TURNPIKE ELECTION AN EXCH TING TIME.—The stockholders of the Old Fort and Youngmenstown turn-pike held their annual election at Penn Hall, for Board of Directors, on last readers are aware, are divided upon the subject of having a toll gate a few miles east of Old Fort. The gateists a few years are baying central of the a few years ago, having control of the Board, erected a gate at the aforesaid point, which remained until last spring when the anti gateists got control and toll house and gate came down after having gone through a law suit, as for 1 year for $3,50, or five years for $12, on Barns and Outbuildings, $1000 on House claimed the election of the Board, which dispute was finally decided in favor of the and gate party, and the vanquished laid back to gather forces for the next election, which came off last Tuesday. We proceeded to Penn Hall in good time and found the gate men on the ground early and thick, under the lead of John C. Motz. The opposite wing, under the command of R H. Duncan and J. P. Coburn, were favor of the anti gate party, and the opposite wing, under the command of R. H. Duncan and J. P. Coburn, were also on the ground. Precisely at the hour of 10 the President of the out-going board, Mr. Glover called the meeting to order, when nominations were made for preliminary organization—the anti-gatemen proposed Mr. Coburn for chairman, but when the wore was much the No's seemed much the stron—the No's put, the No's seemed much the stronger. Judge Hosterman was then nominated by the Motz men, when the many countries of the stronger. The with full directions. Warranted to cure. Price, $3 per bottle.

Here Mr. Coburn moved that the vote be taken by each shareholder voting as his name was called from the roll, which was agreed to, and clerks were appointed. Mr. Coburn was chosen to read the names and Judge Hoster-

man chosen to stand by his side to watch him. The reading commenced and ended with a column which contained the names of such as had pre viously appeared upon the books as bona fide stockholders. Mr. Motz demanded the reading of the roll on the next page to whom transfers of stock had been made, as equally entitled to a vote. Here the fight commenced. Mr. Coburn, who kept the books, had placed these names under the heading of "alledged transfer," he and his friends coatending that these transfers have not been notified to him in wri-BLANKS Blank Summons, Vendu Notes, Executions, and Judgment and Exemption Note combined, Justices Warmants, &c., for sale at this office.

ting and were not stamped, and that Mr. Motz, who had been the owner of this stock, had only reported his sale and transfers verbally. Here all was ting and were not stamped, and that and transfers verbally. Here all was on tip toe and excitement. Mr. Motz was called and made oath that all sales of stock made by him had been in good faith and that he had in each case given the treasurer verbal notice with the request to make the transf r upon the books and that such proceedure had always been the custom heretofore. The holders of this "alledged transferred" stock were then examined one after another, upon oath, and stated that they had purchased the stock in good faith, &c. There was swearing done sufficient to last the Centre county quarter sessions one whole term. This part of the proceedings was conducted by the attorneys, M'Aldister for the auti gate men and Furst for the gate men. After these examinations Mr. M'Allister argued about 11 hours against the right of the holders of the stock in question, to vote, citing authorities. Mr. Furst, replied in an argument of half an hour, winding up by calling upon the holders of the transferred stock to come forward and stamp the same before offering to vote, which would make them valid and entitle them to vote. This was done and the question submitted to the two chairmen, Messrs. Coburn and Hosterman, who, of course could not agree-Hosterman contending the stock could be voted, Coburn held the opposite. The next dispute was as to whose bene it this dis igree ment should operat; the gate men insisted the stock should be voted, Main street, Milroy, where he keeps Fur-niture of all kinds, CHEAPER THAN and was accordingly voted under the protest of the opposite wing. COACH MANUFACTORY.

HARDMAN PHILLIPS,

AT HIS manufacturing establishment at Yeagertown, on the Lewistown and Bellefonte Turnpike, has now on hand a fine stock of Carriages, Buggiea, Sulkies and Spring Wagons, which he now offers for sale as superior in quality and styles te any manufactured in the country. They are made of the very best seasoned stock by first class practical workmen, and finished in a style that challenges comparison with any work out of or in the Eastern cities and can be sold at lower prices than those manufactured in large towns and cities, amidst high rents and ruinous prices of living. Being master of his own situation, anxious to excel in his artistical profession and free from any antiovances in his business, he has time and ability to devote his entire attention to his profession and his entire attention to his profession and his customers, rendering satisfaction alike sc all patrons, operatives, his country, and

Call and examine his stock and learn his prices, and you cannot fail to be satisfied.
