John Cessna, defeated for Congres by B. F. Myers, is going to contest Cessua is one of the greatest political villains in the state, who will stoop to any base and dishonorable means to obtain a seat for which the people of his district thought him too mean and undeserving, as shown by the change against him. The people of his district have spewn Cessna out, and by hired perjury he will endeavor to force himself upon an honest and unwilling people as their representative. John Cessna is depraved enough, were he the sitting member, to become one of the committee on contested elections, and decide his own case
