FROM WASHINGTON

THE VIRGINIA BILL PASSED

The Virginia bill has been disposed of at last, not, however, until a number of amendments were inserted guaranteeing the right of all citizens, irrespective of color, to hold office, and providing against any alteration of the State Constitution.

A Rich Prize—The $19,000,000

Million. Some months since we published a statement to the effect that Miss Gray, a milliner of Port Edward, had become the fortunate heir to $19,000,000 which her lover, a young Englishman, had willed to her on his dying bed.

Lewiston, Me., Jan. 21.—An unexpectedly large number of delegates from all parts of New England appeared this morning to attend the fat men's convention in this city.

DEVIL'S TEAPOT.—The Rev. Mr. Pollock, an able and distinguished preacher in the Presbyterian Church, residing near Warren, Pa., on being approached lately by a gentleman engaged in distilling in Paquet county upon the subject of the latter's admission into church membership, replied that there would be no difficulty about the matter, provided he would agree, in future, to "let the devil fill his own teapot."

Do you complain that business is dull? This year's advertisement in the papers that have regular readers, and every paper can bring money to you. The stores which advertise the most are always the fullest. The most successful business men are those who advertise the most.

A young man in North Adams, Mass., who recently learned that the woman whom he had looked upon as his wife for four years, was the lawful wife of another man, immediately left her for his father's house, and then soon sickened and died of grief.
