Peterson's Magazine for December is unusually splendid, even for "Peterson." It has two superb steel plates, a mammoth colored tashion plate, a costly colored Ber-lin pattern, and more than fifty wood en-in pattern, and more than firty wood en-gravings. It will give, in 1871, one thous-and pages of reading, 14 steel engravings, 12 double-size colored steel fashion plates. 24 pages of music, and about 900 wood en-gravings. We never saw a more beautiful fashion plate than there is in this number; in fact the fa hions in "Peterson" are al-ways superior to those to be found elsewhere. In 1871 there will be given five copy-right novelets, besides about one hundred shor-ter stories. The price of "Peterson's" is only two dollars a year to single subscri-bers, while other magazines of its class are three or four. To clubs the terms are lower still, viz : five copies for $8, or eight copies for $12. Every persons getting up either of these clubs will recive the maga-zine for 1871 grats, and also a splendid copy-right engraving, (24 inches by 20,) insert a very sig "Washington at the Battle of Trenton," of the merit of which we can speak from personal inspection. Now is the time to get

Grant thought he could pass that lumbering soft of a cast, and put his charges up to his speed. The butcher boy chirruped to his nag, and kept ahead. Gen. Grant, with his $2,000 horse, could not pass him. The General marked the horse and cart, and driving to his stable ordered a hostler to go as owce and buy the butcher pedpler's horse. He did so, paying $150 for him. Subsequently Gen. Grant drove him to Baltimore and back to Washington in a day. He considered him worth at least $2,000
