

CENTRE HALL REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PA., JULY 26th, 1870.

We wish to remind correspondents that all communications intended for publication in the REPORTER, must be free from slang and personalities.

The Altoona Sun is one of the spryest inland dailies published.

Sour Grapes. We must say to the mortification of our numerous friends, that we are not, at this writing, a candidate for the State Senatorship, or any other position—which we cannot get. Our valuable services may thus be lost to the commonwealth, and the public interests may suffer thereby.

Mr. S. T. Shugert publishes a letter, declining being a candidate for State Senator.

R. R. Items. The survey made last week, by the engineers of the Snowshoe road, to find a route between Bellefonte and Centre Hall, was merely for the purpose of ascertaining distance and elevation.

Europe. The Times argues from the data that the marvelous rapidity with which the Prussians had rallied, and the celerity of their concentration upon the Rhine at critical points, defeated Napoleon's plans for the conquest of the Rhine provinces and the disintegration of the German States.

Political Insincerity. "Inconsistent" and "unprincipled" are feeble words with which to designate the political conduct of party serving men.

10 Cents a Day. The caption of this article was a stereotype phrase, and found in every journal and in every mouth of the enemies of the democratic party.

The shoddies, or people who became rich here by the war, are making themselves very obnoxious in Europe.

The mother of Tom Bee (colored), of Corpus Christi, Texas, died recently. She was born in Virginia in 1737, and was one hundred and thirty three years of age at the time of her death.

It is now asserted that State Senator Stephens, of North Carolina, was murdered by the negro guard at the Court-house, who were employed by the Union League to perpetrate the deed for political effect.

Two little girls, aged five and seven years, daughters of Mr. Joseph D. Williams, living in Cedar township, Iowa, were burned to death on the 18th.

Two enterprising Yankees have just started a drove of horses from Los Angeles, Cal., for this eastern world. They are to be driven eight hundred and fifty miles to Salt Lake, and then put on the cars for the East.

Erle, July 12.—At Comeant, to day, Ralph Wright, a farmer sixty years of age, murdered his wife by splitting her head with an axe.

Upon the heels of all this, these same men are now flooding the United States with Chinamen for the purpose of speculating upon their cheap labor.

FOR THE REPORTER.

The Senatorship—D. G. Bush. Mr. Kurtz—Permit me the use of a short space in your paper, in placing before the Democracy of Centre county the name of D. G. Bush, esq., as our next candidate for state senator.

Now, workmen, look at what is staring you in the face. Look at what is actually taking place in the New England and some of the Southern states, where these Chinamen have been introduced, and you see it is all done by the very men who were so fondly prating of their friendship for you.

Democrats of Centre, do not forget the delegate elections, on 6th of August. Send good and firm men to the county convention; such as have the good of the party at heart, and who cannot be pulled and wheeled by some selfish man at Bellefonte, who work only for their own interests, and care nothing for the country democrats beyond their votes.

Mr. Editor.—I see a communication in the last Watchman, asking for the renomination of a certain gentleman in Haines, for Auditor.

Another army is forming in the French province of the Lower Rhine and being distributed between Strasburg and Bitch, adjoining Rheinish Bavaria.

London, July 24.—Evening.—Napoleon communicated by note with Vienna yesterday, which proposes to Austria an alliance, offensive and defensive. An immediate reply is demanded.

Paris, July 25.—The journals of Metz say the French have taken forty prisoners this far.

Paris, July 25.—P. M.—No report of any battle has yet been received, and none is, indeed, expected for some days yet.
