LOCAL ITEMS.

LOCAL NEWS.—Our friends will oblige us by sending in any items of local interest, including deaths, marriages, &c., as such are eagarly read by your friends in the west, many of whom get the Reporter. We would esteem it a favor if our kind patrons would occasionally mail a copy of the Reporter to relatives and acquaintances who formerly lived in Centre county and removed to other parts, which would induce many to become subscribers.

BLANKS.—Blank Summons, Vendu Notes, Executions, and Judgment and Exemption Note combined, Justices Warrants, &c., for sale at this Office.

IMPORTANT TO BUSINESS MEN.—The circulation of the REPORTER, on this side of the county, is now greater than that of any two papers in the county, hence business men who wish to reach the Pennsvalley trade, will advance their own interests, by advertising in the REPORTER. Our subscription list is open to the inspection of all who wish to advertise.

SALE.—R. F. Emerick's sale, in Gregg twp., March 4th.

R. Lee's sale, Centre Hill, March 14th.

Jno. Myers sale, Harris, March 7.

J. J. Lingle and J. S. Barnhart were admitted to the Centre county bar, last week.

A stage horse belonging M. Buoy, on last Friday night, fell through a trap door, in Rikard's stable, Bellefonte, and broke his neck.

The REPORTER office has the largest power press in Central Pennsylvania, and prints the cheapest and largest county paper in the state. "How's that for high."

One of the finest and most interesting sites at Bellefonte, is the stylish and handsomely arranged hardware store, of Irvin & Wilson. The building is a new one, and its handsome exterior is an indication of a far handsomer interior. There is no hardware establishment outside of Philadelphia to surpass it for beauty in its arrangement. The front windows consist of monster paines of French plate glass, and cost $700.

OUR SCHOOLS.—The Co. Supt. just having completed the visitation of the schools of Potter township, speaks well of them and thinks the plan adopted by the Board last fall, of grading the teacher's salaries is one of the best steps yet taken.

We have just received a fine lot of Chesterfield Coats and short double-breasted Coats, which for quality of goods and prices can't be beat.

Where do you buy the best and cheapest clothing? At Sternberg's.

Where do you get the finest and cheapest drygoods? At Sternberg's.

Where do you get your best and cheapest article of groceries? At Sternberg's.

For cheap clothing drygoods, notions, groceries, &c., Sternberg's store is ahead of all others in Bellefonte. Try it.

Our young friend, Mr. Jno. F. Alexander, has joined the mercantile firm of Wm. K. & A. R. Alexander, and the firm now reads Alexander Bro's, a good young team, fresh in the race, and which will sell goods to customers.

Foster & Devling, at Bellefonte, still keep up one of finest and best stocks of dry-goods, notions and groceries in the country, and at the lowest figures. The fact is,—theirs is the store where you can get any thing you want. Penns valley farmers should not fail to call upon them, if they wish to get goods at reduced figures. Their stock is always full and complete.

IRON ORE.—We have now lying upon our desk a specimen of pipe ore from the farm of Joseph Snook, about one mile from Logansville, in Sugar Valley. If any one doubts the quality of this ore, the doubt can be removed by calling and examining for himself.

LEAD AND SILVER MINE.—We are informed that there is a deposit of lead and silver on the farms of Mr. Dornblaser and others residing on Fishing Creek in Nittany Valley in the neighboorhood of Washington Furnace. Some years since, the farm now owned by Mr. Dornblaser was then in the posession of Mr. John Best, and during that time a shaft was sunk and some lead ore obtained, which we are told was of an excellent quality, and contained silver enough to pay for the working of the shaft. For some reasons of which we are not fully informed the working of the mine was discontinued, but we believe it was not for want of ore. At present, the agitation of the question of the resources of our rich valleys has revived the subject of this old mine, and we are told that there is talk in the neighborhood of investigating the matter with a view to developing the extent and value of this deposit.—Clinton Democrat.

THANKS.—We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket, to the Tyrone "Juneauta Course" of Lectures. Thanks, Brainerd.

John G. Saxe, America's wittiest poet, lectures in Caldwell's hall, Tyrone, Feb. 22nd.

Always at home, when you stop at the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte. All about this hotel shows that the proprietors know how to keep a hotel—a table unsurpassed, always ladened with the best of the season, handsome parlors and the most comfortable sleeping apartments. Messrs. Krom & Housel deserve the large patronage that constantly seeks their house.

The engineers are now through the mountain's and at work this side the Forks, locating the railroad. The tunnel at Paddy's mountain will be 325 feet in length, and the tunnel at Beaver Dam some 230 feet long.

A conference committees appointed by the Snowshoe and the L. C. & S. RR. companies, will be held next week, relative to the point of intersection of these two railroads.

On Tuesday Mr. Dill had the following bill passed in the senate:

Section 1 That it shall be lawful for the Lewisburg Centre and Spruce Creek railroad company to create issue and dispose of from time to time on such terms and conditions as to the board of directors may seem proper bonds for any amount not exceeding three millions of dollars payable at such period or periods of time as they may appoint with coupons attached or otherwise bearing interest at a rate not exceeding seven per centum per annum payable semi-annually with or without provision for the payment by the company of any or all taxes on the principal or interest thereof and to secure the said bonds by one or more mortgages of the whole or any portion of the said railroad estate real and personal corporate rights and franchises acquired and that may hereafter be acquired by said company Provided That no bond shall issue for a less denomination than one hundred dollars

Section 2 That any mortgage or mortgages executed and dilivered under authority of this act being recorded in the office for recording in the counties of Union and Centre shall thereupon be a lien on the property mortgaged wherever situated as fully and effectually as if it had been recorded in each of the several counties in which the morgaged premises or any part thereof are or may be situated.

Section 3 That it shall be lawful for the president and directors of said railroad company to increase the capital stock of said company from time to time to such an amount as may be deemed expedient not exceeding sixty thousand shares of the par value of fifty dollars.

Section 4 That the majority of the directors of said company shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 5 allows the executive of said road to Danvile.

The musical convention held here, during last week, under the direction of Prof. Curns, was a success throughout, both financially and artistically. The class reaped praises from all who were present as listeners, and well did it deserve it, for we doubt whether any convention ever befo e held in this county, gave better satisfaction in discoursing soul-stirring music. Prof. Curns was assisted by Miss Joanna Ettinger, of Aaronsburg, as organist, who upon this occasion established for herself a reputation as an accomplished instrumental and vocal performer. The concert on Friday night was attended by a crowded house, many having come quite a distance, and left, feeling they had partaken of a rich musical feast, and favorably impressed with Prof. Curns as a successful teacher of music.

COLD.—Last Monday morning, 6th we had the coldest snap of the season—the thermometer standing 8 degrees below freezing.

Correspondence of the Reporter.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. den 1, '71.

Ereund Kurtz:—Ich weis nicht wie euer Leid ein deutscher Brief in einer englishe Zeitung gleichen deden, doch hab ich ein Notion sie zu probieren, und wen es nicht zu viel krank macht, oder etwas schlechter verursacht, den werd ich wohl bald wieder schreiben. In dieser Stadt haben wir viele Menschen; allerlei Sprachen, Partei, Religion und Farben; doch (Gott sei dank) hat es mehr weissen as schwartzen!

Ich denke oftmals es wer nicht viel wunder (und es geschieht alzemohl) wen hier Leite ihre eigene Heimoth nicht kennen deden, oder Weibsleit ihre eigene Menner! Noch nicht gar long geht ein gut genatured und lebhafter Bruder heim von der "Gesellschaft," nach mitternacht, und wohnhaft auf einer der besten Strassen; grose Heuser, mit marbel Treppe, nimmt sein Nachtschlissel, geht ins Haus, der Kiche zu—an den Schank wo er allerlei gute Lebesmittel findet, mehr und besser das er mei niglich gewohnt is zu haben; er esst, und auf der Renge find er auch und schuttet halb voll guter Coffee, er flucht ust ein wenig weil er nicht weis wo das gute Fleisch, Kuchen und Coffee her kommen, und, ust wie er auf den Speicher nauf gehen will, kommt die Mad darch den Gang in die Kiche, seht den fremme Man, doch ein bekantes Gesicht; sie fragte ihn, Ei Joseph, was dust du hier nach der Mitternachtstunde? Ist deine Frau auch hier? Unser Joseph sehet das er im letze Haus ist, ust zwei Dihren von seinere eigene Heimath, und allein mit sei Nachbar's Magd! Er fragte die Tillie ihn zu der hinten Dihr nauss lassen und verspechte ihr ein seitener Gound wen sie ihn nicht verrothen ded. Das ist eine der viele Mistakes hir, und nicht der greste!

Wir haben auch sehr viel Leid hier die keine Heimath haben, doch gehen sie offmal in fremde Kicken, Parlors, Schlofstuben, und Storen, helfen sich zu Kleitung, Essnittel, silverne Leffel und als a mol Diamonds und falsche Zein; und, wen sie Ungefer ueberherhirt weren schlissen sie die Dihren das Niemand herunter kommen kann bis sie aus dem hause sind, wo ein gute Carriage ready ist sie weg zu fohren. Ich denke auch offmal wo verguiged und verspielt weren landsleid leben, sie denke nickt an Gefohr; send "die gute Stund"—die "mach ich's net heid, den kom ich doch morgen," und, scheinlich haben kein bekimmernis ausser den jungen Medchen. Sie verlieren kein Diamonds; machen kein Mistekes wie Joseph—hab a Goodbhaft in der Frau und Kinder, lest nie zu zudricken—laufen lieber zehn Meile als ainf zu fahren auf der Eisenban, wo 'em sei Leben in Gefohr ist—doch meine ich zehn Yahr in einere Stat wo so viel Menschen teglich zusammen kommen, nilerlei Sachre sehen und schmecken, lebt nicer as viel als manche Leid leben in dreizig oder finfzig Yahr, in denne Berge und Tahlen, wo die Hersch sprinye und die Weibsleit im Feld handiere. Was meinen Sie?

(By request.)

I have heard of a place over there,
Where Jesus my saviour doth reign,
There will be no more death over there
Neither singing nor sorrow nor pain

I have friends that have gone over there
And I hope to rejoin them again,
How delightful to meet over there,
And with loved ones forever remain.

There are angels that sing over there,
How delightful their singing must be,
There are crowns for the faithful to wear
And I trust there is a bright one for me.

There are mansions for all over there,
For the poor and the homeless below,
There is room for the world over there
And my saviour invites all to go.

I'll soon be at home over there
For the end of my journey I see,
Many dear to my heart over there,
Are watching and waiting for me.

CHORUS Over there over there
O think of a home over there,
Over there over there over there,
O think of a home over there.
