Govenor Hoffman on the Great Democratic Victories-Federal Interference at State Elections.

Although Governor Hoffman refrained from addressing the Democracy during the late excited canvass in the empire State, he yet gave his views of the significance of the election, now that it is over, at Albany, the other night, in reply to a serenade by the Jacksonians. The public buildings and many private residences were illuminated in honor of the occasion. When called upon, Governor Hoffman spoke at some length in a congratulatory spirit. We make a few extracts:

The cry of Frauds in the New York Elections. Our opponents realizing the popular approval which would follow, and the intense-
