $2 a year.

To stop an itching head use Hall's Vegetable Siccilian Hair Renewer, a sure cure.

THREE MONTHS FREE.—The publisher of Mersey's Museum offers to send that popular magazine three months free to any one who wishes to examine it. Address: ROBERT B. FULLER, Publisher, 14, Bromfield Street, Boston.

A melancholy story is related of a once refined and beautiful lady, Miss Esther Wallace, who came to her death in St. Louis by her inordinant fondness for opium and whisky. She left her husband, neglected her lovely children, and gave herself to the passion for stimulants. From her lapse to another she rapidly passed, until finally her corpse was discovered in a filthy garret, and her little girl related the story of her selling everything for opium, her residence upon whisky for several days, and the final debauch from which she never awoke.

More Tyranny.—It is now stated on what is considered reliable authority, that the test oath will not be enforced in Virginia, but the legislature will not be allowed to act until that State shall have been recognized by Congress, and the State will not be recognized until the legislature ratifies the Fifteenth amendment. Canby, it is said, will soon issue a proclamation announcing the result of the election, and in one month after the issuing of the proclamation the legislature will convene.

Thirteen women were arrested at the Pension office, charged with drawing pensions, fraudulently representing themselves as widows of soldiers. All of them are remarried and some of them came to the Pension office in their own carriages.
