In Chester county Judge Butler recently gave a decision settling the question of bidders or "puffers" at public sales. A suit was brought to recover $1,645 00 on a note given as the purchase money of real estate. A gentleman who had purchased property at a public sale, and given his note for the money, learned afterwards that there were present at the time other bidders or "puffers," and he refused to take the property. The Judge decided that if a party procure men to bid up property, and the person who buys it is deceived thereby, he can not be held to its bid, as it vitiates the sale and makes
