MONDAY MORNING:::::::JUNE 20, 1859.

☞ DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE—There will be a meeting of the Committee at BUEHLER'S HOTEL, Harrisburg, on WEDNESDAY, the 29th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M. All the members of the Committee are earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance will claim their attention.
ROBERT TYLER, Chairman.

ANOTHER BATTLE IN EUROPE.

The telegraph brings us news of a general battle, fought at Magenta, a point near Milan, in Austrian Italy, between the French forces under the Emperor and the Austrians under General Hess. The battle took place on the fourth of June. The first despatches represented that 25,000 Austrians and 12,000 French had been killed and disabled. Those that came after greatly reduced these huge figures.

The Emperor of the French claims a decisive victory, and claims to have taken 7,000 prisoners and disabled 12,000, but the number of killed is not stated. The Austrian accounts differ widely from the French. Various battles with varying success are spoken of. The French loss according to Paris rumors is about equal to the Austrian, and later rumors detract still more from the French victory at Magenta.

The accounts, as were those of the battle of Montebello, are conflicting and unsatisfactory. There is no doubt that a battle has been fought, and with great loss on both sides. It is a matter of doubt whether the French or Austrians were victorious. The accounts first received come through France and must be received with many grains of allowance.

A few days will bring us the facts. We give all the news received up to this time under our telegraphic head.

PIKE'S PEAK—IMMENSE ALLEGED GOLD DISCOVERIES.

There are two sides to the Pike's Peak question, and either upon one or the other—perhaps upon both—the most tremendous lies are told.

But recently we have had the most heart-rending accounts of starvation and distress from the "Gold Mines," where gold was not. The thousands of emigrants who had flocked to this far off region, in hopes of bettering their condition, flocked back again with broken health and broken hopes. They pronounced Pike's Peak a deception—a humbug—said there was no gold there, and denounced the whole affair as a scheme of dishonest speculators to sell their lots. The plains were represented as covered with starving men, dying of deprivation and the "black cholera,"—a new disease, to give additional horrors to the sickening accounts.

Well, most, if not all of these sad stories were true. To thousands, the wild hunt after sudden wealth terminated in a Golgotha in the wilderness. The people of the country looked upon it as a fixed fact that the gold hunters had been misled and deceived by speculating letter writers and letter writing speculators, whose moral depravity stopped not at the sacrifice of human life in their efforts to sell lots at a huge price.

But just as the gold fever had died away, and people were coming to their senses again, we have another batch of most exciting news concerning the recent discoveries of gold at Pike's Peak. The burnt child dreads the fire. The country has been deceived once by the Pike's Peak fever, and we warn all who have any idea of emigrating to pause and think. It is always better to let well enough alone. These new accounts may, perhaps, be a last expiring effort of desperate and dishonest speculators to bring up the price of lots and claims at Pike's Peak.

We advise every man who can earn enough to eat to stay at home and not be cajoled by the present dazzling accounts. But these accounts, nevertheless, come to us from such sources and with such an apparent truthfulness upon their face, that, as a newsmonger, we do not feel at liberty altogether to ignore them. We give the caution and at the same time copy a few of the late accounts and leave people to judge of them for themselves.

The Leavenworth Daily Times of the 10th inst., issues an extra, containing a letter from "its own correspondent" headed as follows:

"Immense Gold Discoveries—Pike's Peak a Glorious Reality—Miners Making Hundreds of Dollars per Day—The District in a Furore."

We make the following extract:

On or about the 4th ult., Mr. J. H. Gregory, from Gordon county, Georgia, started with a party of seven, with a view to a thorough exploration of the northern tributaries of Vasquez or Clear Creek. On the 6th ult., they struck what has since been called Quartz Creek, at a point about thirty miles due west of this point, and proceeded to handle their pans and shovels. At a point about three hundred feet above the right bank of said creek, on the north side of an extremely steep hill, Mr. Gregory gathered a pan of surface dirt, took it down to the water, and was rewarded for the washing of it by four dollars worth of fine dust. This, of course, stimulated him and company to vigorous and extensive prospecting, which resulted in the striking of a bed of sand, amidst a bed of partly rotten and partly burnt quartz, that was found to yield from five to ten dollars to the pan. The lead was traced over the mountains, by dint of layers of burnt quartz, which were found on the surface, in a northeasterly and southwesterly direction, and every member of the party at once took up claims. At the time snow and ice was yet plentiful in the valley, and for several days the working of the leads had to be delayed in consequence of the continued blockade of the creek by ice. None of the claims made on the lead discovered by Mr. Gregory—from whom the diggings at once took the name—had been worked more than six days, and yet the yields enumerated below have been obtained.

The news of the striking of this rich lead soon reached this and adjoining towns, and various prospecting parties set out, which succeeded in discovering a number of additional leads—the yielding of which I also give below.

During the last ten days a perfect stampede has taken place from this locality, in the direction of the Gregory diggings, and five thousand men are, undoubtedly, examining at the present moment the bowels of mother earth in that vicinity. New leads are struck almost every day, but on account of the local obstacles in the way of rocks, rich growth of timber and steepness of the mountain sides along which the lead runs, etc., it will take some time before they will be in fact in working order. All that has been done is comprised in the following:

J. H. Gregory worked his claim five days and took out $1,100.

William S. Day, John W. Zeigler, Charles M. Zeigler, David P. Spaic, Archibald Defrees, Wilkinson Defrees, and William Chess, all formerly of South Bend, Indiana, formed the party that accompanied Gregory, and had all taken claims on the latter's lead. The four first mentioned commenced working their claims on the 25th ult., and took out on Wednesday, the 25th, $295; Thursday, the 26th, $430; Friday, the 27th, $495; Saturday, the 28th, $340; which shows an aggregate result of four days' work amounting to $1,560. The three last mentioned worked their claims jointly five days', during which they realized $1,500.

The names of a number of others are given who have been equally successful.

The St. Louis Democrat of the 15th inst., announces the arrival of $600 worth of the dust in St. Louis, in the hands of D. T. Swinburne, of Newport, R. I., who is represented as "a most respectable gentleman worthy of confidence, and, would not under any circumstances enter into a scheme to deceive his fellow citizens."

Mr. S. states that a much larger amount would have been sent forward from the mines, but for the fact that the diggers were asking $20 per ounce for it, which is more than it is worth. By the next arrival it is expected that from $5,000 to $10,000 will be sent forward, as the diggings are very rich.

A great change had taken place among the people in the border towns after the receipt of this gold, and many who had left the mines were preparing to return. Russell & Jones, of Leavenworth, have again placed all their coaches and wagons upon the road, and they are crowded with passengers.

The correspondent of the Leavenworth Times, of date of June 12th says:

The excitement about the Gregory diggings is still on the increase. Authentic information has been received here to-day of the striking of still richer leads by a prospecting party, conducted by Mr. Gregory, and the sale of the latter's claim on the original Gregory lead for not less than twenty-one thousand dollars, to a party of four, of whom three, viz: Amos Gridly, E. B. Henderson, from Cass county, Ind., and a Wm. Allen, from Fulton county, Illinois, are known. The brothers Defrees, who also had two claims on the Gregory lead, sold their interests for $7,500 and $7,000. One of the Zeigler brothers sold a claim, which he had purchased a week previous for $50, for $6,000. A number of other sales of less magnitude are also reported. Marshal Cook, of Donaphan, bought a claim of Gregory, for $600, and Samuel J. Jonce, a well known railroad contractor, two of an other individual for three mules and $600 cash, respectively.

Mr. G. M. Fox, the Agent of the Express Company, at the mines, whose previous reports were exceedingly discouraging, writes the following:

FLATTERING REPORTS.

[From Business Correspondence of Smoot, Russell & Co.]
DENVER CITY, June 4, 1859.

I send you to-day, per Leavenworth City and Pike's Peak Express, gold dust amounting in value to $403,35, for which you will please give me credit. The package marked A is Platte River gold, and worth here $18 per ounce. That marked Jackson & Boulder is also worth $18. This, you will observe, is a very fine specimen, and is calculated to have a good effect if seen by California miners. It resembles California gold more closely than any other yet discovered.

I write you honestly, gentlemen, and it is my firm belief that in two weeks I will be able to ship you, as purchasers, on consignments, from five to ten thousand dollars.

The gold in the largest package is from Gregory, and is saved with quicksilver. For this I paid $16 per ounce. As soon as possible advise me as to the real value of each specimen.

The mines are suprisingly rich, so old miners say. They are astonished, and cannot believe it, even if they do see it. Claims are being sold every day at from $1, per foot to $20,000.

These are representatations made to me by parties in whom I have the most implicit faith.

The holders of the gold district at Gregory's demand $20 per ounce for the gold. This is too much, and I will not give it unless you so instruct. I am willing to give $16 per ounce.

Since I wrote to you last, the reports from the mines have continued to grow more encouraging. New leads have been struck and proved to be equally as rich as those about which I advised you in my last. At Gregory's, those who have their claims fully open are making from $50 to $100 to the man per day.

Respectfully,
G. M. FOX.

All this reads very well, we admit, but "there's luck in leisure." We advise all who are thinking of Pike's Peak to wait till they hear from Greeley; he is up there somewhere, and if he makes up his mind to desert politics, the slave question, the New York Tribune, and all his other humbugs, and become a permanent Pike's Peaker, we'll not say that we'll go too, but—we'll think about it.

Railroad Earnings.

The following is a statement of the increase or decrease in the earnings of various Railroads for the month of May, 1859, accompanied with the Month of May, 1858:

RAILROADS.	INCREASE.	DECREASE.
Baltimore and Ohio	$ 189 46
Pitts., Ft. Wayne & Chicago	21,612 56
Illinois Central		$12,310 87
Cin., Hamilton and Dayton	9,189 66
Chicago, Burlington & Quincy	2,494 92
Galena and Chicago Union		38,632 00
Michigan Southern		60,251 49
Chicago and Rock Island		8,442 82
Milwaukie and Mississippi		25,035 98
New York Central		97,531 59
Central New Jersey	11,147 95
Cleveland and Mahoning	129 43
Michigan Central		58,582 24
Cleve., Columbus and Cin	71 59

We are not advised as to the earnings of the Pennsylvania Railroad, but from the above statement it is very evident that the Pennsylvania Railroad and her legitimate connections, have had much the best of the late free fight between East and West lines.

THE London Times, after a careful weighing of all the statements upon the subject, official and otherwise, decides that the weight of testimony indicates that the result of the affair at Montebello was in favor of the French. In respect to the amount of imagination displayed in the despatches, it gives the preference to the Sardinians, and next to the Austrian account, the latter being to the former as Defoe is to Munchausen. The New York Times characterizes the account of the French General (Forey,) as "modest, decisive and intelligible," which is, perhaps, as much as to say not very Napoleonic. The writers of the New York Times, however, show a very decided leaning to the French side, so that their testimony upon this point perhaps should be taken, as Monkbarns would say cum grano salis.

ADDITIONAL advices from Utah inform us that Governor Cumming had ascertained that a twelve pound howitzer constituted all the public arms in the Territory. The Marshal has addressed a communication to the Governor in response to the proclamation, stating that there are no bodies of armed men gathering in the mountains with a view to a military organization. General Johnston had promised protection to emigrant trains going to California, and advised the emigrants to collect at some common point, when he would afford them an escort. The Indians were getting troublesome, running off with government stock. A "big blow," or storm, did some damage in Salt Lake City and environs on the 16th ult.

THE Wheeling Argus (Democrat) is of opinion that both Wise and Hunter's prospects for the Presidency have been damaged by the recent Virginia election. "In the late contest," says the Argus, "neither had a triumph, and each of them was somewhat damaged. The result may be that both will have to yield in the next Presidential contest to a more fortunate rival."

The Argus claims that Western Virginia can control the action of Virginia in the Charleston Convention, but to be efficient they must be no man's followers; and advises them to remain as they now are, "masters of the situation."

THE great trotting match for $5,000, three mile heats to wagons, at Eclipse Course, Wednesday, between Flora Temple and Princess, was won by the former. Between 12,000 and 15,000 persons were on the ground, and the race was closely contested. The time was 7:54 and 7:59,—by no means extraordinary.

THE crew of the Orion, charged with being a slaver have been examined before the United States Commissioner, in New York, and discharged, the evidence being insufficient to hold them.

Improvement of the Ohio.

The improvement of the falls of the Ohio river, with a view to the better accommodation of the vast amount of trade that will continue to seek water communication between Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Louisville and New Orleans, is claiming new attention at the West, and various projects are being discussed and urged upon the attention of the General Government. In view of the future requirements of the Ohio river trade, the Cincinnati Gazette urges the construction of an additional canal, but to this there seems very grave objections, on account of the heavy outlay required in its accomplishment. The enlargement of the present canal, seems, however, to be imparitively called for, and the navigation should moreover be made as free as possible. It has been demonstrated by a report from a corps of Government Engineers, who made the survey a few years since, that at a comparitively trifling cost, the present canal around the Falls can be widened to one hundred feet, with side basins for boats to pass each other, and by constructing a single lock, four hundred, or four hundred and fifty feet in length, and of a width to accommodate the largest boats, these rapids can be passed with as little delay, and as securely as any other point of the river. The present canal, when enlarged according to the plan proposed by the Government Engineers, will be about two miles in length. A canal on the other side must be five or six miles in length. The cost of a new canal will, moreover, be at least three times as great as the enlargement of the present one; and being longer, it will require a larger annual outlay to keep it in repair. Every conceivable argument is, therefore, in favor of the enlagement, and that, it is believed, will abundantly accommodate the trade of the river for many years to come.

[For the Pittsburgh Post.]

MR. EDITOR—I was much astonished to learn that the Managers of the stock in the Manchester Horse Railway intended to go by what is called the upper route, and deflect in the direction of Wood's run, by Bagaly's lane, leaving all who are along Rebecca street and the river without cars or omnibuses. The lower route should be taken, but if the upper be determined upon, which must be expensive, why not take the route now used by omnibuses, and all other vehicles, down to Beaver street. Any other route is a fraud, and letters patent should not issue unless the natural routes be determined upon.

FIRST WARD, ALLEGHENY.

The Next President.

A leading Tennessee paper is deprecating any further war upon Judge Douglas, says:

In view of the result in Virginia, we submit to the Southern Democracy everywhere, if it is not time to put a stop to the war on Douglas? Douglas is a loyal Democrat; he has fought like a hero for the constitutional rights of the South; he is the ablest leader of the party—the foremost man in the nation; and all that his friends, all that national Democrats ask, is, that he shall have fair play. Will you consent to this? or do you desire to break up the party and blow up the Union?

The writer of this is by no means exclusively wedded to Mr. Douglas. Our only object is to save the Democratic party from disintegration, and, as we have said before, to bring it up to the scratch in 1860, sound in wind and limb for the great battle with all the "elements" of the Black Republican opposition. No man familiar with the career of Stephen A. Douglas, can honestly say that he is unwilling to trust him on any question connected with the institutions of the South. Many Southern, and a host of Northern Democrats, believe that he is the only man in the party who can lead the Democracy to certain victory in 1860; and their reasons for this belief are very far from showing any want of plausibility.

WE have six days later advices from Utah. The Mormons are represented as collecting in the mountains, arming themselves, and leaguing with the Indians. John Hartnett, Secretary of State, had assumed the editorship of the Valley Tan, the anti Mormon paper. The survivors of the Mountain Meadow massacre, were to be brought East by the kindness of Russell, Major and Waddell, the army contractors. The Mormons had sent East to purchase a cotton mill.

THE Administration thinks it can discern in the recent intelligence from Mexico the speedy triumph of the Liberal cause in that distracted country. The recent instructions to our Ministers, and also to the naval officers in command of the forces in the Gulf of Mexico, are clear, positive and explicit. Should any of the minions of Miramon or Zuloaga interfere, as it is alleged they contemplate doing, with the Tehuantepec route, they will then see what our Government will do.

THE Board of Education of New York city, after full debate, resolved, by a vote of 25 to 26, to adopt the report of the Committee appointed some time since to consider the propriety of drafting a by-law asserting the authority of the Board to insist on making all the Public Schools in the city assume, as a part of the daily routine, the reading of the Scriptures. Henceforth, therefore, the teachers in the Public Schools must either read the Bible to their scholors, or go without their salaries.

THE State Department has received advices from our Minister at Chili giving all the facts relating to the seizure of the brig Townsend Jones. The administration has sent instructions to our Minister to demand reparation for revoking the exequatur of the American Consul at Valparaiso, and a man-of-war has been ordered to that port to look after American interests.

THE bark Orion, which sailed from New York on the 21st January, has arrived home in charge of United States officers, having been siezed on the Congo river as a slave trader. Her captain, it is said, has died of a broken heart. We don't wonder at it—such a business is unfit for any body with a heart.

A MOVEMENT in favor of Governor Wise for the next Presidency, has been started in Philadelphia. A meeting was held for the purpose of consolidating this movement, which is represented to have been "respectable, expectant, harmonious, enthusiastic, and sanguine."

OF GARIBALDI, one who knows him says his influence over his troops is somewhat wonderful. His form, Herculean strength, his fine, energetic and expressive head—everything, even his picturesque costume, contributes to increase the prestige he wields.

THE President will remove to his summer retreat—the Soldier's Home—in a few days. He intends leaving for Bedford Springs on the 20th of July. Besides Miss Lane, he will be accompanied by Mrs. Secretary Thompson and Mrs. Senator Gwin.

MR. HENRY DEXTER, the sculptor, has received an order from a number of Mr. Buchanan's friends in Boston, to make a marble bust of the President, and has gone to Washington to execute the commission.

THE the New York papers are reminding the bakers of that city, that the last foreign news shows a further decline in the price of breadstuffs. Pittsburgh bakers might as well note the fact at the same time.

JOHN G. SAXE, the comic poet, lecturer and editor, was, on Thursday, nominated as the Democratic candidate for Governor of Vermont. Give us a song, John, on your chances of election.

IT is said, we know not on what authority, that the removal of Lieut. Maury from his present post is in contemplation. We trust not. He is a right man in the right place.

A COUNTERFEIT Treasury note for $50 was a few days ago sent to the Treasury Department for redemption. The owner was a citizen of Georgia. The counterfeit was an execrable thing as a specimen of engraving, bearing no resemblance to the genuine instrument, and could never impose on any one at all familiar with pecuniary transactions.

THE inhabitants of Fayal are again in a starving condition. A meeting has been held in Boston at which $1,000 was subscribed for their relief.

THE Japanese representatives, who are to be the great lions of the next season, will come by the steamer Mississippi.
