STILL AHEAD. - The clothing store A. Hirsch & Bro, at Milroy had a great many customers this week from Centre county, and everybody who goes there is pleased with their goods as well as with their prices. We would tell our friends to go to Hirsch's when you want anything in their line and they will use you right.

superior line of dress goods, all shades and styles, and his groceries are the best the market can afford—his supe rior syrups deserving especial notice. Now is the time to buy, at Wolf's.

The mountains in all parts of the valley, have been on fire, during this week, and the valley in consequence is enveloped in smoke. These fires are kindled by evil disposed persons, and much valuable timber is destroyed. There is a late act which imposes a heavy penalty upon these mountain incendiaries.

The weather still continues fine, and springlike-in fact we have an old fashioned spring. On Thursday, 5th, it commenced raining in the morning; we hope it will continue, as the ground needs a good soaking.

The Presbytery of the New School Presbyterians, commenced its sessions at Spring Mills, on last Tuesday. A large attendance of ministers was expected.

Country Merchants, going to Phila-delghia to purchase goods, are always desirons to know what houses offer the breeches, which still answer as his Sun-day go-to-meetings, and which were made in 1832-38 years ago -no doubt when he tied himself to his gal. CROPS.—The past winter not having been so favorable for the grain fields as last year, the appearance was not so good for a large harvest. The seas onable rains and fine, warm weather rith which we have been favored for some weeks, however have had a mighty influence upon vegetation and the grain fields are wearing a hopeful appearance just now. The fruit trees are now in full bloom and blossom and nature is wearing her nost magnificent garb; should the balance of the season remain as favorable as at present we will undoubtedly have good crops of grass, grain, and fruit.
