The approach of the fall nomination and election of a representative, enjoins upon voters the duty of selecting the proper to tell the people of Centre county, that the Library did not take three cents out of the people's taxes, that its revenues come from sources which herefore added little or nothing to our county treasury, yet it is surprising that some people will permit office seekers to humbug them without gives in gifte subject fair investigation. But as friend Meek lays such great stress upon his repeal of a library act which had nothing in it, and about which he has so much to say, let us next see how he stood upon another library bill, which did amount to something and the library bill, which did amount to some the library bill, which did amount to some the library bill, which another library bill, which did amount to something, and which did take a large sum the people of another district concerning term was slipped through amid the monstrated that it can no longer be
