The law contemplates that Boards of Directors shall grant Teachers the The law contemplates that Boards of Directors shall grant Teachers the time to attend the Institute, and count the same as teaching Directors are reminded that this does not conflict with the affidavit required of the President of the Board.—The plan adopted by a number of districts last year, of lengthening the term one week, by paying the Teachers for their time, and requiring them to attend the whole time, or forfait all, is, per-haps, preferable. We trust the Directors of Centre county will not be found dereliet in this respect, for the Institute, if properly conducted, is certainly a benefit, not only directly to the Teachers, but indirectly to their schools. But whether allowed the time or not, it is a duty every Teacher owes to the nectes ion, and we confidently expect every Teacher in the county, not

But whether allowed the time or not, it is a duty every Teacher owes to the profession, and we confidently expect every Teacher in the county, not u woidably detained, to be present. Teachers, let nothing prevent you from attending, for paid attendance, at best, does not argue for professional zeal; but come because you feel a love for it, and let us try to make it so attractive and instructive, that no Teacher, whether paid or not, can possibly afford to love the benefit of a single so sion. It is your Institute, and by your attendance and interest only can it be made truly successful. Last year there were 165 Teachers present. There should be an increase of 20 per cent to properly indicate the increased in erest manifested in education.
