The South.

In the Reporter, two weeks ago, we printed a long extract from a letter which appeared in the New York Observer, a religious paper, from a correspondent in the South Carolina...

"South Carolina may be regarded as the typical southern state. Here the southern idea was most fully developed, and here the change to the northern system of government and society is most radical, and is attended by the greatest resistance.

The Washington Patriot says: "It seems to be understood that Governor Curtin intends to renounce his honorable exile in St. Petersburg, and to come home in order to take part in the Presidential campaign, either as a candidate—if that be practicable—or an active participant."

Just as the Reporter said last week—they have the same opinion at Washington as to what may be the reasons for "our Andy's" return. Grant and Cameron have determined to slaughter Curtin.

Rothermel's painting of the Battle of Gettysburg, ordered by the state of Pennsylvania, is said to be the greatest picture in the world.—Exchange.

Yes, and we might as well add that it is just as great a swindle. The state, or rather a radical legislature, ordered the painting at a cost of $30,000, for the rotunda of the capitol, and it has been on exhibition in Philadelphia, at 25 cents a peep for nearly a year, and the proceeds are pocketed by a private ring.

Our gallant neighbor is generally in sympathy with the feelings of the democracy of the county, but upon this subject very few will be found as apologists of the new senatorial district.

It would be hard to imagine a state of society more entirely unfitted for a republican form of government than this. The intelligent people of the state have no voice in public affairs, and no influence in the government, and are obliged to submit to the rule of a class just released from slavery.

When will the legislature adjourn? This question interests the tax payer very gravely. The month of May is here, and two weeks of it passed, and no sign of an adjournment.

Another Great Lapse by the Pennsylvania Central.

The report of the lease of the united railroads of New Jersey to the Pennsylvania railroad company is fully confirmed. The committee of the two boards of directors have fully agreed to the terms, and will submit the same to the stockholders of the New Jersey company, who will, of course, ratify it.

Work Resumed in the Coal Region. Pottsville, May 8.—Kear's miners' strike is now over, and the mines are again in operation. The following is a list of the mines which have resumed work:

Hyde Park, May 8.—A large procession of miners today marched through the streets of Hyde Park, Pa., in honor of the late Governor Curtin.

Senatorial Conference. The conference of the 21st senatorial district, held at Centre Hall, Pa., on Tuesday, the 21st of May, was adjourned until the 28th of the same month.

Life of the Empress Eugenie at this hour. During the last six months a plainly dressed, graceful lady, accompanied by three or four attendants, might have been met every day walking in the streets of Philadelphia.

A Young Man Charged With Murder Visits the Death-Bed of His Wife. A person of fine imagination may form, perhaps, an appropriate picture of the broken-heartedness and despair resulting from a scene like this.

How the Republican party proposes to develop the "national resources" by way of paying the national debt may be judged of by the fact that the same party has proposed to give away the national resources to the Presidential and Congressional notion of developing the resources to pay the debt.

"Judge" Wrigg of South Carolina, a colored individual, has just received a judgment of $1,200 from the Richmond and Danville Railroad, because the conductor refused to let him ride in the ladies' car.

Alahama tells a tale of horror. Three disguised men robbed the wife of a collector of the public fund, and then ordered her to serve supper. She did so, and put arsenic in the tea. On stripping the dead bodies of her
