

DEMOCRATIC PARTY

AUDITOR GENERAL, RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, of Philadelphia. JOHN ROWE, of Franklin County.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET

GOVERNOR, GEORGE F. COLEMAN, of Pittsburgh. COUNTY ATTORNEY, JOHN N. McLEOD, of Pittsburgh. COUNTY CLERK, SAMUEL M. KEE, of Pittsburgh.

THE WEEKLY POST

Our Weekly, for this week, contains Senator Douglas's great essay on Popular Sovereignty, entire, copied from Harper's Magazine.

ABUSE OF THE PRINTING PRIVILEGE

The black republicans did it up till business to manufacture capital against the general government because Postmaster General Blair had attempted to create the impression that the documents were stopped because they were black republican documents.

WESTERN BOATS

The Philadelphia Bulletin is down upon the manner in which Western steamboats are constructed. It says that they are "light, fragile, delicate, and scientific structures that are made for great deal of money."

BOOTS, SHOES AND LEATHER

Messrs. H. Childs & Co., announce their fall stock of Boots, Shoes and Sole Leather. This house has a long established reputation, and is prepared to furnish articles in its line as cheap, as good, and upon as favorable terms, as any house in the country.

LETTERS FROM SAN FRANCISCO

A letter from San Francisco, received by the Star of the West, furnishes the following interesting information: "You will be pleased to learn that silver ore of most extraordinary richness has been discovered on the Mariposa grant."

STABILITY OF TRUSTS IN ENGLAND

In one of his lectures, Mr. Emerson tells a story to exemplify the stability of things in England. He says that William, of Wycliffe, about the year 1150, endowed a house in the neighborhood of Winchester, to provide a measure of beer and a sufficiency of bread to every one who asked it, forever."

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION—Great Excitement.

The following telegraphic dispatch of the proceedings of the State Democratic Convention of New York, was received at too late an hour on Wednesday night for Thursday morning's paper.

PROGRESS OF SOUND SENTIMENTS

"One thing is certain and apparent to the whole country," says the Cincinnati Times, "namely, that the great North-West is a unit on the leading question of the day—Popular Sovereignty in the territories."
