CENTRE HALL REPORTER.

FRIDAY, MARCH 18th 1870.

Cooking and Courtship.

TOM TO NED.

Dear Ned, — no doubt you'll be surprised
When you receive and read this letter;
I've mailed the married state,
But then, you see, I know no better.
I've met a lovely girl out here,
Her manner is — well — very winning;
We're soon to be — well, Ned, my dear, I'll tell you all from the beginning:

I went to ask her out to ride;
Last Wednesday — it was perfect weather
She said she couldn't, possibly,
The servants had gone to fetch, (Hibernians always rush away, As oysters' futures to be looking.)
Pies must be made, and she must stay,
She said, to do that branch of cooking:

"Oh, let me help you," then I cried:
"I'll be a cooker, too — how jolly!"
She laughed, and answered, with a smile,
"All right! but you'll repent your folly."
For I shall be a tyrant, sir, And good hard work you'll have to grapple;
So sit down there, and don't you stir:
But take that knife and pare that apple.

She rolled her sleeve above her arm,
That lovely arm, so plump and rounded;
Outside, the morning sun shone bright;
Inside, the dough she deftly pounded.
Her little fingers sprinkled flour,
And rolled the piecrust up in masses;
I passed the most delightful hour
Mid butter, sugar and molasses.

With deep reflection, her sweet eyes Gazed on each pot and pan and kettle;
She sliced the apples, filled the pies,
And then the upper crust did settle.
Her rippling waves of golden hair
In one great coil were tightly twisted;
But looks would break out, here and there,
And curl about where'er they listed.

And then her sleeve came down, and I Fastened it up — her hands were doughy;
Oh, if I did take the longest time,
Her arms, Ned, was so fair and snowy!
She blushed, and trembled, and looked shy;
Somewhat, that made me all the bolder;
Her arch lips looked so red that I Went — found — her hand upon my shoulder.

We're to be married, Ned, next month;
Come and attend the wedding revels.
I really think that bachelors
Are the most miserable devils!
You'd better go for some girl's hand;
And if you are uncertain whether You dare to make a due demand, Why, just try cooking pies together.

A woman named Sarah Chaffee, with six children, ranging from an infant to seven years old, arrived at St. Joseph, Mo., on Thursday night, having walked all the way from Philadelphia, except between Chicago and Quincy.

Twenty eight persons were sentenced to the penitentiary during the last term of the circuit court and will leave for the Frankfort penitentiary, from Chicago, the other day.

which we gain one hundred per cent over other machines. Another advantage is the hoisting and lowering apparatus, whereby the driver has under his complete control of the machine; in coming to a spot of logged grain, the driver can change the cut of the machine in an instant, without stopping the team, varying the stubble from 1 to 14 inches at the outside of the machine, as well as on the inside. It is constructed of first

THE DEXTER CLOTHES WASHER

THE BEST WASHING
MACHINE IN THE MARKET!

Having purchased the exclusive right to manufacture and sell this superior machine within the counties of Centre, Huntingdon, Clearfield, Union and Clinton, the proprietors would call the attention of the public and

ESPECIALLY THE LADIES.
It performs the work better, making the clothes a bleached white, and in at least one-fourth the time than can be done by hand; because steam and the rapid motion of hot water through the clothes, with the slight rubbing, performs the cleaning process, which could not be done by ever so much rubbing by hand on the common washboard.
It does not injure the cloth; it saves it.
A child from 12 to 14 years can work it; and operating it is a beautiful exercise for the body. It is beyond a doubt, the most complete labor saving machine for the household ever invented — simple and durable, effective, cheap, and therefore accessible to every family.

And also SHERMAN'S PATENT CLOTHES WRINGER, the best in use.
These machines are manufactured at the Bellefonte Planing Mill, and all inquiries should be addressed to
H. F. BARTLEY & Co.,
Proprietors,
Nov. 126m.

Hon. Benjamin Harris, who represented the 5th district of Maryland in the 38th and 39th Congress, has written a letter advising resistance to the enforcement of universal suffrage until the Supreme Court decides whether the amendment has been constitutionally ratified, and to test the purpose, proposes to have a test case made immediately, by calling on the boards of registry not to register any colored man until the case is decided. Mr.
Harris, in this connection, advises the people of Maryland to stand firm, regardless of the threats of knaves and tyrants, and victory will soon be ours.

It is stated that the Congressional Committee on railways and canals has agreed to report favorably on the bill to authorize the building of a railroad from Washington City to the Schuylkill river, Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, a dispatch from Washington says:

The bill prescribes the route of the road as commencing at a point in the city of Washington, and running by or near to Brookville and Hood's Mills to the Northern Central Railroad, and hence by way of Marrietta, Lebanon and Pine Grove, in the State of Pennsylvania, to a point on the Schuylkill river, in said county of Schuylkill. The capital stock is fixed at five million dollars, to consist of one thousand shares, of fifty dollars each. Subscription books are to be opened in Washington, Baltimore, York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, New York, Marrietta, Lebanon, Pine Grove and Pottsville.

"The fifth section provides that the Washington and Pennsylvania railroad Company shall have power to connect with the Northern Central Railroad at or near the point where the said road crosses the line between the state of Maryland and the State of Pennsylvania, by consolidation or transfer, as may be mutually agreed upon; and thereupon, the said road hereby authorized, shall be of the same gauge of the said Northern Central Railroad, and of uniform width, so as to carry cars through its entire length."

The bill before the legislature making the legal rate of interest, in this State, 7 per cent., is not likely to pass.
