The Editor's Good Angel. folks to dia?

I owe you for next year's paper, I thought I'd come in and pay.

And Jones is a goin to take it, and this is his And Jones is a goin to take it, and this is his money, here:
I shut down lendin' it to him, and then coaxed him to try it a year.
And here is a few little items that happened last week in our town;
I thought they'd look good for the paper, and so I just jotted 'em down.
And here is a basket of cherries my wife picked expressly for you;
And a small kanch of flowers from Jennie—she thought she must send somethin, too.
You're doin' the politics bully, as all of our family agree;
Just keep your old goose-quill a flapping and give 'em a good one for me.
And now you are chuck full of business, and I won't be takin' your time;
I've things of my own I must tend to—good day, sir, I b'lieve I will climb."
