

CENTRE HALL REPORTER.

Centre Hall, Pa., February 24, 1871.

TERMS.—This paper is published weekly at $2 per year in advance...

Who Needs the Gazette? Our friends, the Centre Hall Reporter, must read his legislative journal backwards...

Now Joe we did put on our glasses and turning to our life of Feb. 23, we find this: "Representative Meek presented a petition in the house in favor of the erection of a poor-house in Centre county..."

The "God and morality" rads at Washington, are still keeping things lively with their disgraceful quarrels. They have nearly all fallen out with each other in their greed for plunder.

During the consideration of the deficiency appropriation bill in the house to-day there was a lively debate between Butler and Farnsworth. The latter reiterated the charge that Butler had used mirrors and other furniture of the treasury department to furnish his house.

Mr. Bucklewe, on 17th ult. from the senate committee on constitutional reform, reported a bill with the following title:

An act to provide for the revision and amendment of the constitution of the commonwealth. It provides that the question of calling a convention to revise and amend the constitution shall be submitted to the people for their decision...

Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad took place at Philadelphia on the 13th inst.

The female suffragists continue their efforts to secure the ballot. Mrs. Isabella Beecher Hooker, in Washington, is publishing a tract in Washington, and will this week deliver her moral and religious argument for the enfranchisement of women.

There is a slight difference of opinion between Radicals as to what are the leading characteristics of the Radical party. Richard Smith, of the "Commonwealth," holds that the Republican is essentially an honest party.

The Little Cottolara.—The march number of this stirring journal comes to us as fresh as the first breath of spring.

We have reported from N. B. Rogers & Co. of Parkersburg, Ohio, a sample of Imported Young's A. Alaska, which is the best quality of Alaska...

The Arkansas trouble.—It may be thought calamity by many that the Republicans should lose Arkansas; but it is not so great a calamity as that a state should be threatened with anarchy by bad men.

The Millionaire's quarrel over the matter of distributing the $20,000, which the legislature appropriated to the relief of the sufferers from the late fire.

The general superintendent confidently expects a considerable reduction in the working expenses of the present year. The improvements made in the construction account consist in deepening the harbor at Centre Hall...

The third section provides regulations for the election as to form of tickets. The fourth provides for the meeting of the return judges on the Thursday after the election in Philadelphia, and on Friday in the other portions of the state.

The secretary of state is to call the convention to order and to preliminary proceedings the chief clerk of the senate and house, if present, shall act as secretary.

The members, except in Allegheny and Luzerne, to be elected by the cumulative system.

same as on the 1st of January, 1870.

An election for managers to serve for the ensuing year was then entered into. The candidates were Messrs. Edward F. Gay, J. Edgar Thompson, Walter Morris, Henry Dubing, Jacob P. Jones, Josiah Bacon, Samuel F. Bodine, John M. Kennedy, Washington Butcher and Henry D. Moore.

Washington, February 22.—The Republican deficiency bill of $13,000,000 came up in the senate to-day, and was warmly opposed in the protracted discussion that arose by Messrs. Brooks, of New York, Eldridge, Cox, Wood, McNeely and others. The first called the attention of the country to the fact that the bill contained the appropriation of $4,000,000 for the army. This amount he declared was not required to support the army in fighting the Indians, but for its use in peaceful States to control elections. Mr. McNeely demonstrated that the rent for the Howard Hotel was paid for a building which the government itself erected and paid for. Messrs. Wood and Cox laid bare similar inequities in the bill, while General Farnsworth made fearful tilt at General Butler in this wise: He first charged him with being a traitor to the Union in his conduct in building the Boston Post-office, and when the item came up for furniture for the Treasury Department, Farnsworth said it was an illustration of the way these wholesale appropriations for mirrors were made for this department. Some articles had been used to decorate the residence of a member of this House, and then had disappeared. (Sensational.) "Give us the name," said Eldridge. "I want to know if he is a Democrat." Farnsworth replied that his politics were not his business, but that he had been everything by turns and nothing long. The eye of the whole House and the crowded galleries were of course on Butler. He rose filled with rage, and denied the charges. He had vindicated himself before the senate, and as to the story that the mirrors of the Treasury had been loaned to him was false. General Farnsworth was prompt with his reply. He had intimated the charge scattered all over the country, and I hope every Democratic newspaper will treat it with silent contempt.

The "God and morality" rads at Washington, are still keeping things lively with their disgraceful quarrels. They have nearly all fallen out with each other in their greed for plunder. A dispatch, a few days ago, says: During the consideration of the deficiency appropriation bill in the house to-day there was a lively debate between Butler and Farnsworth. The latter reiterated the charge that Butler had used mirrors and other furniture of the treasury department to furnish his house. Butler replied with much personal bitterness, and for some time there was an exciting scene which was much enjoyed by members. It is stated that Farnsworth has some other charges which he intends to bring out against Butler. The present legislature must be a lazy one, the Morning Patriot says it may not adjourn until May. The small amount of work performed thus far indicates the extension of the session until at least that time. The members of the house of representatives of this state have given a most touching proof of their regard for the memory of the immortal Washington, by adjourning for ten days. The senate was not so patriotic by half.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad took place at Philadelphia on the 13th inst. The annual report of the road to have been $3,144,047.71, and the expenses $2,677,728.42, leaving as net proceeds $666,319.29. The report says that "notwithstanding a fair increase of passengers and freight, the total earnings have been less than the previous year, which is accounted for by the very low freight charges rendered necessary to complete with the Erie railroad of New York, whose rates were so low as to render the business unprofitable to themselves and injurious to the interests of other companies. It is believed that this policy will soon be abandoned, and rates established remunerative to all parties, which can readily be done by mutual agreement and a rigid adherence to the rates adopted." The following statement shows in detail the account of the road with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company: Balance due on construction account Jan. 1, 1870, $37,974.37; amount paid on construction in 1870, 2,027,257.29; paid interest on funded debt in 1870, 1,070,436.22; for maintaining organization, 8,050.26; $1,409,218.14. Income of net earnings for road, $466,319.29; Dividends for O. C. and A. R. R. stock, 210,000.00; Interest allowed, 23,337.07; $709,653.35. Balance due Penna. R. R. Co., January 1, 1871, $609,564.79; After deducting $340,731.67 due on construction account, the receipts of the road have fallen short of the working expenses and interest on the funded debt $268,833.13. A portion of the deficiency is accounted for in the necessity of paying gold instead of currency for interest on a large portion of our bonds, but the principal part is due to the low rates of freight charges. An additional charge of one quarter of one cent per ton per mile on $55,000,000, being the average amount of tonnage carried over the entire road, would have made the receipts sufficient to pay the working expenses and interest on the funded debt, and leave a balance of $202,717. The road is and has during the year been kept in good condition, and the operating expenses compared with other roads have been quite favorable. The general superintendent confidently expects a considerable reduction in the working expenses of the present year. The improvements made in the construction account consist in deepening the harbor at Centre Hall, and the construction of sidings and the erection of a round-house for locomotives at St. Marys. Arrangements are now in progress looking toward a material extension of business during the present year. The work and operations of the company will be as follows: January, 1870; and on our route a mile square.

The Santo Domingo Commissioners, or two of them rather, have written some private letters here, the contents of which it would not, of course, be proper to publish, but the tenor of which indicates very clearly what we may expect on the annexation question. The Commissioners have already discovered that Hayti strongly opposes the transfer of Santo Domingo to the United States, and is virtually sustaining the revolutionary leader Cabral. It is therefore very evident that if the Dominican portion of the island is annexed to the United States, the government will accept a war of inconceivable dimensions, especially so if an expense is concerned. It remains to be seen whether Congress will accept that situation which the direct question of annexation comes to be decided.

An act is before the legislature to authorize the Tyrone and Clearfield railroad company to sell and convey its real and personal, corporate rights and franchises to the Pennsylvania railroad company, and to authorize the Pennsylvania railroad company to purchase the same, and to issue additional shares of its capital stock for that purpose. A supplement to an act, entitled an act to incorporate the Bald Eagle and Luzerne company, in Clinton county, approved the 13th day of April, A. D. 1859, authorizing an increase of bonds, passed.

The Female Suffragists continue their efforts to secure the ballot. Mrs. Isabella Beecher Hooker, in Washington, is publishing a tract in Washington, and will this week deliver her moral and religious argument for the enfranchisement of women. Mrs. Almira Lincoln Phelps will in a few days issue an address to the ladies of the United States, and especially to the old pupils of her late sister, Mrs. Willard, and of her own, calling on them to protest against female suffrage and vindicate themselves as true women.

There is a slight difference of opinion between Radicals as to what are the leading characteristics of the Radical party. Richard Smith, of the "Commonwealth," holds that the Republican is essentially an honest party. "Don't Platt, of the Cincinnati Commercial, says "the Republican party is the party of organized paucity." The first witnesses are Radicals of the "Commonwealth," but Don's testimony is corroborated by the facts, and Smith's is not.

The ex-Emperor Napoleon at Wilhelmshöhe has received an official notification from the German authorities not again to overstep the privileges of a prisoner, but to abstain from all interference in politics, and to issue no more protests and no more proclamations. Orders have been given to the Governor of Cassel to watch the Imperial prisoner more closely.

The N. Y. Post takes this view of the Arkansas trouble: "It may be thought calamity by many that the Republicans should lose Arkansas; but it is not so great a calamity as that a state should be threatened with anarchy by bad men; and if the Republicans in any state can show no better title to rule than they do in Arkansas, they should give place there to democracy, the better for the country, and the better, too, for the Republican party."
