DEATH OF REV. CHARLES REESE.—Rev. Charles Reese died at Hiner's Run, Clinton county, on 24th October, aged 70 years. Rev. Reese, some 18 years ago, was pastor of the Aaronburg Lutheran church, and was well known throughout Pennsylvania. His life was one of Christian usefulness, and as a minister, his great endeavor was to be true to his great calling, and to work in the vineyard of the Lord. He has gone to receive his reward. His wife preceded him to the spirit land some few months before.

HARRIS TWP. S.S. CONVENTION.—The third meeting of the Harris township Sabbath School Institute will take place at the Spring creek Presbyterian Church, (Branch), on Saturday, Dec. 30, at 10 o'clock A.M. The officers, teachers and adult members of the several S. Schools of the twp. are all expected to be present, and bring their books with them so as to remain all day. All others interested in the cause are also cordially invited to be present and participate in the exercises.

C. Nutt, D. D., President Indiana State University, says: "Our Father's House" is a most useful, instructive and entertaining work. We most heartily recommend. "Night Scenes" has met with unprecedented popular favor. We predict for this volume still increased popularity, and a still greater demand.

We are about to make important improvements upon the Reporter, by greatly enlarging it, so as to enable us to nearly double the amount of space now appropriated to reading matter. To do this we are obliged to have a new press, which will arrive in a few weeks, and costing nearly $1000.—The expense of the new press and the enlargement of the Reporter, puts us in debt to about that amount in consequence. Now we trust that our subscribers, whom we have regularly and faithfully served with the cheapest county paper in the state, and who are yet back upon their subscription, will pay up, as per terms, as much as they are able to do, so that we may be enabled to meet our obligations, and we can furnish a still more attractive paper. A wish no one can think that the $2.50, or $5, which may be due from him, is of little help, and unimportant, but we kindly ask that it be forwarded, we need every cent, and more.

CENTRE COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

TO THE TEACHERS AND SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF CENTRE COUNTY.

Our Annual County Institute will be held this year at Bellefonte, commencing on Monday, Dec. 20th, at 2 o'clock, P. M. All teachers, who are not members of the Institute, are invited to attend. All Teachers, and all who are preparing to teach, will be regarded as members of the Institute.

The new contemplated that Boards of Directors shall grant teachers the time to attend the Institute, and count the same as teaching. Directors are reminded that this does not conflict with the affidavit required of the President of the Board. The plan adopted by a number of districts last year, by lengthening the terms of work, by paying the teachers for their time, and by holding them at the Institute, is perhaps the best, and is perhaps preferable. We trust the Directors of Centre County will not be found wanting in this respect, if it properly conducted, is certainly a benefit, not only directly to the Teachers, but indirectly to their schools. But whether allowed the time or not, it is a duty every teacher owes to the profession, and we confidently expect every teacher in the county to be present, and to be retained, to be present.

Teachers, let nothing prevent you from attending, for paid attendance, at best, does not argue for professional zeal, but because you feel a love for the work, and wish to try to make it so attractive and instructive, that no teacher, who has the good of his school at heart, will be deterred by the length of a single session, or by the expense, and by your attendance and interest, you will be made more successful. Close your schools for the entire week, and come in early on Monday, so as to be present at the first Session. Our Institute last year was more largely attended than any other in the county. 294 teachers were present, 80 more than the number of schools in the county. Ninety per cent of the actual teachers of the county were present during the entire session. Let every teacher endeavor to keep up this reputation.

EXERCISES. The Exercises will consist of Teachers' Sessions, or working Sessions, during the day, and Lectures and Addresses in the evening. During the day sessions will be held in the morning, and in the afternoon, by Prof. W. N. Hull, of Chambersburg, Pa., English Grammar, by Prof. H. B. Shumaker, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, by Prof. W. N. Hull, of Chambersburg, Pa., Arithmetic and Algebra, by Prof. P. H. Shultz, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and United States History, by Prof. F. W. A. Shultz, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Geology, by Rev. S. J. Dorsey, of Harrisburg, Pa. Mental Science, by Prof. John S. Stahl, of Harrisburg, Pa. Elementary Teaching and Object Lessons, by Prof. J. T. Burgen, of Harrisburg, Pa. Rhetoric, by Prof. John S. Stahl, of Harrisburg, Pa. Wolf, of Bellefonte; Rev. J. K. Miller, of Jacksonville; A. H. Hutcheson, of Bellefonte; H. Meyer, of Harrisburg; and J. S. Stahl, of Harrisburg. The teachers of the various Academies and High Schools of the county, are expected to take part in the exercises of the Institute.

LECTURES. It is impossible to announce, at this date, a complete programme. The following, however, will form part of the exercises: REV. A. H. BOYLE, of Easton, will deliver his famous lecture on, "The Origin of the Poetry of Nations," on Tuesday evening. On Thursday evening an Eclectic Entertainment, by Prof. Hull. An Address on the 25th of Dec. will be given by Prof. Shumaker. On Friday evening, Prof. SHUMAKER will deliver a Lecture on "Physical Geography."

ESSAYS. Will be read by different lady teachers of the county. An invitation is extended to the lady teachers in the county, to prepare Essays.

Roll Call. The roll will be called, morning and afternoon, as required, by law, and on Friday afternoon tickets of membership will be given Teachers to show the directors of their respective districts setting forth how many Sessions were attended.

For the benefit of teachers and directors we extract the following from the "Low Law," in relation to the duties of teachers: PROVIDED FURTHER, that no board of directors may allow the teachers in their employ the privilege of attending such institutes without making any deduction from their salaries, and that any teacher who shall neglect to do so, shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars, and shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars, and shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars.

TEACHERS should provide themselves with note books, that they may record whatever may be deemed of interest to themselves and their schools.

ACCOMMODATION. Efforts will be made to entertain lady teachers free. The proprietors of the following hotels have very generously offered to furnish board and lodging at the regular rates, per day: Bush House, per day, $1.00. Brookfield House, per day, $1.00. Garman's Hotel, per day, 50 cents. The Cummings House, reduced to $1.00 per day.

MUSIC. The exercises will be interspersed during the day, and evening, with vocal and instrumental music, under the guidance of Prof. Shumaker. The music will be selected from the "SONGS OF GLADNESS." Teachers are requested to prepare the music to discuss all subjects as above indicated, and to be ready to sing at the Institute.

DIRECTORS' DAY. We earnestly desire the presence of our School Directors, and in order that all may meet and exchange views, Thursday, Dec. 29th, will be set apart as "Directors' Day," and in the following questions will be discussed: 1. Unusual mode of Taxation. 2. Shortness of School term. 3. Teachers' salaries. 4. Township High Schools.

THE COMMITTEE on Permanent Certificates will be elected on Friday afternoon, when the regular annual election of officers will take place. Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 10th, 1870. R. M. MAGEE, Co. Supt.

Letter from the Loop. Loor, Nov. 7th 1870. Dear Fred.—Since you have been so highly honored by the citizens of Potter twp., wherein they elected you school director, one sincerely gets to see you, no doubt, from the fact that your immense salary prompts a rigid attention to your duty, hence your seclusion.

I have not written you since I left the "head waters of Salt River." Our return trip was pleasant one although the river was completely blocked in places by the masses of our republican friends on their way up. Friend D. says he will not go further than the Bear Meadows, as he expects to come down next fall.

The fact that the engineers, who are not locating but searching for the best route, are making such rapid progress with their labors, is the sole topic of the day and all are looking forward to the early completion of the R. R. as a new era in the history of Pennsylvania. The question with the people of the Loop is not where, but when the road will be built; with a road from Lewisburg to Tyrone, one from Bellefonte to Centre Hall, and one from Huntingdon to the Loop, no people under the sun will have better facilities than we for the transportation of produce. If the Huntingdon & Broad Top R. R. Co. construct a road from Huntingdon to Milton, to intersect the Catawissa R. R., by which they will have a direct route to New York, it must almost of a necessity come through the Loop, as the Bear Meadow route will be the most convenient as well as the least expensive. Those who are familiar with the ravines and basins of the Seven mountains, west of the pike, will understand me when I speak of the route through Stone gap being the easiest grade, but as the distance is much greater than the other it would, consequently, be more expensive. But do not be alarmed, yet to whom the shrill whistle of the iron horse is a terror, for what you now see in imagination will soon be a reality.

The engineer attendants were not very communicative as they passed through the country "where the woodbine twined," but we learn that they, too, are true to the instincts of nature, and, like their fathers, love the society of the gentler sex. Some of our boys overheard a conversation between two of them by which they learned that some landlady's pretty daughter had taken the door knob off in order to keep them from getting into the room where she was. We do not know whether it was "Yones' daughter or not."

The most "Websterian" lady that ever graced (?) the Loop has left. She eclipses Artemus Ward, and for eloquence Demosthenes sinks in oblivion when compared to her.

Her last expression is worthy of being stereotyped and framed for future reference. In speaking of S. C. who had not conducted himself very properly while in her company. She said she did not think that a man of such prepossessing appearance would sport such a stigma under his exterior. She has gone to the land of pine and buckwheat, where the sun shineth only at noon-day, where the crows, coo with tears in their eyes, where the kill deer carries a haversack and the bees get on their knees to sip the sweet nectar from the cloven blossom. Surely the woodbine twined there and she can compile her lexicon, and not be disturbed by "nasty Loopers."

Deer are plenty and no less than fifteen have been killed during the last month—a number of them in the valley contiguous to the mountain. Messrs. Young and Miller each shot two. There is a clever joke brewing at some ones expense but we are not in full possession of the particulars, but we do know that some one shot a deer that had one hind leg broken and the other to stiff from old fracture that—well, we were going to say it would not walk, but some one thinks that it had at least power enough in its shoulders to drag the other part. Ask Heschler, you will see.

Nearly every moon is a hunting now and those who do not hunt deer are hunting dogs, even "Bob," took his gun and went hunting but when he got to the mountain thought it was too high and he might slide off if he went up, concluded to hunt deer, called around by the mountain, and went home. We concluded the other day that, too, were hunter, and accordingly, took our gun, went to the mountain and soon saw a fine one coming through the brush, he seemed to be standing on her head, shaking her tail all the while. We sighted, drew trigger and—well the deer made a bow and passed on, and is dead. This is all, Fred, only that we do wonder what the editor of the Watchman means by quoting out of us to cents per bushel, and TUSSEY MOUNTAIN BOY.
