The Editor of this paper, who pirchased a Washer and Wringer, thus testifies as to their value?

Doty's Washer.—Washing is the hardest work woman has to attend to? Many have been the inventions to take from washing-day its dread by enabling our wives and daughters to perform that work with greater case than accompanies the old mode of washing by hand. As yet, few of these inventions have proven success; against some machines it is objected that they will not wash clean, against others that to operate them is more tresome than the old mode.
