Wisconsin sends us an other dog story. The owner of the dog got drunk and lay down on the railroad track to sleep, with none but the dog to keep him company. The whistle of an approaching train shrieked in the startled ear of night; the faithful dog tugged at his master's ciothes and tore them in his efforts to awaken him. His efforts proved in vain, and the dog TURKEY PRUINS, raisens, peache took the man by the shoulder and of foreign fruits, Hams, bacon ac., at a fairly dragged him from the track fairly dragged him from the track just as the train came along. A horrible accident occurred yesterday evening on the Memphis and Louisville railroad, two miles north of Clarksville, resulting in the instant death of two men and wounding nine others. As the south bound freight train was about crossing the bridge over Red river the boiler of the engine exploded, instantly killing the engineer, Thomas Bradley, and one fireman, mortally wounding another fireman, and severely injuring two brakemen. The engineer's body was hurled against a telegraph wire and nearly cut in two.
