THEFTS.—Aaronsburg seems to be troubled with petty thieving. A few nights ago the hen-roost of Maj. Isaac Stover was robbed of 16 chickens.

Mr. Israel Gronoble, of the same place, as he was returning home late one nigt, last week, caught two men in the act of stealing his hay. He knows the names of the fellows, but will not expose them for fear of personal violence, as we are informed. This is wrong, the thieves should be exposed and punished.

ANECDOTE OF GEN. POTTER. - Gen. James Potter, one of the early settlers of our valley, was looked upon, in his day, especially among his neighbors, as quite an important personage, and justly too; we have an instance where his name took precedence to that of the Almighty, upon the very important occasion where two, of opposite sexes, were made one flesh, before a Potter township Justice, in "ye olden" mony, and closed up the tying of the knot with the following words: "And now I pronounce you man and wife in the presence of Jim Potter and God Almighty."

A SPLENDID PRIZE FOR THE LADIES.-The finest, most pleasing, and costly engra-ving ever published in America, to be pre-

the original painting, entitled, "THE PIC-NIC ON THE 4TH OF JULY." The painting took a whole year, and is considered the finest of the entire list of numerous popular productions by Lilie M. Spencer. The engraving was the labor of four years, by three eminent artists—John Rogers, John Halpin, and Samuel Hollyer; the last named having been induced to come from table young man, living by the mountair about 3 miles from Logansville, left his home on the above day, in a cessful labors of the painter. None but artists can fully appreciate the skill and labor wagon, upon which he placed a load- lavished on this engraving. MANHOOD.—IN THE YOUNG & rising generation the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pa did hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the developement of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselve. If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alus! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so facinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.
