RADICAL FRAUD IN PHILA DELPHIA.

The Philadelphia papers, democratic, neutral, and some of the republicans, were filled with denunciations of the radical manipulations and violation of law relative to the election boards, and now comes the detection of a still more villainous fraud. We copy from the Harrisburg Patriot:

A most stupendous and villainous attempt of the radicals to carry the election in Philadelphia by the importation of negroes from Maryland, has been detected, exposed, and to some extent at least frustrated. Information was received from Baltimore by Detective Gordon and Lieut. Killackey, that negroes were being shipped from that city by Philadelphia radicals for the purpose of being used as repeaters at the ensuing election. Acting upon this information, those officers on Friday morning, 7th, arrested eight negroes on board the Baltimore steamerboat, Henry L. Graw. They gave their names as William Hall, Thomas Bowen, Frank Washington, James Spiddell, Samuel Fisher, Charles Smallwood, Jer. Highland, and Frank Williams. Williams confessed that they had come to Philadelphia to vote the radical ticket, for which they received five dollars each in hand with the promise of ten dollars more when the service was performed. The rest of the negroes all told pretty much the same story, and added that negro repeaters have been sent to order from Baltimore to Philadelphia to rush the election in favor of the radicals. There were found on the persons of the arrested negroes tax receipts signed by different individuals. On Smallwood was found an envelope backed, "William M. Bunn for Registrar of Wills and William B. Leeds for Sheriff." The testimony, apart from their own confessions, was overwhelmingly against the prisoners. Frank Johnson, a colored man, swore that he resided in Baltimore and knew all the defendants; that he had heard them say they would kill any negro who voted the democratic ticket; that thirty Baltimore negroes came to Philadelphia from the Fifteenth ward of Baltimore on Tuesday last to vote, and that more were coming—Jake Robinson and others. There was another testimony equally strong, and Alder man Kerr, before whom the examination took place, committed the defendants, in default of $5,000 bail each, for a further hearing today. This is only a part of the villainy which the Philadelphia radicals have set on foot. In some wards the radical canvassers have stricken hundreds of democratic names from the lists without notice and without cause. In one of these cases where one hundred Democratic names were stricken from the registered list of voters, the canvassers, Pyle, Pearson and Rourke, were arrested, had a hearing and were committed for a further hearing in default of bail, Rourke being held in six thousand and Pyle and Pearson each in two thousand dollars. In a similar case Joseph Ash and John Shylacker were held in six thousand dollars each to answer. In another case the Radical canvassers, James Cox and William Taylor, Eighth division, Twenty fifth ward, were held each in one thousand dollars bail for trial. The charge against them was "conspiring to have a man illegally placed upon the assessment."

These are but a few of the many cases of radical attempts to carry the election in Philadelphia by frauds and other schemes of villainy. No doubt they have the names of hundreds of imported voters, white and black, upon the registries in the Radical wards, and repeaters by the score whose business will be to go from ward to ward, and precinct to precinct and vote under assumed names.

EARTHQUAKE IN THIBET.

Terrible upheaving of the Earth—A Mountain Levelled to the Ground, and a New One Thrown Up—Dreadful Destruction to Life and Property.

New York, October 5.—European mail advices state that the Roman Catholic Bishop at Baling on the confines of Thibet, China and Burma sends to India a terrible account of an earthquake in that region, affecting an area of 180 by 90 miles, on the 11th of April. The Chinese officials estimate the loss of human life at 413 Lama priests, 57 soldiers and 2,812 common people. Pungmo, Long Village and many others are destroyed. So many of the authorities and soldiers have been buried under the ruins of their homes that robbers run everywhere.

Another New England Horror.

Haverhill, October 8.—Mrs. Celina Bickford, aged thirty three, widow of a soldier, and her son, Clarence, aged ten years, residents of this place, were found dead in their beds to-day with their throats cut. It is supposed they were murdered to obtain a small sum of pension money lately paid to Mrs. Bickford.

At the Womens Suffrage Convention in Boston, last week, after a long and desultory debate it was resolved to make no nominations for State officers.

VERDICT IN DELAWARE.

Complete Democratic Victory. Over Two Thousand Majority.

Wilmington, October 6.—The result of the election held in this State on Tuesday, October 4, for hundred officers and inspectors of the State election, to be held in November, is highly gratifying to the democracy. The radicals were confident, in view of the voter of their negro allies, of having a majority, so confident that, on the morning after the election, radical journals, without waiting for returns, announced that their party had carried the State. The returns now in show that the State is democratic by over two thousand majority. New Castle county, the strong hold of radicalism and of the negro vote, gives only forty-four majority for that party. Kent county gives about one thousand democratic majority, and Sussex county eleven hundred and sixty-nine. The democratic party in this State now numbers within its ranks nearly the whole white vote. The forcing of negro suffrage upon the people has caused all respectable white men, who have previously voted the republican ticket, to leave the radicals and ally themselves with the white man's party.

The War in Europe.

Paris, October 5, via Tours, 7.—A Prussian post at Bondary, comprising thirty men have all been killed by the Turks.

Tours, October 7.—Such telegrams as have been received show a steady advance by the Prussians invading the east and southwest on their march to Lyons.

The journals say there is a general rising in the Vosges. There are no regular troops there, but all men are arouse. The francs tireurs are in all the passes and give no quarter.

The Germans Driven Back.

London, October 7.—The Prussians have been driven from Joinville Loure and neighborhood, in this Department of Eure et Loire, by the French. They captured twenty prisoners, including one of Prince Albert's couriers. The road between this place, Verdome and Loure, is thronged with National Guards. There is much enthusiasm in this part of France.

Further details of the battle near Pithiviers have been received. The Prussians lost by the success of the French over six thousand cattle and sheep which they had gathered from all parts of the country, and were ready to drive to the army now investing Paris. This success has animated the franc tireurs, who are coming upon all sides.

Engagement on the Moselle—Prussian Losses.

Corny, via London, October 8.—Yesterday, when the French attacked Kimmer's division, the French Imperial Guard was engaged. The French directed several divisions against the first and fourth Prussian corps, on the right bank of the Moselle river. The cannonading was severe. The losses of Kimmer and of the tenth corps amount to five hundred men, and those of the third corps to one hundred and thirty men.

Bombardment of Paris to Begin Early This Week—The Siege of New Bricsach.

London, October 8.—The Manchester Guardian to-day has a special telegraph which announces that the bombardment of Paris will commence early next week. The cannonading will be preceded by a formal summons to surrender the city.

A dispatch from Freiburg, dated to-day, has the following: New Bricsach, having refused to surrender, the Prussians to-day opened cannonade at several points with eight guns. Fires have broken out in consequence.

The Prefect of the Rhine threatens severe penalties against insubordination.

Terrific Battles Before Metz. Berlin, October 10.—The fighting at Metz which was renewed to the northward on the morning of Saturday, was serious, the battle being prolonged throughout the entire day. The French, who were endeavoring to pierce their way through the Prussian lines, were assailed upon all sides by fresh divisions of Prussians, which had advanced to the support of General Von Kammer during Friday night. The French made many brilliant but desperate and hopeless attempts to crush the Prussian centre, and the battle of Saturday ended as had its predecessor of Friday, in the defeat of the French, they being driven in confusion into Metz.

The carnage was more dreadful than that of Friday, and the Prussians now have the task of providing for the dead and wounded of both armies, which will reach an alarming number. The losses of both the French and Prussians were very heavy, the slaughter resembling that of Gravelotte.

"Up in a Balloon."

Tours, October 9.—Charles W. May, of Paris, formerly of New York, and Wm. W. Reynolds, of New York, furnish the following account of their trip in a balloon from Paris, which place they left at the same time with Gambetta: Both balloons having risen at eleven o'clock on Friday morning, when about eight hundred yards up the wind died away, the balloons remaining stationary over the Prussian camp. Musketry was fired at the balloons, as also cannon, the party in the balloons distinctly hearing the whizz of the balls. The Prussians used fuzes, endeavoring thereby to set fire to the balloon. Ballast was thrown out of the balloon and it moved gently away. During the trip which lasted five hours, several attempts were made to land, but the presence of the Prussians in the vicinity compelled the party to throw out ballast and rise again. They finally landed at Raye, in the Department of Somme, where they were received warmly by the people on account of being Americans. They lost sight of Gambetta's balloon at three o'clock on Friday. It landed near Mont Didier, and they were joined by M. Gambetta at Amiens, whence they continued their journey by a special train with him to Tours. Along the route Gambetta was enthusiastically welcomed by the people. The balloons were to have left Paris two days sooner, but were prevented by lack of wind.

How to DESTROY RED ANTS.

Take a white china plate and spread a thin covering of common lard over it, and place it on the floor or shelf infested by the troublesome insect. You will be pleased at the result. Stirring them up every morning is all that is necessary to set the trap again.

TO TRAIN A HORSE TO STAND.—The American Stock Journal contains the following directions: "Take your horse on the hind floor and throw a strap over his back and fasten it to his right fore foot; lead him along and say 'whoa,' at the same time pull down the strap, which throws him on three feet and makes him stop suddenly. This is the best way known to teach whoa, though you can put on the war bridle; and will stop him about as soon as the strap to his foot. Then put him in harness, with the foot-strap, as directed under the heading of 'training to harness,' and drive him up to move take his foot and say whoa. Get in your carriage and get out again; rattle the thills, make all the noise gettingtingting out you can; give the word 'stand,' and he must stand until you tell him to go; and after a few times you can put the whole family in the carriage and he won't stir out of his tracks."

A Philadelphia doctor says that washing horses in the morning in water in which one or two onions are sliced, will keep all flies at a distance.

DAVID FLEMING, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

APPROVED.—The thirtieth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Whereas, The Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States is as follows:

"Section 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

"Section 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

And whereas, The Congress of the United States, on the 31st day of March, 1870, passed an act, entitled "An Act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, and for other purposes," the first and second sections of which are as follows:

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all citizens of the United States, who are, or shall be otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election in any State or Territory, parish, township, school district, municipality or other territorial subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; any Constitution, law, custom, usage, or regulation of any State or Territory, or any law, ordinance, vote, or election, to the contrary notwithstanding."

"Section 2. And be it further enacted, That if by or under the authority of the Constitution of any State, or by the laws of any Territory, any act or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law, such act or shall be charged with the performance of duties in furnishing to citizens an opportunity to perform such prerequisite, or to become qualified to vote in any State or Territory, every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, the same and equal opportunity to perform such prerequisite, and to be qualified to vote without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and if any such person or officer shall refuse or withhold, or give full effect to this section, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action on the case, with full costs, and shall also be liable as a party to the court shall deem just, and shall also, for every such offence, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one month and not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court."

And whereas, It does appear by the second section of the 15th article of the Constitution of the United States, that "This Constitution and the laws of the United States shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas, The Legislature of this Commonwealth, on the 24th day of April, A. D. 1870, passed an act, entitled "A further supplement to the act relating to elections in this Commonwealth," the tenth section of which provides as follows:

"Section 10. That so much of every act of Assembly as provides that any white freeman shall be entitled to vote or be registered as voters at the elections to be held at any general or special election of this Commonwealth, and be the same is hereby repealed; and that hereafter all freemen, without distinction of color, shall be entitled to register as voters at the elections to be held at any general or special election of this Commonwealth."

A Radical Revolution

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytical chemist in America, has recommended Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye as a PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the colors it imparts are permanent. Full directions with every bottle.
