FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT AT GREENSBORO.

The Greenboro Democrat gives the following particulars of an accident at that place, which was fatal to life.

A young man named Henry, who resides near Greensboro, was run over by the construction train of the Pennsylvania Railroad, between the cars at Greensboro, on the morning of the 10th inst.

The train was approaching the water station from the East at the usual speed, and was about to pass the freight house, when it struck the car.

The car was not stopped on the south track, and the train proceeded on its way.

When the car was struck, it was on the wrong track, and the train was stopped.
