LOCAL NEWS.—Our friends will oblige by sending in any items of local interest, including deaths, marriages, &c., as such are eagerly read by your friends in the west, many of whom get the Reporter. We would esteem it a favor if our kind patrons would occasionally mail a copy of the Reporter to relatives and acquaintances who forerarely lived in Centre county and removed to other parts, which would induce many to become subscribers.

Domestic Sewing Machine. The New Domestic Sewing Machine makes the look stitch alike on both sides, and has a self adjusting tension, which requires no alteration in changing threads or in sewing different thicknesses. The working parts are made of the very best quality of steel, and is so constructed that it cannot get out of order, unequalled in simplicity and durability. It will sew over thick seams or uneven places, drawing the stitch perfectly without missing. Where real merits exist, blowing and misrepresentations are unnecessary. We attempt only a plain statement of facts which we can support and which the machine itself will prove to be true. It sews in the neatest and most substantial manner. Every machine warranted. Payments easy. Machines delivered and instructions free. Machines may be examined and obtained by applying to JAS. DUCK, Agent apr8,4t Penn Hall, Pa.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of our friend, J. C. Kemp, agent for the Milroy Woolen Mills. We have given the goods sold by Mr. Kemp, a fair trial, and can assure farmers and all householders, that they are equal to the best in the market, and his prices fair. We mean what we say, and as he will call at your own homes, we recommend him to your patronage, and you will say the same.

ANOTHER HIGH KICKER.—GREGG TOWNSHIP HEADLINE.—In our issue of two weeks ago, we chronicled the high kicking quality of Thomas T. Gentzler, a Penn twp. boy, coupled with a challenge for any one of his weight and inches to beat it. This brings out an old Gregg township dandy, who can kick higher than the Penn township youngster, and do several other big things besides, and challenges "all the world, and the high kicking," to beat him. In the "high kicking" feat we do not think that girls will be allowed as competitors. But, read our Gregg township letter:

Spring Mills, April 18th. Mr. Kurtz—Dear Sir:—Whilst Penn township boys of a young America, who can kick 7 feet 4 inches high, we request you to publish in your next paper that we have an old man in Gregg township, by the name of Geo. Breen, who can kick 7 feet 10 inches high. Mr. Breen is 67 years old, 5 feet 7 inches in height, and weighs about 160 pounds. You may also state that Mr. Breen says he can beat young America just as badly in day's work at chopping wood, cradling grain, or taking up behind a reaper, as in kicking; and if young America don't believe it, his chance is good for a wager. Yours, &c.

RAIN.—On Sunday, 17, and Monday 18th, we had considerable rain, which produced quite a refreshing effect upon vegetation. The weather is still spring like.

FIRE.—On last Monday evening, the kitchen attached to the dwelling of Mr. Geheben, in the Loop, took fire from the stove pipe, and considerable damage was done before the fire was extinguished.

Read the adv. of Foster, Devling & Wilson. They have removed their store to the rooms formerly occupied by May & Co., Bellefonte, and have a splendid stock of new goods. Their advertisement will appear next week.

SAVE YOUR MONEY.—According to the advertisement of T. N. Wolf, he can claim credit for selling the cheapest goods just now in Centre county. New publishes his prices, and his figures will at once put you in mind of good old times, when goods were low. Just think, New offers calico at 5 and 6 cents; good brown sugar at 10, and white at 14, &c. He has just returned with a magnificent stock from Philadelphia and New York, which he is now offering to the people of Miles and Haines townships at the low prices noted in his advertisement in another column. Our friend Wolf, has ripe experience as a merchant and as such will compare with any other in the county. He does not carry on to fleece customers—cleaver, sociable, honest, combined with excellent business tact, makes him one of the most successful of Centre county merchants.
