SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN For 1871.

Twenty-sixth Year. This splendid weekly, greatly enlarged and improved, is one of the most useful and interesting journals ever published. Every number is beautifully printed on fine paper and elegantly illustrated with original engravings, representing New inventions; Novelties in Mechanics, Manufactures, Chemistry, Photography, Architecture, Agriculture, Engineering, Science, and Art.

Its practical suggestions will save hundreds of dollars to every household, workshop, and factory in the land, besides affording a CONTINUAL SOURCE OF VALUABLE INSTRUCTIONS. The Editors are assisted by many of the ABLEST AMERICAN and EUROPEAN WRITERS, and having access to all the leading Scientific and Mechanical Journals of the world, the columns of the Scientific American are constantly enriched with the choicest INFORMATION.

TERMS—$3 a Year; $1.50 Half Year; Clubs of Ten, copies for one year, at $2.50 each, $25.00. With a SPECIAL PREMIUM to the person who forms the Club, consisting of a copy of the celebrated steel plate engraving, "Men of Progress". In connection with the publication of the Scientific American, the undersigned conduct the most extensive Agency in the world for procuring PATENTS. The best way to obtain a patent is to the question—"Can I obtain a patent?" is to write to MUNN & CO., 37 Park Row, N. Y., who have had over Twenty-five Years Experience in the matter. No charge for made-up opinion and advice. A pen-and-ink sketch, or full written description of the Invention, should be sent. For instructions concerning American and European Patents—Re-issues—Interferences—Rejected Cases—Hints on Selling Patents—Rules and Proceedings of the Patent Office—the new Patent Laws—Examinations—Extensions—Infringement, etc., etc., send for INSTRUCTION BOOK, which will be mailed free on application. All business strictly confidential. Address: MUNN & CO., Publishers of the Scientific American, 37 Park Row, New York.

Teachers will not forget the Annual Institute, at Reyn's Hall, Bellefonte, commencing on 26th inst.

Mr. Loughry's hotel, at Unionville was destroyed by fire, with all its contents, on Thursday last week. Insurance.

D. C. Keller, of this place, killed a hog on last Wednesday, which dressed 390 pounds.

THE WEATHER.—The weather has assumed quite a wintry aspect this week. On last Sunday night we had a fall of sleet which covered the ground to the depth of nearly an inch, and on Monday forenoon it rained. Tuesday was cold, and Wednesday brought an ugly snow storm which continued until Thursday.

NEW PAPER.—The Young Men's Christian Association of Bellefonte, has issued a prospectus for a new religious paper, to be published by them. It is to be a six column sheet.

B 4 U Buy Go to Hirsch & Bro., Milroy, and find out the reason why they are so busy.

DEDICATION.—The newly erected church of the Evangelical Association at Egg Hill, will be dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, on Christmas, Services on Saturday evening and Sabbath forenoon and evening. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

LECTURE.—A lecture will be delivered at Millheim, for the benefit of the Union Sabbath School of that place, on the evening of 22d inst., by Rev. J. W. Langley, of Lock Haven, subject, "Fictitious Literature, or Novel Reading." This will be followed on Friday evening, 23d, by an exhibition of dis-siving views of scriptural, temperance, and other subjects, with explanations. The public will be pleased with Mr. Langley's lecture and exhibition, and should give him a crowded audience, and thus help the great cause which these entertainments are to benefit.

Hoffer Bros., Bellefonte, invite farmers and others to examine their splendid stock of dry good, groceries, ready made clothing, &c., &c. They flatter themselves as selling as cheap, if not cheaper than anywhere outside of Philadelphia.

Christmas Novelties at Burnside & Thomas'. The great holiday confections of S. T. Whitman & Sons—the finest that can be produced in any country. Let every husband, father, mother, brother, re-reflect and go at once to Burnside and Thomas. New Japanese toys, rocking horses, dolls, toys, vases and every description of toys very cheap. Go and see the novelty of their stock. Kid, buckskin, dogskin and sheepskin gloves. This house is not surpassed for holiday presents.

TOAD AND OX.—It is amusing to read in the Milffburg Telegraph, of "Chestnut street above sixth," when giving locations in that antiquated, one-horse village, "Chestnut street above sixth," in Milffburg, how's that for funny? Like the animal that has but one leg, Milffburg has but one dirty street running through it, and stand where you will in it, you have any house within stone's throw, even up to "Chestnut street above sixth."

THANKS.—Our esteemed friend, J. C. Kemp, of Centre Hill, has for us thanks for several choice slices of venison. May he live to Camp out often, and keep a steady eye and strong arm, and many deer come within the range of his unerring rifle, is the wish of the printers, whom he has so kindly remembered.

BIG HOGS.—Issac Miller, of this place, killed a hog last week, which dressed 467. Frank Alexander one of 410, and Alk' Shannon one of 436.

Our old friend Slack, across the valley, thinks he will have the bragging pig—as Covade would say—in the county, and intends holding back his grunter, until all the big pigs have "shoved off this mortal coil," when he will trot out one of elephantine proportions as a settler of all.

Col. Love and Mr. Wm. Woods of Strohm's store report some big hogs that were recently slaughtered in that neighborhood, namely, Geo. Jordan, one weighing 395, Jacob Smith one of 373, and Wm. Farmer one weighing 397 pounds.

Strohm, in the Loop, has been paying more for produce, and selling goods lower, than any store in the valley. He receives New Goods every week, and it is determined that no customer shall go away dissatisfied. Try him. Try him. 21

A white girl of Conestoga Centre, Lancaster county, has just assisted in replenishing the earth by giving birth to a mulatto baby—one of the fruits of social equality.

An absent-minded Indian who started out after his cow, found the cow-bell in the road, and pocketing it, followed its tinkling for over twenty miles before he remembered that it was not on the cow's neck.

During the past year the public school expenditures in the State were $7,600,000. Thirty thousand school officers were employed and nine hundred thousand children educated.

In Russia there are 667 cotton factories, employing 180,000 operatives, and manufacturing Bakham, Indian and Persian goods to the extent of $20,000,000 per annum. This trade has grown up since 1860.

John Faylar, the celebrated California horseback rider, to day at the Sacramento Riding Park rode sixty-one miles in two hours and forty minutes, using ten horses. This beats his Texas time.
