We would esteem it a favor if our kind patrons would occasionally mail a copy of the Reporter to relatives and acquaintances who formerly lived in Centre county and removed to other pasts, which would induce many to become subscribers.

During the recent visit of Horace Greely to this city the venerable sage was sitting on a sofa, at the Newhall House, conversing with a friend, when Colonel Sawyer came up and joined them. Greely turned to speak to him, and while he was thus engaged, his former listener departed. Colonel W. J. Kershaw, happening along just then, dropped in the vacant seat.
