LOCAL NEWS.—Our friends will oblige us by sending in any items of local interest, including deaths, marriages, &c., as such are eagarly read by your friends in the west, many of whom get the Reporter. We would esteem it a favor if our kind patrons would occasionally mail a copy of the Reporter to relatives and acquaintances who formerly lived in Centre county and removed to other parts, which would induce many to become subscribers.

Nos. 55 & 56 of Zell's Encyclopedia, have been received. 10 cents per number. T. Ellwood Zell, Philadelphia, publisher.

Zell's Popular Encyclopedia, still continues to reach us, and we hold our former high opinion of the work, as being more complete than any other book of the kind yet published.

The nicest selection of Ladies Furs, to be found at MILROY.

Isaac Hafer, at Bellefonte, always keeps pace with the times in the matter of Stoves—he has always the first to have the latest and best invention. Be sure to consult Isaac, whenever you wish to buy a Stove. Go to Haupt and get the Reversing Light, we have one and would not do without it.

INTERESTING TO ALL.—The Reporter now having attained a circulation well nigh unto 800 copies, it presents a first-class advertising medium, particularly for such as wish to reach the attention of the citizens of this side of the county.

Do you wish to reach the Pennsvalley trade, advertise in the Reporter.

Have you a farm for sale, advertise in the Reporter.

Do you wish to prosper in business, advertise in the Reporter. 3t

COLD WEATHER.—The weather for the last five or six days has been very cold and at times stormy, with an occasional sprinkling of snow.

ON A TOUR.—On Monday last, Mr. J. G. Mota and his sister Lydia, from Woodward, started on a tour to Colorado, which is the second time they made a visit to that distant country.

On the same day Gen. Jonathan Wolf and H. H. Weaver, left Brushvalley for the south, to seek for homes.

In our last we mentioned the death of a child of Mr. James Miller, near Rebersburg; on Monday last another of his children was buried.

A child of Daniel Condo, of Gregg twp., aged about four years died of typhoid fever, which makes the third of his children that was taken off by the same disease, inside of a few weeks.

BARN BURNED.—On last Sunday morning, about 3 o'clock, the barn of Samuel Condo, one mile west of Rebersburg, took fire and burned to the ground with all its contents, consisting of two nice buggies, a valuable mare, and crop of grain, hay and corn. It is not known how the fire originated. The building was insured in the Pennsvalley Company.

A later informant states, that Mr. Condo was severely burned in trying to rescue his horse from the fire.

SPECIAL EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS.

A special examination, (last one of the season), for the benefit of such as were prevented from attending at the regular time, will be held at CENTRE HALL, on FRIDAY, Nov. 19th, next, commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m

Applicants must come prepared, as required on page 169 of the School Laws. R. M. MAGEE,

SHOT HIMSELF.—On last Tuesday Joseph Gilliland, a son of David Gilliland, of Centre Hill, while out on a deer hunt, in the Seven Mountains, was shot in the left hand by the accidental discharge of his gun. Young Gilliland had placed his rifle down at rest, with his hand partly over the muzzle, and by tramping some brush with his foot, the piece was discharged, the ball entering his hand below the front finger. Mr. G. immediately returned to Potters Mills, where Dr. Moyer was called upon, who found it necessary to amputate the finger.

AT COST.—Messrs Gilliland having purchased the entire stock of Howell, Gilliland & Co., are now selling off Goods at cost, in order to close up the business.

Great bargans are offered, and we advise our readers to call at their store at Bellefonte.

Be not deceived by imitations of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer; call for Hall's and accept no other.
