A lawver in New Albany, who has made a fortune by his practice in securing divorces, gives this as his mode of procedure in a recent case: The husband and wife were to quarrel and fight every day, and this was to be done in the presence of the children of the wife who were well grown, and they were to be made to believe that the fighting was genuine. instead of foigned. The programme was carried out to the letter, and then the husband applied for a divorce. He set up "incompatibility" in complaint, the wife admitted it and the children swore to it. Judge Bicknell granted the divorce. The same day she transferred some property of her first husband as she had desired to do and the next day the divorced couple were remarried.
