For the Reporter Correspondence.

Mr. Editor: Will you publish the enclosed articles in your paper, in order that your numerous readers who do not take the "Watchman" may have the advantage of reading them. The first is from the "Bellefonte Republican" of Aug 23rd, the other from the "Democratic Watchman" of Aug. 25th 1871. A careful study of these two articles will give to any reflecting mind a good idea of radical liliberality and unfairness. In the first place, the whole subject is one belonging exclusively to the internal organization of our party, with which neither a radical editor nor the radical party has any thing whatever to do. But for the present we will waive this, to us, perfect answer to the "Republican's" article, and inquire what the distinct points alledged against our candidate for assembly are and then see how perfect the defense is.

bly are and then see now perfect the defense is.

1st, It is alledged that our candidate prior to our delegate election exhibited and used in Potter and Miles townships against Mr. Orvis his competitor, a letter purporting to have been writtan by Isaac Little of Bellefonte to James Chambers of Patton township, both being radicals, and the former secretary of their county committee.

tee.
2. That this letter, while ostensibly written in the interest of Mr. Orvis, was so worded as to damage his prospects and assist our candidate, Hon. P. G. Meek.
3. That James Chambers never received that, or any similar letter from Capt. Isaac Lytle.

4, That Capt. Isaac Lytle never wrote that or any similar letter to James Chambers.

5. That our candidate Mr. Meek, has told Capt. Lytle that he (Meek) had himself written the letter in Millhiem and knowing the Captain to be a great friend of his, took the liberty of attaching his name to it.

6. That this proves our noble standard bearer to be guilty of a trick, a fraud, a forgery, and morally unfit to represent the honest people of Centre county in the Legislature.
