In Kansas some great railroads are in contemplation upon the 3 foot guage. We have advices from Leavenworth, which say: There is considerable excitement in that city and vicinity over the proposed narrow-guage railroad from Leavenworth to Denver. Some days ago the corporators, who are men of eapital, made a proposition to the Board of County Commissioners to build fifty miles of the road within twelve months if the county would surrender $250,000 stock now held in Kansas Pacific. The Fever Renewing its Ravages in the City of Buenos Ayres.

Recent advices from Montevide present the condition of affairs in the ricken capital of the Argentine republic as not only having improved but having grown alarmingly worse. The last advices from Buenos Avres re port the number of deaths at 700 per America, direct from Buenos Ayres estimated that at least 25,000 had died of the leathsome disease out of a popu lation of 250,000, and that there wer 15,000 sick, the most of whom would doubtless never recover. A more de plorable picture could scarcely have peen conceived than is given of the misery and suffering endured by all, both high and low, within the fatal
