PITTSBURGH POST

[Extract from the Pennsylvanian, Phil'a., Oct. 17, 1859.]

Judge Brackenridge's "History" of the Western Insurrection.

Whatever may have been the prejudices against Judge BRACKENRIDGE during the exciting period of the insurrection, it is plain from the statement of such men as JAMES ROSS, General WILKINS, Judge ADDISON and HENRY PEVIANCE, who were in constant communication with him, that his conduct was, in every respect, that of an independent and high-minded patriot.

His numerous—and sometimes in the most trying cases—successful attempts to put down the furious outbreaks of an enraged populace, evinced his loyality to the Government; while his fearlessness in defending the insurgents from the serious charge of treason—in acting as mediator between them and Government officials—in using every exertion to secure a repeal or modification of a law which was then, and has ever been, most odious to the people of every country in which it is enforced, exhibited no common degree of anxiety for the general peace and welfare.

Others, who either by adopting a more conservative course of action, or by refusing to credit the misrepresentations of designing men, thereby lending their influence to limit the spread of injurious reports, might have been powerful instruments for the speedy renewal of peaceful relations, were constant in their efforts to increase the irritation, while he was sacrificing himself in his ardent endeavors to soothe it. The epithet "Insurgent" is still connected with his name, and history has failed to do justice to it, notwithstanding the fact that he was a means of averting one of the most terrible calamities with which this country has ever been threatened."

Special Notices.

☞KNOWN EFFECT.—When pain or inflammation is present in a human body, and Brandreth's Pills are used, they at once seize upon the humors which are the occasion of the pain or inflammation, and remove them from the body, and they cannot injure because their power is only upon and over those humors or impurities, which are unhealthy (want life) and whose presence is a part cause the pain and burning heat. So in sore throat, croup, colds coughs, rheumatisms, pain in the side and pleurisy, which are all cured by from one to three doses of these pills, whose power is only exerted to remove impurities from the blood. The rightly directed will use them and be cured.

Sold at No. 294 Canal street, Brandreth's Principal Office; by Thomas Redpath, No. 27 Diamond street Pittsburgh, Pa., and by all respectable dealers in medicines. oct18:mdaw

$100—PROCLAMATION.

Wonderful Medical Cures by the application of PROF. DEGRATH'S ELECTRIC OIL, ON MAN AND BEAST.

To the Inhabitants of Pittsburgh and Vicinity:—I propose to cure, almost instantaneously, individuals afflicted with Deafness, Headache, Neuralgia, Chill Fever, Ague, Rheumatism, and all sores and pains.

I propose to cure and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish nearer and more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other or all other methods of medical aid in the same space of time, the masses themselves being judges.

I do not propose to cure every disease, but all such as are curable by any combination of medical appliances. My Electric Oil operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore, applicable to the cure or natural restoration of any organic derangement arising from an improper circulation of Nerve-vital fluid.

I want the masses to join in this matter—the well as the sick, because if these things are so, all are alike interested.

N. B.—Please inform me of any case of failure to cure, in from a half hour to three weeks: as I wish to cure or charge nothing. Depot, Philadelphia. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers. oct31:mdaw
