Grant's bayonets were uncalled for, as Pensylvania is amply able to take care of herself, and does not require the assistance of federal bayonets.
When Gen. Grant sent troops to the polls in our state as he also did to New York and other states,—without being called upon by the executive, he played the part of an usurper, and deserves to be impeached and ignominiously kicked from the White House for menacingly insulting the sovereign people of this and other states.
We call the attention of all honest republicans to the language of the
